MUST ATTAIN AIMS BEFORE MAKING PEACE

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE SPEAKS OF ENDING WAR

Will Be Mankind's Greatest Disaster if Peace Is Made a Moment Before the Time Is Ripe.

EASIER WITHOUT THE HOHENZOLLERNS

Glasgow, June 29.—Premier Lloyd George speaking at Glasgow, today on the question of peace, said that in his judgment the war would come to an end when the entire armies had reached the aims which they had set out to attain when they accepted Germany's challenge.

If the war ended a single minute before, he said, it would be the greatest disaster in the history of mankind.

The premier said textually: "In my judgment the war will come to an end when the allies' armies have reached the aims which they set out to attain when they accepted the challenge thrown down by Germany."

"As soon as these objectives have been reached and guaranteed the war will come to an end, but if the war comes to an end a single minute before it would be the greatest disaster that has ever befallen mankind."

"No doubt we can have peace now at a price. Germany wants peace—she has been doing it for years. They should give us some indemnity for the wrongs we have been doing; just a little here and there and just a few privi-

NORWAY SMARTING OVER GERMAN PLOT

Parliament Hears Account of Program of Germans to Destroy Ships.

London, June 29.—An account of the German plot to blow up Norwegian steamships was given in the Storting yesterday by Foreign Minister Ihlen, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen. M. Ehlin declared the bombs were sent to Norway by the German foreign office by means of a messenger dispatched to the German legation in Christiania.

The Norwegian legation in Berlin had been ordered to inform the German government what had happened and to make a sharp protest against this violation of Norwegian territory. Norway, the foreign minister said, was now awaiting Germany's reply.

After the examination of the messenger had been concluded he was handed over to Germany on condition that action be taken against him there and that he should not be used again as a messenger to Norway.

FAST PROGRESS WITH PACK OF U-BOAT HOUNDS

Washington, June 29.—Rapid progress is being made in the construction of the hundreds of submarine chasers recently ordered by the navy department.

At the New York navy yards alone a dozen of the 110-foot wooden hulls have been completed already, although the original plans called for the production of only one during the month of June. In August the yards will begin to deliver hulls at the rate of three a day and keep that up until

HAVE GAGGED GERMAN PRESS

Big Events Believed to Be Imminent in the German Empire.

DRASTIC MOVES NOW LOOKED FOR Paper Shortage Mere Pretext of Government to Muzzle Editors.

London, June 29.—Special dispatches from Rotterdam say it is inferred there in view of the gagging of the German press that something drastic has happened or is about to happen in Germany.

They quote the Frankfurter Zeitung complaining that it was compelled to issue its political section until further notice without an independent expression of opinion and say the censorship now far exceeds anything previous.

The press is declared to be completely muzzled, it is said, the real reason of the paper shortage is a government move to compel newspapers to print such bare news allowed, excluding comments. The belief is expressed in Holland that next week's meeting of the reichstag may produce startling developments.

CAN HELP THEIR RED CROSS.

Washington, June 29.—In deciding that German prisoners of war in the United States may make and sell toys for the benefit of the German Red Cross, the judge advocate of the army holds there is no treaty that would impose upon the United States a duty to permit prisoners to aid any institutions connected with or serving an enemy of the country in any capacity.

PRESIDENT TAKES A HAND IN BOOZE BATTLE

ROOT VISITS NEAR FRONT

American Envoy to Russia is a Guest at Staff Headquarters.

IMPERIAL TRAIN AT HIS DISPOSAL

Gen. Brussiloff Pledges Russia's Whole Power to Win the War.

Petrograd, June 29.—Elhu Root, head of the American commission and Foreign Minister Terechenko returned to Petrograd yesterday after a brief visit to staff headquarters where they were welcomed by General Brussiloff in the name of the Russian army, which, declared the commander-in-chief, would continue with all the powers at its disposal not only to fight for its own cause—that of fortifying liberty, recently acquired—but at the same time, hand in hand with America, to fight for the right of all nations to shape their destinies in accordance with their own desires.

There was little in the small country town of Mohilev to correspond with a conventional view of a general staff headquarters.

Old Atmosphere Gone.

The atmosphere of formality, secrecy and dignity which distinguished it when it was the home of former Emperor Nicholas had departed since the revolution. There is nothing left to arrest the attention of the observer except the emperor's old residence which is now used by General Brussiloff and the military hotel where members of the staff are quartered. Otherwise it is a peaceful village nestling on the bank of the Dnieper, two hundred miles from the firing line. Only small groups of soldiers were present to watch the imperial train carrying the commission into the station. Despite the fact that the train which was such a common sight in imperial days had not been seen in Mohilev since the abdication of the emperor, it evoked little curiosity. A few soldiers, thinking they might find accommodations therein, crowded on board, but when they were told that it was being used by the American mission they immediately dispersed.

Will Go to Rumania.

Wednesday noon the mission lunched with General Brussiloff and soon thereafter Major General Scott and aides, military members of the commission, by Russian general staff officers, departed for Kiev.

After a short tour of the southwestern front Major General Scott will go

SILLIE SALLIES IN WASHINGTON NOW OUT OF JAIL

Washington, June 29.—The six women suffragists who have done three days in jail for picketing the white house were released this morning after the expiration of their sentences. A breakfast given in their honor. They were made the heroines at a woman's party headquarters. While uniformed police poked in through the picket fence of the grounds surrounding the suffrage headquarters the women were admired and praised by a hundred enthusiasts who pronounced them martyrs to the cause. The police say they will prevent further picketing by more arrests and the suffragists threaten to picket as fast as the police can arrest them.

KING GEORGE IS READY TO SCRAP FAMILY'S TITLE

London, June 29.—The Daily Express says that following the king's desire that the titles of the Duke of Teck and of the Battenberg family be renounced, as the names suggested their German connection, it is suggested the king may expunge the name of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha from his own royal family. The newspaper adds that a new name for the royal family then would have to be found and that the suggestion is made that it be called the "Royal House of Great Britain," which would embrace all the dominions.

ALSA TIANS TO GEN. PERSHING

Men of Land from Which American's Ancestry Came See Him.

CALL TOUCHES THE WARRIOR CHIEFTAIN

Has a Warm Place in His Heart for the Land of His Fathers.

Paris, June 29.—Maj. Gen. Pershing yesterday received a delegation from the Alsace Lorraine republican committee. Referring to the American commander's Alsatian ancestry the vice president, M. Staehling, told the general how proud they were that a descendant of their little country had come to fight for the triumph of their inalienable rights and the restoration to France of the lost provinces.

General Pershing was visibly moved. He said he was most happy to greet representatives of the valiant people who had suffered so deeply because of fidelity to their country, and that he had a warm place in his heart for Alsace, the land of his fathers.

GERMAN GOLD SUPPLY LOW

Imperial Bank's Reserve is 76,000,000 Below Level of Last Week.

A SURRENDER OF JEWELRY ASKED

Efforts of Bank Have Been Sharp to Prevent Complete Pause.

Copenhagen, June 29.—For the first time during the war the weekly report of the Imperial Bank of Germany shows a decrease in its gold reserve, which this week is 76,000,000 marks below the preceding week.

Increments for a long time have been steadily declining despite energetic propaganda appeals to surrender jew-

A BAS THE EGG SHAMPOO; IT IS NOT PATRIOTIC

Chicago, Ill., June 29.—Barbers should stop giving egg shampoos to customers, in order to assist in conserving the food supply of the country, James D. Kimmerer, of South Bend, believes and in support of the idea he has collected statistics which he yesterday forwarded to Herbert C. Hoover, food administrator at Washington. Kimmerer says there are about 300,000 barbers in the United States and that they average two egg shampoos a week with two eggs for each shampoo. This, he points out, means the use of 200,000 eggs a day or 1,200,000 a week.

DUTCH ARMORED CRUISER COMES TO CONVOY SHIP

An Atlantic Port, June 29.—A Dutch armored cruiser, the first warship flying the flag of Holland to come into this port for more than ten years, arrived here today. The warship will remain for several days. Officers of the ship declined to disclose the mission of the vessel, but it was reported that she is to act as a convoy for a number of Holland passenger and freight vessels now about ready to leave American ports.

BIG GAIN IN ARRAS SECTOR

British Achieve Objective in New Drive on the German Lines.

FALL OF LENS IS BROUGHT NEARER

French Stop Furious German Attack on the Verdun Front.

London, June 29.—British troops last night in an offensive gained their whole objective, says a telegram from British headquarters in France. The British captured German forward positions on a 2,000 yard front south and west of Oppy in the Arras sector.

The official statement says the British captured prisoners and machine guns. They also continue to gain ground south of the Souchez river and have entered the town of Avion, about two miles south of Lens.

The statement follows: "Early last night we attacked and captured the enemy's forward position on a front of about 2,000 yards south and west of Oppy. The whole of our objective was gained and a number of prisoners and machine guns were taken by us."

"Our troops continue to gain ground on a wide front south of the Souchez river and have entered Avion."

REPULSE GERMANS AT VERDUN.

Paris, June 29.—Picked German troops made a heavy attack last night on the Verun front near hill 304, and Avocourt wood, after especially severe shelling. Today's official statement says the attack was disorganized by the sharp reply of the French artillery and that the Germans obtained a footing at only a few points in the first line.

This morning the Germans made

SEEK WAR BASIS FOR FOODSTUFF IN METROPOLIS

New York, July 29.—Through an organization of between 4,000 and 5,000 women known as the food aid committee, Mayor Mitchell and other city officials today began a campaign of education in an effort to place New York city's food supply on a war basis. A drastic resolution, looking to the control of the city's food markets, has been prepared by George W. Perkins, chairman of the mayor's food supply committee, for presentation to the board of estimate at its meeting today. It is the purpose of the committee to ask authority to deal with food supply.

The committee began the distribution of a pamphlet addressed to housewives covering the entire subject of food conservation.

"Carry your own," is the slogan adopted by the committee which hopes to reduce materially the economy expenditures resulting from the modern delivery system.

ARGENTINE NOT FUSSED BY THE ALLIES' FRIENDS

Buenos Aires, June 29.—The senate met yesterday in secret session to hear explanations by Senor Pueyrredon, minister of foreign affairs, in response to an interpellation on the subject of international questions. Among other things Minister Pueyrredon was asked to define the attitude of the government in the case of numerous Spaniards favorable to the allied cause, who have organized what they term the "anti-Germanophile League." The senate declared it was well satisfied with all the explanations given.

WILSON SEEKS TO AVOID EXTREME IN WAR PROHIBITION

Would Have Food Bill Stop Manufacture of Whisky and Gin, But Would Not Prohibit Beer and Light Wines.

WANTS A LAW THE PEOPLE WILL APPROVE

Washington, D. C., June 29.—President Wilson stepped into the prohibition fight over the food bill today partly to save the measure from a row between the contending factions and partly to get a law he believed the country will approve.

The president told senate leaders he agreed with the proposal to stop manufacture of food stuffs into whisky and gin but did not believe the brewing of beer and manufacture of light wines should be stopped now.

A provision to prohibit distilling and to empower the president to stop brewing and wine making when he considers it necessary, he told senate leaders today, he believed would satisfy prohibitionists and also the country.

An amendment to that effect will be introduced later, with prospects of adoption.

Senator Sheppard, a leading prohibitionist, and who prompted the committee's proposal to stop manufacture of both distilled spirits and beer, said that if the president desired to have authority to govern brewing and wine making, he favored it and believed congress would agree.

A Determined Effort.

A determined effort to modify the food bill now before the senate so that it will be free from any prohibition provisions or at least so to grant the president authority to permit the use of foodstuffs in the manufacture of beer and light wines, was begun today by the administration when President Wilson conferred on the question with Senator Martin, the majority leader, and Senator Gerry, of Rhode Island.

President Wilson, according to Senator Phelan, of California, with whom he also conferred regarding prohibition legislation, desires that he have authority to stop the manufacture of malt and vinous liquors in case of emergency, but does not believe immediate prohibition of their manufacture is necessary or desirable.

Other conferences probably will follow quickly. The president was understood to feel that the insistence of some senators on bone dry legislation endangered the early passage of the food bill, which he is anxious to see become law as soon as possible.

Fear Discontent.

Administration leaders were said also to feel that such legislation would be a disturbing factor in the economic life of the country and might lead to serious discontent among the workers whose whole-hearted support is necessary to win this war. The president realizes that since prohibition has been made an issue in congress it is almost impossible to hope for the elimination of some sort of prohibitory provision from the food bill.

Although officials do not pretend to speak for him, it was understood that the president would be willing to accept

SHOULD TOTE YOUR OWN BUNDLES HOME

Ancient American Folly to Be Attacked in a Big Campaign.

Washington, June 29.—The popular American prejudice against "toting" bundles in public is to be attacked by the commercial economy board of the council of national defense in a nationwide campaign through motion pictures and the press. A heavy drain on the country's economic resources is caused yearly, says the committee, by the persons who insist that their tooth brush or cake of toilet soap be rushed to his home in a truck manned by two men whose services otherwise might be utilized in a military capacity by the government.

Summary of the Day's War News

(By Associated Press.)

The entente powers must fight on until they have reached the end they set out to attain when they accepted Germany's challenge to civilization, declared David Lloyd George, the British premier, in a speech at Glasgow. To permit the war to come to an end a single hour sooner would be "the greatest disaster that ever befell mankind," he added. These utterances possess notable significance when there has been suggestions that the allied powers fighting Germany might agree to some revision of their previously agreed war terms and at a time when hints have been coming out of Germany that next week's session of the German reichstag might witness some new statement on the subject of peace by Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg. Possible point to the suggested German peace movement is given by reports of mysterious political happenings within the German empire. The impression has been given that the expected developments would be of a dramatic nature and the press was said to have been muzzled completely so far as discussion of political topics is concerned.

"No doubt Germany wants peace," declared the British premier in his speech, "but it is a peace which would give her economic and other control

LESSON FOR JULY 1

ISAIAH'S CALL TO HEROIC SERVICE.

LESSON TEXT—Isaiah 6.
GOLDEN TEXT—Also I heard the voice of the Lord saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I, send me.—Isa. 6:8.

The lesson committee now turn for a third quarter's lesson to a series of studies in the Old Testament as found in II Kings, Ezra and Nehemiah. As an introduction, they have chosen this chapter in the book of Isaiah.

Isaiah prophesied in the latter half of Uzziah's reign, B. C. 760 and down to the early years of the reign of Manasseh about B. C. 694 (ch. 1:1). This event took place probably B. C. 755. The place was Jerusalem; the kingdom of Israel was still in existence (for 33 years longer) being utterly destroyed in B. C. 721. The name Isaiah means "the salvation of Jehovah;" his wife is called "the prophetess;" two of his sons are named and his social position was high, as shown by his intimacy with kings. Isaiah lived in troublous times. He was a reformer seeking to rescue his nation from the sins growing out of their disobedience to God. He was the leading statesman of his time, the greatest of the prophets, an author, a heroic, single-minded, patriotic, fearless, undaunted man of great personal power and influence. He was a prophet of hope; he wrote out of his long life of faithfulness and fellowship with God. The book of Isaiah falls into two great divisions; chapters 1-39 being chiefly historical, interspersed with songs and poems; chapters 40-66 are a collection of prophecies that have to do chiefly with the return from the Babylonian exile and the days of future glory for the kingdom of God.

I. Visions (vv. 1-4). As we have said, Isaiah prophesied in a time of great need. The prophet was very much discouraged. In this passage he locates his vision at a special time and place (ch. 1:1). Every man's great need today is a real vision of God. We are not so much in need of theories about God, as a vision of God himself. Uzziah's long reign of 52 years, in which the kingdom prospered and the king's name was spread abroad, stopped as suddenly as an earthquake, and his glory was eclipsed (see II Chron. 26:16-19). The place in which Isaiah saw his vision was the house of God. Perhaps not in the temple, but seeing the vision from the temple the prophet looks to a house not built with hands, Jehovah's own heavenly palace. Therein he saw "the Lord sitting on a throne . . . and his train filled the temple." Above it, or around it, were arranged hovering courtiers and the seraphic choir. The majesty of this vision is indicated in verse two, its glory in verse three, and its power is indicated in verse four. The whole earth was filled with God's wondrous wisdom, love and power. Literally "the whole earth is full of his glory." The Hebrew word for holiness comes from a word meaning "to set apart—set a distance from." The holy Lord is not only sinless but he is sublime and absolute also. It may seem difficult to harmonize Isaiah's vision with John 1:18, yet these manifestations were one and the same, for all that saw Jesus saw God (John 14:9). King Uzziah was dead but the real king was living still, high and lifted up. The attempt to reason about him, what he must be and what he must not be, as if he were one of ourselves (Eph. 1:20, 21) is absurd.

II. Divisions (vv. 5-13). (1) The vision of the prophet (vv. 5-7). This vision brought conviction because it showed how far separated from God the prophet was. It also brought conversion in that he acknowledged himself to be unclean, himself and his surroundings to be vile. It also led to cleansing, for the king heard the voice of the prophet, removed his guilt and purged his sin. (2) The voice and proclamation from the king (vv. 8-13). The king called for a messenger (v. 8) and at once the prophet is found. Someone has said that "a task without a vision is drudgery; a vision without a task is a dream; while a task linked to a vision will move the world." Not only did the king ask for a messenger, but he gave the message which the messenger was to utter (vv. 9-12). The message was to be to his own people; it was not to be a pleasant one. Verse 13 shows us this message in prophecy. Isaiah ought to fully proclaim the truth, but the people would not understand it, and the whole effect of his proclamation would be to harden them.

The Application.

What is your application of this vision for Isaiah? We are a Christian nation, but there are many degrees and kinds of Christians; those who sincerely try to follow Jesus; those who live under a Christian government, and are unaffected by Christian influences. There is only one way to save this nation from going the way of Nineveh and Tyre; that is, that justice and righteousness shall govern, and that justice and righteousness shall be the fruit of regenerated lives. The cry is for a better social environment and a more just social position.

The Test of Time.

Say what you will, time tries all things, only the best survive. Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy has been in use for more than forty years. Many millions of bottles have been sold and used during this time. It has stood the test of time because it can always be depended upon.—Advertisement.

SHERMAN'S SUITS

Today--Tomorrow --Every Day

Our price, $10, no more, no less, always remains the same 12 months of the year. Sherman's Clothes, a standard value—at a standard price has won for us the confidence of the buying public in always giving every man that same set value, not overcharging the man who buys his new suit for the Fourth of July in order to make up for the man who waits until after season to do his buying.

For this Spring and Summer all our previous efforts of good clothes making has been surpassed. Sherman's Clothes are supreme—supreme in value—supreme in honest all-wool fabrics—supreme in the make of them—supreme in their up-to-date styles and fabrics. ## I Blame the Woman Who Lets a Man Drink Says Druggist Brown

Of Cleveland, He Guarantees a Simple Home Treatment Given Without the Knowledge of the Drinker.
Cleveland, O.—No wife has a right to let her husband drink; for alcoholism is a disease and a drunkard is a sick man, says Druggist Brown of Cleveland. A woman can cure this disease—stop a drinking husband in a few weeks for half what he would spend on liquor in the same time. The habit can be broken and the disease cured. Thousands of cases prove it and every community has its reformed drunkard. Druggist Brown says the right time to stop the drink habit is at its beginning. Left to run its course it will deaden the fine sensibilities of the man you love. Begin with the first whiff of liquor on his breath but do not despair if he has already gone from bad to worse until he has become a rum-soaked sot. Druggist Brown knows the cure of strong drink for he himself has been a victim. A loving sister, without his knowledge or consent, rescued him from the brink of a drunkard's grave and for 15 years kept her secret. She saved him from drink—rescued him from his own depraved, besotted self by giving him a secret remedy, the formula of an old German chemist. To pay his debt to her and to help other victims out of the mire he has made the formula public. Druggists everywhere dispense it daily as Frezoured Tescum Powder, put up in doses. Get it of your own druggist and drop a powder twice a day in tea, coffee, milk or other drink. Soon liquor does not taste the same, the craving for it disappears, and in one more drunkard has been saved and knows not when or why he lost his taste for drink. Warning Note: Tescum should be given only where it is desirable to destroy all taste for alcohol and all pleasure in its use. Those who encourage moderate drinking should not give it until the so-called moderate drinker reaches the ulcer line, as most of them do in time. Druggist Brown has such confidence in prepared Tescum Powder that he personally guarantees results or he will refund out of his own pocket the price charged by the dispensing druggist. It is dispensed in Ft. Wayne by Elder Drug Co., Meyer Bros. and other druggists.

SOME RIGHT PRICE-FIXING.

The coal operators of the country have furnished about the first instance of benevolent combination to establish prices that has been presented to the people. There had appeared to be among the coal operators a considerable fear of mixed with an unwelcome respect for the Sherman anti-trust law and it required rather categorical assurances from sources of authority that they would not be prejudiced to their harm in federal eyes before they were brought to consider an agreement for the reduction of prices. Just why the operators should apprehend an insurrection of greater risk with the law by agreeing to reduce prices than they ever have feared from agreement to advance prices would be an interesting matter to go into, but may now very well be set aside for an appreciative consideration of the good thing they really have done.

Bituminous coal is to come down. There will be a reduction of from $1 to $5 a ton, according to circumstances and conditions ruling in certain cases, and the government is to fare even better. Details remain to be worked out and still greater advantages to the public may yet issue from the associated effort of the mine operators. That is the indicated purpose and partly the promise. Prices are to be fixed upon such levels as shall insure to the operators a fair degree of profit and income to consumers a steadfast supply at reasonable rates. The cost of mining and delivering coal for shipment will be the principle that rules in determining prices. With this no one can have any quarrel. There has been great public distress throughout the country not only in the matter of meeting prices, but in respect of getting coal at all, and whatever arrangements may be established for hostage that extortions are to cease and that supplies are to be steadfast and ample will constitute almost an altruistic status of the coal business.

It is further of interest to know that soon similar undertakings will proceed with the anthracite operators and the expectation is that consumers of hard coal will gain in some proportion as has just been vouchsafed users of soft coal. The anthracite situation has been an inextricable puzzle for many months—and more than a puzzle this spring, for consumers have not been able to get any light on either prices, deliveries or anything else relating to hard coal. Prices have shown wide discrepancies as comparing one section of the country with another and shipments have disclosed similar vagaries. New York city, with but a short haul from the mines, has paid much more for hard coal than the prices that have ruled in this city. Some dealers have appeared to be able to keep their wants supplied, while others have not. If the forthcoming conference of anthracite operators shall result in stabilizing prices and making supply a surety there will be a great rejoicing.

If the coal interests carry out what they have planned the public will be quite disposed to let bygones be bygones. If they are recreant in any degree flagrant and general to their promises, there will be much outcry and the demand for remedies that will be effectual. The government cannot leave itself unfenced in time of war to the perils of a situation such as has existed. It cannot leave the people, upon whom it has enjoined all necessary sacrifice to the national defense, under rapacious compulsions to undergo sacrifices that are wholly needless and in their consequences harmful to the national defense. Secretary of the Interior Lane has made a strong and, as it appears, effectual appeal to the soft coal interests of the country and the result guarantees fuel to industry, the saving of hundreds of millions to the whole body of consumers and security to the government in a matter that is paramount.

It will be the complement of this good work to take similar hostage for the efficient transportation of coal. The government should be able to make the same satisfactory headway with the railroads that it has made with the coal operators. That will fully settle the fuel problem and permit the whole country to turn its attention and apply its energies to the winning of the war.

A PUZZLING RESULT.

There is no ready explanation for the failure of the call for volunteers to elicit a prompt response. Last week the president issued a proclamation asking for the enlistment of seventy thousand volunteers to bring the regular army to full war strength. It was expected that by a hearty drive over the country the levies would be completed this week. About one-third of the men wanted have been enlisted.

What makes this situation the more puzzling is that next week or soon thereafter the work of applying the selective draft to the ten millions of young men lately registered will be inaugurated. While it is purely a fanciful distinction, a great many men have the notion that there is something ignominious in the draft. That view was preached with some intensiveness of oratory while the conscription bill was pending in congress. Allowing that such an opinion has considerable sway over the country, it is strange that just upon the eve of the draft men holding to that view do not hasten to volunteer for the regulars.

Volunteers will gain some advantages. One of them is that they will be made soldiers fit and ready for service much more quickly than the men who go to the big cantonments for their military training. Another is that they will also much more quickly see actual service, which is the chief impatience of every trained soldier. The regulars already are in France. In a short time they will be on the battle fronts and into the fighting. The other regular regiments will be sent abroad as soon as they can be. Volunteers who get into them now will go along with them to France. The conscript army will hardly get out of the country before next spring. The regulars and next the guards will do America's honors on the firing line during the fall and winter.

The war department will not be handicapped by a lack of volunteers. The conscription law makes certain all the men that may be needed to fill the regular regiments. But that conscription should so early be proved an inescapable necessity is hard to understand—and the more so, since the opportunities for all the highest attractions of service are offered to volunteers who get in now. The volunteer system has always heretofore broken down, but this giving way at a stage so early in the war is surprising, unless it be that the fighting men of the nation conceive that, the system having been displaced as the chief reliance, it will be just as well to have no dependence upon it at all.

Nevertheless, the opportunity still stands wide and inviting to men who want to see early service. By volunteering now for the regulars they will get into France by autumn.

The government has contrived to make deep and gainful impressions on the bituminous coal men. It now is in order to call in some of the fellows who are cornering the eggs, the poultry, the butter and later on will be grabbing the potatoes, turnips and parsnips and hoarding the whole kit and bin of it for super-war prices next winter. Food control that is defined by law and administered by authority is the thing and it looks better now for the coming out of congress of statutes to that purpose and end; but if congress should fail or should—God fend 'em—talk itself to death, then the government will have to do the best it may with the law it has and the authority at hand. One thing is certain, there is no need to ask the people to work at their back-yard gardens to put more stuff in the hands of the price-fixers and corner-mongers.

Many things have been suggested, proposed and urged for the proper treatment and disposition of one Big Bill, chief magistrate of the city of Chicago, but up to the hour in which this is written it does not appear that anybody has thought of a lunacy commission as having appropriate authority for dealing with this sad case of diluted Americanism. It may be that not even that is just what is needed, but it might lead to various diagnoses that would bring out what's the matter, its causes and mayhaps its cure. Whatever it is that's eatin' Big Bill is a chawin' up what's most vital to any man.

Next week the draft machinery may be set in motion and the opening for volunteers will be just as wide, but hardly as attractive as it is this week. Moreover, some of those drafted are likely to be sent over the same road to the regulars that will be pursued by those who go in now because they want to.

If the kaiser's grandsire "Old Fritz" is paying any attention whatever to what is said and done in these rollicking times, he may have some views of his own as to the courses and conduct of one William II. The Great Frederick could see some distance ahead.

South Bend still has her Red Cross campaign open in an endeavor to raise the amount apportioned to that city. The discredited will not be in the time it may take to do it, but in failure to do it at all. South Bend is going to save herself in the record.

A NEW CONSTITUTION

By John A. Lapp, Bureau of Legislative Information

The Income Tax, Recognizing the Principle of Ability to Pay, Grows Rapidly in Favor

Whatever theory of taxation we adopt, whether it be the benefit theory or the ability to pay theory we must have a means to measure the benefits or the ability to pay. It will not do to have a haphazard measure. Kings used to extort money on the ability to pay theory but the application was individual. When they found a man who had the money or the goods they trumped up a reason for taking it. We cannot do that in a democracy for democracy is based upon equality and this means both equality of right and equality of burden.

For a long time the amount of property which a man possessed was the measure of his ability to pay. That is the theory underlying the general property tax. Today, however, we are coming to recognize that income is the true measure of ability to pay and the income tax is rapidly replacing all other forms of taxation as the most just and equitable.

The idea of an income tax is an old one but for a great many years it has been believed that it would not work however equitable it might seem to be. Sixteen states had tried it prior to 1911 and all had failed signally because of a poor system of administration.

Since 1911 the states of Wisconsin, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Oklahoma and the United States government have established an income tax and their success makes certain that other states will soon resort to this form of taxation. A legislative commission in New York has recently advocated it for that state.

The Wisconsin act being the first to point the way needs special consideration. The tax is low on small incomes and increases on the larger incomes. It is reasonable on all incomes and people have no occasion to evade it. The tax is levied upon the incomes of persons and corporations and all intangible property, farm machinery and household goods are exempted from the general property tax. By a system of reports by business concerns of money paid for salaries, dividends, etc., the individuals are checked up in their personal report of income and thus evasion is prevented.

The success of the Wisconsin tax depends upon the very efficient administration which has been built up under the state tax commission. Indeed income taxation and in fact all taxation depends upon strong and efficient central administration for its success. The sixteen states which failed with their income tax failed because they depended upon the old antiquated system of local assessment. No system of taxation can succeed under local administration.

The income tax as a basis for measuring ability to pay is suited to modern conditions. The large personal incomes received as salaries by thousands of our people are subject to the tax whereas under the property tax such incomes escaped. A man may have an income of $25,000 a year and use the major portion in extravagant living without contributing a penny to the public treasury. His ability to pay and his obligation to pay is considerable and yet he escapes. Under the income tax he would pay his share.

But the question arises. Should all incomes be taxed? Should a man receiving $500 a year be taxed? The answer is "no" because to tax him on an income of that size would be to tax his very existence—his bare living. Where, then, shall the limit be placed? As a general proposition it may be stated that an amount sufficient to pay the living expenses of the man and those dependent upon him should be exempt. The necessities of life come first. The single man with no dependents might well be taxed on his income over $1,000. The first thousand dollars represent his living. His ability to pay taxes begins at that point. The married man with a family must, of course, have a larger exemption and the amount of the exemption is dependent upon the size of the family. An exemption of from $1,800 to $2,500 is, in most cases, reasonable.

Another question which arises is: Shall all incomes subject to taxation be taxed at the same rate? If an income is the measure of ability to pay, then the larger incomes are able to pay a larger tax. We have already seen that a portion of the income must be exempt because a man has no tax paying ability until he has paid for his living and the living of his dependents. Each thousand dollars added to his income gives him a larger and larger surplus with which to secure the comforts and luxuries of life and with each additional thousand dollars he is better able to pay an increased tax.

The income tax ought therefore to be progressive beginning at a small rate of perhaps 1 per cent on the small incomes and increasing by 1 per cent on each additional $5,000 of income until on the very large incomes the rates will be high. Such is the practice in the states and also under the United States income tax. All foreign countries levy an income tax and the rate progresses to a point where on large incomes the tax is confiscatory.

The income tax does not take the place of all other taxes. The property tax is still retained by the states having the income tax but the tax on intangible property is abolished.

In the long run we shall probably see the property tax abandoned entirely by the states and the state revenue derived from the income tax. The cities and counties will then tax property as they see fit for their own purposes. This separation of sources of revenue for the state and local governments is a desirable thing and should be encouraged. Sometimes the whole country will have to consider the question of dividing the whole field of taxation, leaving certain sources to the nation, certain sources to the states and others to local governments.

Questions for Investigation.

1. Which is better, the income tax or the classified property tax?
2. Why should taxes be progressive?
3. What income should be exempt from the income tax?
4. What is the danger of both the state and federal governments taxing incomes?
5. Why is the separation of sources of revenue so that each government gets its taxes from a certain source desirable?

WITHOUT EMBARGO ON EXPORTS OUR TRADE HELPS OUR ENEMIES

BY HARRY B. HUNT.

Why is an embargo necessary? Why cannot the United States government adopt a "business as usual" policy with regard to her foreign trade? Why can we not, even though at war, keep our markets open to the world and reap some of the high prices for our products the world is now willing to pay?

These questions are being raised against the laying of an embargo by the president on all shipments of food, fuel, steel and similar necessities. The answer is simple. Because all the food we can grow, all the fuel we can mine, all the steel we can produce, are needed today in the one vital business of making war on Germany. None of these may be permitted to go to any nation not at war with Germany without directly weakening our fighting strength.

Every pound of food we can grow or save will be needed to supply our own people and those of our allies—and even then the ration will be short. The demands of munition and other factories engaged in direct war work, of railroads moving war supplies, and of our navy and merchant ships engaged in war service, will strain our facilities for food production to the utmost. And the need of steel for munitions, guns, ships, railroad equipment necessary for war purposes both here and in France will work our steel plants day and night.

Business done with neutral nations in these essential war products then, conflicts directly with our prime business of making war, and every dollar of profit that could be made by individuals through such transactions would, in reality, be paid by this nation in the cost of prolonged war.

There is another reason, however, as imperative as this, for an embargo on shipments to neutral nations of Europe adjacent to Germany. Shipments to them may not merely weaken our strength against Germany. They may actually strengthen Germany against us. We know imports into Norway, Sweden, Denmark and the Netherlands have doubled and quadrupled since the outbreak of the war. We know that these countries have sold heavily of their own products—and probably also of their imports—to Germany. And without an embargo by which we can regulate or prevent shipments to these nations, we are attempting to keep foreign "business as usual" actually feeding and supplying the Kaiser's armies.

Take, for instance, imports of wheat into the neutral countries of Europe before and since the outbreak of the war.

Holland, in 1911, imported 4,935,000 bushels of wheat from the United States. In 1912 she imported from us 6,811,000 bushels.

In 1914—the first year of the war—her imports of this one grain jumped to 24,452,000. In 1915 it climbed to 39,663,000 bushels and in 1916 it was 52,103,000 bushels.

Norway, which in 1911 imported from us 794,000 bushels of wheat, and in 1912 only 329,000, in 1915 imported 7,053,000 and, in 1916, 6,128,000 bushels.

Sweden, with imports of 117,000 bushels in 1911 and 77,000 bushels in 1912, last year bought from us 5,233,000 bushels, and, in 1915, 4,633,000.

As against total imports of wheat from the United States of 7,191,000 bushels in 1911, and 9,057,000 in 1912, the six neutral countries of Holland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Spain and Switzerland imported from us in 1915 a total of 64,185,000 bushels of wheat and 43,880,000 bushels in 1916.

Certainly a strange increase, if considered from the point of their own requirements. And similar increases are shown in imports of corn, oats, barley, rye and other foodstuffs.

Under an embargo, the president will be able to determine just what the requirements of neutrals are, for themselves, and if there is any surplus that can be spared for their relief, to apply it to them on a basis that will effectively prevent any of it reaching Germany.

hot, or ice cold, for a period of three or four hours.

"The plan is not an experiment; it was successfully worked out in 1905 in Mansfield, O., by Mrs. Grimes, on a small scale. Mrs. Grimes is now a member of our committee. Fifteen years ago a Bridgeport man constructed a container similar to the one we are to use.

"We shall plan to have a strictly home type of cooking. The utensils will be cleaned; the seasoning will be of the home type. We find we can get the best cooks in the country, middle-aged housewives, women who will not go out in the cold, but who will be glad to take a salaried position. There are many such women in New York today.

"A most compelling reason for the community kitchen is the health aspect. There will be a great amount of underfeeding from high prices, and even intelligent women with training find it difficult to so plan and standardize meals that the balanced ration is given children. We will have an expert dietitian and our menus will be approved—the general principles of them—by some authoritative body.

"There are thousands of people who realize that they want to change their diet. A man in middle age no longer needs the kind of food he needed in younger years. But when the family meal is cooked at home, it must be in many respects the same meal for everyone. Under our plan, four members of a family can have four different dinners, if they like.

"By keeping to a distinctly home type of cooking, one can change his sauces, the seasoning or dressing. We can meet radical demands for particular kinds of food as we have in the schools, where Jewish children, for instance, have Kosher food. An Italian family can have its own kind of cooking. The scale of prices will vary. Meals can be served on the basis of the balanced ration which was worked out for the rookie policemen here in New York, 25 cents a day; or a more expensive service can be obtained. In either case, the nutritive value of the food will be guaranteed.

"This is only the first step in organizing the work on a national scale. We will have to do that before the war is ended."

CHAIN LETTER GRAFT.

(Logansport Pharos-Reporter.)

Any person who is deceived by a "chain letter" of any kind needs his case tried by a lunacy commission.

The newspapers have warned the people against this cheap kind of graft for years, and yet there are people who, with the vision of getting something for nothing, or who will allow their reason to be upset by some specious "relief" scheme or religious scheme or poor broken down family scheme or a scheme where "brother" so and so of our lodge needs help, the road of which is along the line of the villainous chain letter, continue to be grafted and cause the grafted to wax rich and the government to be compelled to use all its power to crush the insidious scheme.

Grafters are out now with chain letters for "Belgian relief" and other schemes. The writer is asked to write five letters to friends that are copies of the one received, enclose a coin in the original and send it to the person specified, thus making the individual responsible for the graft.

Whenever you or any person receives one of the grafting chain letters, on whatever subject, it matters not what, write no letters at all, but take the original and turn it over to the postmaster who will know what to do with it. Any person who allows himself to be deceived by a "chain letter" brands himself a fool.

FROM THE SENTINEL PAGES 25 YEARS AGO

Dr. J. H. Adams and family have moved into their elegant new residence in Lakeside.

A handsome new front is being placed in Ed McCamley's place of business on Calhoun street.

Mayor Zollinger said to a Sentinel reporter this morning that the arrangements are about completed for the meeting to ratify the nomination of Cleveland and Stephenson.

Late yesterday afternoon the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dawson, of 11 Wall street, fell into a cistern and before assistance could arrive he was drowned. The child had gone into the yard to play, and being alone, the accident was not discovered until too late. The boy's mother resides with her mother, Mrs. Eliza Conklin, at the above number. Her husband, who is at Garrett, was telegraphed the sad news last evening.

George F. Felts, superintendent of the Allen county schools, will resign his office in September, after having served in that capacity for seven years. Mr. Felts will take a course at Ann Arbor, Mich., to prepare himself for more advanced work. The county superintendent is elected by the township trustees. There are already three candidates in sight as follows: J. J. Peters, of Monroeville; F. J. Young, of Lafayette township; and Ed Parker, of Perry township.

ARE GUESTS OF YEOMEN

American Troops Quartered in London Tower Gain the Beef Eaters.

GUARDS OF HOARY STRONGHOLD KINDLY

Americans Are Well Fed and See No Sign of Starving of Britain.

London, June 15.—(By Mail.)—The yeomen of the guard, or "beef eaters," as they are more familiarly known, who stand guard in their costumes of black and red, over the Tower of London, are still talking about their guests, the American soldiers who came over with Major General Pershing. They were the first American troops ever quartered in the famous stronghold. During the five days' stay in London the advance guard of the American army slept, ate and made friends in the place which Americans first think of as a place where spies are shot.

Here in side the walls of the place which has played such an important part in England's history, were gathered khaki-clad men from all parts of the United States, destined to be the first of the American army to participate in the European war. When these enlisted men returning tired and hungry after a hard day's investigation of the beauties of Westminster and St. Paul's passed over the bridge of the wide moat of the tower the members of the honorable artillery company stood at attention and saluted. Even the sergeant major engaged in drilling raw recruits in the dry moat underneath found time to call his "rookies" to salute the Americans.

On one occasion when the Americans came tramping in singing the "Star Spangled Banner," every British soldier within hearing stood and saluted. Some of the latter took up the strains of "God Save the King" and the Americans saluted in turn. The American troops occupied two large rooms in the barracks under the shadow of the white tower which was the scene of so much suffering in the tragic days of England's early history when it was a gloomy dungeon and later a state prison. Now the royal jewels are housed there.

The men slept on cots made of iron with piece mattresses; they ate from long tables in a huge mess hall. "This don't look as if England is starving as the Germans are trying to make out," said an American sergeant as he put away a second helping of roast beef. The Americans were as well fed as the British troops who have earned the reputation in this war of being the best fed army that ever went into battle.

ely. The bank heretofore, however, has been able, though often by the slightest of margins, to avoid the humiliating acknowledgment that the growth paused entirely. This week's decrease is attributed semi-officially to heavy purchases abroad.

The increase of gold reserve has long since ceased to keep pace with the increase in note circulation. The bank several months ago was compelled to abandon the old legal basis of gold and silver covering for paper circulation and supplement metal covering by reckoning commercial paper to make up the prescribed one-third cover.

With the gold supply falling despite utmost efforts, financial authorities of late devoted their chief energies to a campaign to restrain an increase in note circulation by promoting the use of checks and bank transfers instead of cash.

DRAFT BOTHERS NEGRO WHO "JES" GROWED UP

Like Topsy, Colored Youth Has No Idea About His Age.

Topsy, the live wire character in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was not a mythical creation after all. The bounding black maiden was a type of which Journal Person, aged 7, is a living personification. Person, kinky-haired and broad-shouldered, has no idea how old he is. "I jes' grewed up," he told Judge Kerr, in police court, Friday morning, in all seriousness.

Person had signed his age when he went to work at the Pennsylvania freight house as eighteen years. His parents died "way down in Kentucky." He has a brother wandering some place over the earth who might know his age, Person said.

another violent effort east of hill 304. It failed completely. The Germans were active on the Aisne front also. All their attacks were repulsed.

The statement follows: "The enemy showed very great activity on the Aisne front during the night. Violent bombardments were followed by severe attacks in the regions of Cerny, southeast of Corbeny and northwest of Rheims. All his efforts were broken up by our fire or nullified by counter attacks and our positions were maintained.

"The fighting was particularly heavy in the region of Cerny, where the enemy made several attacks at two points on our front. Northeast of the village of Cerny enemy detachments succeeded in gaining a footing in our front line. They were driven out by an energetic counter attack by our troops, leaving numerous bodies on the ground. We took prisoners.

"On the left bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) the artillery fighting after noon yesterday became extremely intense in the region of Avocourt wood and hill 304. A violent bombardment with guns of large calibre was directed against our positions and was followed at 6:30 o'clock in the evening by a powerful attack delivered by special German assaulting troops on a front of two kilometers west of hill 304. Our effectively directed fire disorganized the attack which enabled the Germans to gain a footing at some points in our front line. A new attack at 8:45 o'clock this morning on our positions west of hill 304 was repulsed completely."

BRITISH IN MESOPOTAMIA.

London, June 29.—The military correspondent of the Times gives a long detailed account of the present conditions of the British forces in Mesopotamia, showing a complete contrast with the revelations in the report on the Mesopotamian expedition made public Tuesday night in the blue book. The correspondent says the army there now is admirably provided and medical arrangements are thoroughly satisfactory. A great change has occurred in India, which still is the base of the expedition although control has been transferred to the war office at London.

Bombay is the base depot and is most efficiently administered. Shipping and cargoes are well and quickly handled and hospital arrangements are very good. India, the correspondent says, is now doing more than she received credit for.

leges in other directions and we will clear out.

"We are told that if we are prepared to make peace now Germany will restore the independence of Belgium. But who has said so?"

"No German statesman has ever said he would restore the independence of Belgium. The German chancellor came very near to it, but all the junkies fell on him and he received a sound box from the mailed fist."

"The only terms on which Germany has suggested restoring Belgium are not those of independence but of vassalage. Then came the doctrine of the status quo and no annexation and no indemnities. No German statesman has accepted even that."

"No one wishes to dictate to the German people the form of government under which they should choose to live. But it is right we should say that we will enter into negotiations with a free government of Germany with a different attitude of mind and a different temper and different spirit and with less suspicion and more confidence than we should with a government whom we feel today to be dominated by the aggressive and arrogant spirit of Prussian militarism."

"All the allied governments will, in my judgment, be acting wisely if they draw that distinction in the general attitude toward the discussion of peace terms."

SUMMARY OF THE DAY'S WAR NEWS

over the countries which she has invaded."

In the field of military operations the important development at present is the cumulative pressure which Gen. Sir Douglas Haig is applying to the German lines about the coal city and mine of Lens. The operation now seems to have taken on a somewhat broader scope, suggesting that the British commander in chief is aiming at the far flank of the Lens position in a wide encircling movement while keeping up the push here and there on the immediate environments of the city.

Some six miles to the south, in the neighborhood of Oppy, the British last night captured a German position on a front of more than a mile. Closer to Lens, on a wide front south of the Souchez river, the British continue to gain ground. They have entered Avion, within two miles of Lens, thus drawing considerably tighter the lines immediately behind the coal town. To the north of Lens, near Loos, the British raiders are active, indicating that a further forward movement may be expected on this flank.

On the French front, the Verdun district has again sprung into prominence. The Germans have been manifesting renewed activity there and last night they delivered a powerful attack after a heavy bombardment on a front of a little more than a mile near the famous hill 304, northwest of Verdun. They gained a footing at some points in the French front line, but were completely repulsed when they renewed their attack early this morning. The crown prince also attacked in the Aisne district, notably in the Cerny region, where his troops obtained a foothold in French trenches, but were driven out by an energetic counter-attack. The French positions, however, as elsewhere on this front, were maintained.

Jungkuntz-Lange.

Concordia church was never the scene of a prettier wedding nor no sweeter bride ever walked to its altar than Miss Clara Margaret Lange, whose marriage to Mr. Otto W. Jungkuntz, of Cleveland, took place in that edifice on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The bride entered the church with her father, Rev. August Lange, who performed the marriage ceremony. The wedding music from "Lohengrin" announced the arrival of the bridal party and followed a program of music given by the organist, Mr. Paul Droege, and Miss Helen Wefel, a contralto singer, of Cleveland. Messrs. Theodore Dorn, Herbert Trier and Albert Schreifer seated the guests and then the bride appeared, preceded by her attendants, Mrs. F. H. Lindeman, of New York, matron of honor, Miss Anna Lange, maid of honor, Miss Hedwig Lange, Miss Dorothy and Miss Martha Jungkuntz, as bridesmaids and Magdalene Lange as flower girl. Mr. Paul Jungkuntz, of New York city, was best man. The bride wore a handsome evening dress of duchess satin made with court train and trimmed with silver lace and the bodice was elegant with an embroidery of crystals and pearls and long mousquetaire sleeves edged with silver lace. The wedding veil was made into a frill that was held by orange blossoms in tiny clusters above each ear. Bride roses formed the bride's bouquet, with the addition of a shower of ribbon and swansonia. The matron of honor wore a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine with chiffon overskirt and jacket and white rosebud gariture and her flowers were pink La-France roses. The honor maid wore a pink silk net hung over satin and trimmed prettily with silver lace and her flowers were pale pink roses. The three bridesmaids were gowned in pink evening gowns and they carried bouquets of pink snapdragons. Miss Magdalene, the flower maid, also a sister to the bride, wore a pretty frock of pink net over satin, with pink bows on her curls and in her hands a dainty basket of pink sweetpeas. After the beautiful and solemn marriage ceremony, the wedding party left the church to the joyous strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march and went directly to the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. August Lange, at 1315 Anthony boulevard, where friends extended their congratulations to the bride and groom. At a later hour the wedding dinner was served to the bridal party and relatives. The house was decorated throughout with flowers and smilax and the bride's table was exceedingly tasteful in its arrangements of pink and white roses and smilax, with the large bride's cake in the center. Although garden flowers were used in the house, the prevailing color was the same as in the church and of the bride's attendants, pink. When at a late hour the bride and groom left for their wedding trip, the bride wore a tan jersey suit with tan velour hat and other accessories to correspond in quiet taste. A trip to Chicago, where a boat will be taken for the Georgian Bay route, with visits at a number of important lake points in the north, will take several weeks. The bride and groom will visit in Fort Wayne, however, before they go to Cleveland, where the bride is organist at St. John's Lutheran church and also has a class in music. The bride is very musical and plays both violin and piano, which she has studied with much diligence and recently has added voice work to her studies. Guests from away included the groom's parents and sisters, Misses Dorothy and Martha Jungkuntz, of Columbus City; a brother, Rev. Henry Jungkuntz, Jr., of Auburn; Miss Helen Wefel, of Cleveland, and Mr. Paul Jungkuntz, of New York.

Boudoir attire has become a permanent part of the modern woman's wardrobe. Materials are often quite as choice as those used to build a ball gown. Chiffon and fur and brocade are none too elegant for one splendid wedding veil was made into a frill that was held by orange blossoms in tiny clusters above each ear. Bride roses formed the bride's bouquet, with the addition of a shower of ribbon and swansonia. The matron of honor wore a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine with chiffon overskirt and jacket and white rosebud gariture and her flowers were pink La-France roses. The honor maid wore a pink silk net hung over satin and trimmed prettily with silver lace and her flowers were pale pink roses. The three bridesmaids were gowned in pink evening gowns and they carried bouquets of pink snapdragons. Miss Magdalene, the flower maid, also a sister to the bride, wore a pretty frock of pink net over satin, with pink bows on her curls and in her hands a dainty basket of pink sweetpeas. After the beautiful and solemn marriage ceremony, the wedding party left the church to the joyous strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march and went directly to the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. August Lange, at 1315 Anthony boulevard, where friends extended their congratulations to the bride and groom. At a later hour the wedding dinner was served to the bridal party and relatives. The house was decorated throughout with flowers and smilax and the bride's table was exceedingly tasteful in its arrangements of pink and white roses and smilax, with the large bride's cake in the center. Although garden flowers were used in the house, the prevailing color was the same as in the church and of the bride's attendants, pink. When at a late hour the bride and groom left for their wedding trip, the bride wore a tan jersey suit with tan velour hat and other accessories to correspond in quiet taste. A trip to Chicago, where a boat will be taken for the Georgian Bay route, with visits at a number of important lake points in the north, will take several weeks. The bride and groom will visit in Fort Wayne, however, before they go to Cleveland, where the bride is organist at St. John's Lutheran church and also has a class in music. The bride is very musical and plays both violin and piano, which she has studied with much diligence and recently has added voice work to her studies. Guests from away included the groom's parents and sisters, Misses Dorothy and Martha Jungkuntz, of Columbus City; a brother, Rev. Henry Jungkuntz, Jr., of Auburn; Miss Helen Wefel, of Cleveland, and Mr. Paul Jungkuntz, of New York.

and was beautifully decorated. An arch was constructed at the altar, entwined with a abundance of white daisies with green trimming. Back of this was a bank of beautiful ferns. White ribbon was fastened on both sides of the central aisle, a bunch of daisies being fastened with the ribbon to the top of each pew. The ceremony was preceded by a program consisting of several songs and a reading by Mrs. B. L. Olmstead. Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal procession entered, Rev. B. L. Olmstead, the officiating minister, and the groom at the same time entering a side door and awaiting the bride at the altar. The bridesmaids were Miss Hazel Moore and Miss Madlyn Lighthill. The groomsmen were Mr. Wesley Russell and Mr. Cleo Swager. The bridesmaids carried beautiful bouquets of red roses. They were followed in the procession by little Miss Jane Wess and Master Jackie Lighthill, dressed in white, who scattered white daisies in the aisle in the path of the bride. Finally, escorted by Mr. S. L. Wess, sr., came the bride, attired in white and bearing beautiful roses. After the ceremony the bride and groom left immediately and went to the parsonage next door, where a reception was given to a company of about seventy. The large enclosed rear porch was decorated with green boughs and Japanese lanterns, and here at tables, tea and cake were served to all. Musical selections were rendered and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. The bride has been employed by the Duddo company, and the groom by S. F. Bowser & Co. They leave for their wedding trip on Saturday.

Nettous—Connors.

Miss Melena Connors, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Connors, was united in marriage to Mr. Oscar Nettous, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gaskill, at the Cathedral at 8 o'clock on Tuesday morning. Rev. Father Peters officiated at the ceremony and mass. The bride was becomingly dressed in a gown of pink georgette crepe with which she wore a picture hat with roses in the trimming. The bride carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Margaret Connors, a sister to the bride, was bridesmaid and she wore a gown of blue taffeta and georgette crepe, with white picture hat. Her flowers were white roses. Mr. Thomas Connors, brother to the bride, was groomsmen. The wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home to immediate relatives.

Price—Yoss.

The marriage of Mr. Glen Price, of 820 Lavina street, and Miss Margaret Yoss, of 1411 Boone street, took place on Thursday in Kalamazoo, Mich., by Rev. Eldersweld. There was no objection to the marriage by relatives, who were aware of the intention of the bride and groom to wed. Mr. and Mrs. Price have their home and will soon go to housekeeping.

Piano Pupils' Recital.

On Wednesday evening pupils of Miss Anita Walbaum and Miss Grace Philley gave a well rendered program in Packard hall. There was much that was to be commended in the recital and the work of the children spoke well for correct instruction. On Thursday evening Miss Edith Foster presented a number of her pupils and the entire program testified to that teacher's characteristics in work. A certainty of tone and fingering, a positive touch that never leaves any blur of sound and a perfection of rhythm and time were always noticeable. Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Foster's most advanced pupil, played a Moszkowski waltz for the closing number. On Thursday evening Miss Emma Sander presented her advanced pupils in a recital in Elks' hall. The pupils gave a good account of themselves and in many cases much talent was noticeable. Effie Lucas, Mildred Koehlinger, Mrs. Beulah Long, Fern Smith and Iola Billman had the most difficult numbers to play. Equally commendable work was done by Miss Clara Schafer, Robert Koerber, Helen Woodling and several others, whose pieces were less difficult in the way of execution. The entire program was interesting. Miss Sander presents another class this evening.

TWENTY PER CENT. ADVANCE IN PRICE

OWING to increased cost of raw materials the price of PULLMAN AUTOMOBILES now $860 will be advanced twenty per cent. July 15.

Prices of steel, iron, rubber, copper, leather and other materials have been steadily climbing and continue to rise.

The 1917 PULLMAN has been built from materials purchased at prices prevailing one year ago.

When this material is consumed the price of finished cars must of necessity be advanced to meet the increased cost of manufacture.

The PULLMAN AUTOMOBILE at $860 is the biggest value on the market today and will be a twenty per cent. bigger value sixty days hence.

Five million readers in all parts of the United States will see this announcement.

Only a few cars are available at the present price of $860. Only one person in thousands may enjoy this advantage.

If you want to make twenty per cent. profit on your investment act at once. Tomorrow may be too late.

VERA ROEHM'S HEALTH TIP TO KEEP FIGURE, EXERCISE

the form. Some wish to reduce; others to gain. The same exercises are suggested, which causes comment. The same exercises, but not taken in the same manner. For instance, a person wishing to reduce when taking the daily exercise must dress in heavy woolen apparel to cause a free perspiration, while on the other hand, those wishing to gain weight should don something less heavy, which will also allow free movement of the different muscles.

All exercising must be done regularly and evenly. For reducing to gain results, work as fast as possible, not stopping during the entire routine. To gain weight and develop graceful and pretty lines, tense the body while going through the various movements slowly and with exuberance.

Two exercises which have given wonderful results toward gaining many a woman a pretty neck are the stretching and bridge exercises.

Stretch the neck forward, touching the chest, then back. From side to side in the same manner. Next turn the head, keeping the body still from shoulders down, as far to the right as possible, trying to see something over the right shoulder. Turn the head and do the same over the left. This is very simple, and even a child can be taught to do this daily.

Two exercises Miss Roehm recommends whereby a woman may acquire a pretty neck. At the top is the bridge exercise; below, the stretching exercise.

Only by exercising can a woman retain her figure.

The sensible woman combines beauty exercises with training in wrestling and self defense.

A daily session with the boxing gloves will give you clear skin, rosy cheeks, bright eyes.

all entirely free from dirt, as the least grit will scratch the surface of the glass. First sponge the glass well with a little spirit of wine, so as to clean off all sorts, then dust over it powder blue tied in muslin; rub it off lightly and quickly with the cloth, and finish by rubbing it with the silk handkerchief. Be careful not to rub the edges of the frame.

ROLLED OATS BREAD.

Two cups boiling water, one-half cup brown sugar, two teaspoons salt, one yeast cake, one-quarter cup luke warm water, one and one-half cups rolled oats, five cups flour. Dissolve the yeast in the luke warm water. Pour the boiling water over the rolled oats, salt and sugar, and let stand until luke warm; add the dissolved yeast and flour. Let rise until very light, beat thoroughly, and turn into two buttered bread pans. When the loaves have doubled their volume bake them an hour in a moderate oven.

LEGHORNS PROPER STRAWS FOR WEAR IN GARDENS.

Leghorns are the proper straws for practical garden hats, and a good leghorn is as safe an investment as a liberty bond. Nothing can destroy a leghorn, and a repressing will put it in shape as good as new, if not better. Wheat in black and yellow, or white and black, is a favorite trim for leghorns, particularly when they have droopy brims. Black velvet bands and streamers make for the picturesque and the piquant, while bands of mixed flowers are ruralistic. Scarlet berries, chaperoned by shiny green leaves, are strictly fresh from the bandboxes, and small bunches of grapes and currants are suggestive of the present interest in food conservation.

MIRRORS IN DOORS SERVE PURPOSE OF CHEVAL GLASS

Bedroom and bathroom doors lined with mirrors are exceedingly decorative and serve the purpose of a cheval glass. A tapestry hung against a door of the study or living room makes a feature of it. A smart paneled screen before the door between the dining-room and pantry conceals the opening and closing of the door during the meal service.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

CONTRACT NOT FILLED.

G. C. Curtis, Railroad Receiver, Tells of Coal Trouble.

Huntington, Ind., June 29.—J. C. Curtis, receiver of the Cincinnati, Bluffton and Chicago railroad, has added an interesting chapter to the story of soaring prices for bituminous coal. Mr. Curtis, in the interest of the C. B. & C. system, visited a Kentucky coal field and found a small mine that was not working to capacity. The owner said it cost him $1.10 a ton to put the coal on cars, and he accepted a contract for coal at $2.50 a ton. Mr. Curtis came back to Huntington and waited for coal, but it did not come.

He went back and was told by the operator that he could not fill the contract for less than $3 a ton. The operator intimated that he had heard from higherups regarding the contract price. Mr. Curtis promptly contracted with another small mine owner for coal, and the same thing happened.

On a second visit to the coal field Mr. Curtis was approached and called by name by strangers on two different occasions. In each instance the men knew his business in Kentucky and politely ordered him out of the state by telling him that he "might as well go back to Indiana, as he could not buy coal." Mr. Curtis was not able to obtain the name or business of either man who approached him, but he was unable to buy any coal.

The father, Alex, of this city, and two brothers, Ollie and Jesse, and a sister, Mary, wife of Walter Low, of Gas City, are the immediate surviving relatives. A brother, Ezra, and the mother died several years ago.

Insulting the Housewife's Intelligence

Eminent Scientists

Just stop and think how ridiculous it is for anyone to make a statement or claim that the so-called Alum Baking Powders are in any way injurious to health. The highest authorities and most eminent scientists in the world have after careful experiments of all kinds decided that the so-called alum baking powders are just as wholesome as any other baking powders.

The Department of Agriculture

The Department of Agriculture, which is the Pure Food Department of the United States, have made careful investigations and experiments, and find no reason to even question their sale. They, too, came to the conclusion that such powders are just as wholesome as other baking powders.

Sold In Every State

So-called alum baking powders are sold in every State in the Union. If they were not pure and wholesome, certainly the food commissioners would not permit their sale. The Food Commissioner of each State is not permitting to be sold anything that is unwholesome. So-called alum baking powders have been brought to their attention for years, with the same results—they are pure and wholesome.

Important Everyone Should Know

There are some so-called alum powders in which the acid phosphate is replaced by enough soda alum—not the drug store alum—to insure perfect keeping qualities and to properly regulate the speed action. If there is any doubt in your mind as to the wholesomeness of baking powder containing alum, ask your doctor. He will tell you that the latest, most complete investigations have proven that no baking powder is more wholesome than so-called alum baking powders.

Divert the Public Mind from the Fact

The only ones who have attempted to discredit the so-called alum baking powders, or to claim that they are unwholesome, are those baking powder companies who do not use alum. No food official—no doctor—no housewife has ever objected to its use. Only those companies who wish to get an exorbitant price for their goods or who wish to conceal the fact that their goods are unsatisfactory because of poor keeping qualities are striving to intimidate the public with a ridiculous no-alum outcry.

Don't Be Misled

Don't be influenced by premiums! Premiums cannot add to the quality of any product—they can only detract from the quality.

JAPAN EXPECTED TO LEND MONEY TO RUSS Revolution Upset Plans for Loan to Aid in the War.

Tokio, June 29.—Japan was negotiating with Russia to make a war loan to that country when the revolution interrupted the negotiations, said Kazuyoshi Shoda, Japan's minister of finance, to the correspondent of the Associated Press while discussing Japan's proposed financial assistance to the entente powers. The minister did not say whether the interrupted negotiations would be resumed.

The minister previously stated that his country was negotiating to make loans to Great Britain and France. He could not fix the amounts, but he expressed the opinion that the financial aid to the entente, supplementing Japan's dispatch of a fleet of warships to the Mediterranean sea, showed that Japan was doing everything in her power to help the allies successfully prosecute the war.

He declared that loans to the allies and the contemplated purchase of entente securities held in the United States would tend to check the outflow of gold from the United States to Japan which appeared to be causing some apprehension in the United States. The contemplated purchase of securities was not to be an official operation. It was being arranged by a group of important banks, including the Yokohama Specie bank, the Industrial bank of Japan, and leading financiers of Osaka.

"You must remember," remarked Mr. Shoda, referring to the movement of gold from the United States to Japan, "that the importation of specie is generally regarded as a disadvantageous operation."

Minister Shoda, in an address before the prefectural governors referring to Japan's financial part in the war, said:

"Our own people may sometimes forget the fact that our country is a party to the war for our military operations are not conspicuous on the surface. But the empire is giving the allies every assistance at its command, and the special fund needed for that purpose reaches no small amount. Fortunately at the outbreak of the war, our national treasury was in such a fine condition that we did not have to seek a special revenue source in defraying those expenses. But what the close of the war will bring no one knows except the prospect that the expenses will only increase. The government, therefore, is at present considering the ways and means to solidify the foundation of our war-time finance."

That Japan was continuing to enjoy great material prosperity was shown, he said, by the fact that up to the middle of May the excess of exports over imports had reached the total of about $110,000,000, or about three times as great as the previous year for the same period. This had brought about an over-supply of money which constituted a great problem. The way of disposing of this surplus money could not be definitely outlined in days like these when the world finance is full of sudden changes.

"The investment of our capital in China," he went on, "is indispensable in realizing the economic co-operation between Japan and other nations. For that purpose the financial organs must be unified and readjusted and co-operative enterprises of Japanese and Chinese must be encouraged. It should be remembered, however, that the interests of the two peoples should be promoted for their common good and conflicts should be avoided as far as possible."

"We must be prepared to respond unflinchingly to orders for war supplies in order to help the allies win the war. I feel it is our duty to give the allies every convenience in paying for the war supplies from our country."

Proper Thing Now Is to
Peel Off Soil Skin

Those who abhor sticky, greasy, shiny, streaked complexions should religiously avoid creams, powders and rouges during the heated days. There's no need for them, anyway, since the virtues of mercurized wax have become known. No amount of perspiration will produce any evidence that you're being using the wax. As it is applied at bedtime and washed off in the morning, the complexion never looks like a make-up. Mercurized wax gradually takes off a bad complexion, instead of adding anything to make it worse. It has none of the disadvantages of cosmetics and accomplishes much more in keeping the complexion beautifully white, satiny and youthful. Just get an ounce of it at your druggist and see what a few days' treatment will do for your skin.

Another effective warm wrinkle treatment, heat tending to cause wrinkles and blemishes—is a skin-tightener made by dissolving one ounce of powdered salolite in a half pint of witch hazel. Its use (as face bath) leaves no trace. Remarkable improvement is noticed immediately and there is no harmful effect whatever.

Doctors Stand Amazed at Power of Bon-Opto to Make Weak Eyes
Strong—According to Dr. Lewis

Guaranteed to Strengthen Eyesight 50%
In One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Philadelphia, Pa. Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses, and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored by this remarkable prescription and many who once wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says, after using it: "I was almost blind. Could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for 15 days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without glasses." Another who used it says: "I was bothered with eye strain caused by overwork, tired eyes which induced fierce headaches. I have worn glasses for several years both for distance and work, and without them I could not read my own name on an envelope or the type-writing on the machine before me. I can do both now and have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by the use of this prescription. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and let it dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation and redness will quickly disappear. If your eyes bother you even a little it is your duty to take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have saved their sight if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Yes, the Bon-Opto prescription is truly a wonderful eye remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. I have used it very successfully in my own practice on patients whose eyes were strained through overwork or mist glasses. I can highly recommend it in case of weak, watery, aching, smarting, itching, burning eyes, red lids, blurred vision or for eyes inflamed from exposure to smoke, sun, dust or wind. It is a case of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Bon-Opto, referred to above, is not a patent medicine or a secret formula. It is an ethical preparation, the formula being printed on the package. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 percent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is sold in this city by Dreier Drug Co., Meyer Bros. and others.

FOUR REMONSTRANCES SUSTAINED BY BOARD

Objections to Paving Petitions Were on Ground of High Prices.

Four companies of remonstrators went "over the top" to victory Thursday night. Protected by a barrage fire of well framed complaints and carried on by force of numbers the community bodies succeeded in crushing the action for paving four city streets.

The board of works meeting, at which fifteen street paving resolutions were acted upon Thursday night was the occasion for the charges and counter attacks. Remonstrances against four of the paving plans were squelched with the same vigor that four more were sustained. Less than one-third of the paving actions were contested. Forty men and women crowded their way into the board meeting in order to have a word to say. Most of the number gratified their desires for speaking before they left.

Objections to paving petitions in most cases were on grounds of the present high cost of materials. Some of the citizens complained about being burdened with assessments for other recent improvements.

Successful remonstrances affected the following proposed paving jobs: South Wayne avenue, from Organ avenue to Rudisill boulevard; Indiana avenue, from Home avenue to Packard avenue; Marion street, from High to Third, and Riverside avenue, from Spy Run avenue to the St. Joe river.

The following eleven street paving resolutions were confirmed: Coombs street, from Wayne to the alley south of Erie street; Garden, from Taylor to Eagle; Grace avenue, from Fox avenue to Broadway; Kinnaird avenue, from Webster to Hoagland; Lake avenue, from Anthony boulevard to the city limits; Lasselle street, from Lafayette to Hanna; Liberty street, from Harmar to Canal; Osage street, from Main to alley north of Boone; Wall, from Broadway to the west line of lot 324 Swinney's addition; Webster, from Wildwood avenue to Kinnaird avenue, and Wildwood avenue, from Calhoun street to Piqua avenue.

O. J. Schenck was granted permission to install an underground gasoline tank at 1308 Maumee avenue. A petition by the S. F. Bowser company for placing an underground tank at 2221 Bowser avenue was taken under advisement.

A petition for installing an arc light at Watkins and Illinois streets was placed on file. A resolution for paving several streets in Brook View addition was confirmed.

Other final assessment rolls which were confirmed by the board were for: Paving of the alley between Washington and Jefferson streets, from Monroe to Francis and from College to Nelson; for the construction of cement sidewalks on the north side of Greenlawn avenue, from Koch to Hensch, and on the east side of South Wayne avenue, from Organ avenue to Branning avenue.

The Grace Construction company started grading work on Delaware avenue Friday morning. The job is expected to require nearly two weeks. A steam shovel will be used.

TRIES FIVE HOURS TO CLIMB THE POLE

Success greeted twelve-year-old Gordon Shearer, Thursday afternoon, after he had worked diligently for five hours to climb the greased pole. At 1:15 o'clock he reached the top where five dollars awaited him as a compensation for his labor. This was one of the many pleasing and entertaining events of Boys' Day at Robison park Thursday. There was a lively scramble when several thousand pennies were scattered among the children. On account of the wet weather the various prizes which were to have been given to winners in the athletic events were thrown from the roof and the boys scrambled for them.

Pesky Bed Bugs

A MILLION BED BUGS. Just think, a 25c package of the new golden chemical P. D. Q. (Pesky Devil's Quinine) is enough to make a quart and enough to kill a million bed bugs, no matter how they may be, where they came from, their age, color or sex, and at the same time leaves a coating on their eggs and prevents hatching. CUT THIS OUT. This new chemical can be had at any first-class drug store. A 25c package makes a quart of P. D. Q., and will go farther than a barrel of old-fashioned bug killer. Don't let anybody impose upon your intelligence by offering you something else. Insist on what you ask for, then you'll have what doctors prescribe. KILLS FLEAS ON DOGS. It's fun to see the fleas drop off your pet dogs. KILLS CHICKEN LICE. No use for your chickens to have lice. A 25c package mixed makes a gallon of chicken lice killer. ## LORD NORTHCLEFFE ON THE CENSORSHIP

British Publisher Hopes
America Will Escape
English Blunders.

New York, June 29.—Lord Northcliffe, British high-commissioner to the United States, in an address to magazine editors and writers at a luncheon here, expressed the hope that the United States would not muddle the censorship as England did the first three years of the war.

"America can and will do a tremendous part in this war, first because she is fresh and second, because she undoubtedly will profit by the mistakes of the nations who have been fighting since August, 1914," said Lord Northcliffe. "What the war needs more than anything else is brains and speed."

"I trust that the United States will not make the censorship blunder that England made and which is just becoming an evil of the past. England was kept in the dark for nearly three years. The people were blinded by the fatuous optimism of soldiers and politicians who, while efficient in peace, were incompetent in war. The people were not permitted to know the truth and when the truth finally emerged out of costly blunders and sacrifices they were loath to accept it."

Urges frankness. "I hope that America may permit her newspapers and magazine writers to be absolutely frank about what is going on. It is as important for the nation to know the worst as it is for the nation to know the best. For one thing—and we have found it out from actual experience—it is a great stimulus for the men fighting in the field to know that they are being written about at home and that the country they are fighting for knows precisely what they are doing.

"Every man with a pen in hand and a printing press nearby can do a patriotic service to his country by awakening his people to the fact that this war is just beginning, and that every ounce of energy, that every revolution of America's vast industrial machine, and what is equally important, every gallon of gasoline, will be needed to bring the war to a successful end."

"It is only by an absolute mobilization of man power and machine power that this war can be won. Industries that at this moment seem remote from mobilization for the war will sooner or later be called up to do their part."

Chateaux Will Be Needed. "When America has got her full stride in the war, so surely she will get it, it will be found that there will be a tremendous demand for chateaux. England today has nearly a hundred thousand motor trucks in France and is constantly sending more. Every one of these trucks must be manned by a trained driver. If skillful chauffeurs can be sent to operate your trucks it will be possible to release an equal number of men for the fighting lines."

"It will mean the end of German joy riding. England stopped this favorite outdoor sport a good while ago and I am sure when America wakes up to the tremendous realization of what this war means, she will do likewise."

The luncheon was given by Isaac P. Maroon, who has just returned from the war.

To Educate War Orphans Here

MRS. W. A. CHANLER.

A plan to bring to America the sons of French soldiers killed in action for education and support was explained by Mrs. William Astor Chanler, president of the American Fund for the Heroes of France and Her Allies, who has just returned after five months in extensive relief work in France. Mrs. Chanler, through the co-operation here of John Moffat, chairman of the executive committee of the fund, has just accomplished the purchase of the birthplace of the Marquis of Lafayette, a chateau in southern France, to be used as a museum and a shrine for Americans, such as Mount Vernon is now used. The chateau, which is in the mountainous region of Auvergne, is surrounded by an estate of more than fifty acres. The building dates back to the fourteenth century. The chateau will harbor the 100 boys chosen by Mrs. Chanler while a school building, to be completed in October, is under construction on the estate.

Going away for "The Fourth"? You'll need a new suit or some furnishings. Better come in tomorrow.

BATTERY WILL LEAVE SUNDAY

Adjutant General Awaits Report That Everything is in Readiness.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE MADE WITH RAILWAY

Battery B Will Follow D in a Week is General Belief.

Battery D will embark for Fort Benjamin Harrison Sunday morning over the Lake Erie and Western and Big Four railroads. The adjutant general at Indianapolis is awaiting the report from Major Wilson, who is in Fort Wayne, that the battery is ready to start.

As soon as this message is conveyed to him he will immediately order the battery to proceed to the state's mobilization grounds. Major Wilson stated Friday morning that there was no doubt but that the battery would be all ready to start by Saturday evening.

Only a few of the members of the organization have not as yet reported. It was stated Friday afternoon that only ten men were absent and that they would be on hand for roll call Saturday morning.

Unofficial word has been received that recruiting for Battery B should be hurried along as quickly as possible, as it would be no surprise if the second artillery organization would be summoned within a week after D's departure.

Every member of Battery B has been notified to be present at the United States inspection to be held Friday night at 8 o'clock at the court house. The inspection will be conducted by Lieutenant Tallero, U. S. A. No excuse for non-attendance will be accepted.

Company E's pay roll is ready to be signed and it is highly important that this matter be attended to by Friday evening.

RUSSIAN RED CROSS NEEDS ASSISTANCE

Slavs Rejoice in Promise of American Red Cross Mission to Them.

Petrograd, June 29.—The news of the intention of the United States to send a Red Cross mission to Russia figures prominently in the morning papers. It evoked hearty appreciation in army and medical circles, especially at the headquarters of the Russian Red Cross. A statement given to the Associated Press by Boris Ordin, president of the committee on supplies of the Red Cross, who reorganized this department after the Manchurian war, says:

"We express our gratitude at this new evidence of the resolution to help from the United States where we are weak. America's aid and medical work not only have been charitable but also of immediate immense military significance. By experience in two campaigns shows that if there are any deficiencies in medical supplies or insufficient medical personnel the conduct of the war is injuriously affected."

"Before last Christmas we sent America, through the Russian Red Cross, a complete list of the articles which were needed most. The list comprises about thirty chief drugs. In addition the Russian Red Cross needs preserved goods, leather, milk, blankets, shoes and light and heavy automobiles. We hope American aid will come speedily and our organization promises to do everything possible to help the mission in the work."

COLISEUM SITE TO BE USED FOR PARK

Wooded Tract Will Be Fitted Up With Benches and Lights.

Immediate public use is to be made of the site purchased for the erection of the city coliseum, officials plan. The wooded plot of ground, forming the north side of the Hamilton estate, corner of Clinton and Lewis streets, is to be converted into a small city park, until use is made of the ground for building purposes.

Members of the board of works have agreed upon the benefits to be derived from making the neglected ground into a city beauty spot. Park board members are enthusiastic about the plan. It will give the public an open resting place near the heart of the city.

The present plan is for placing rustic benches on the property owned by the city. Electric lights will be strung through the small park. Gateways will be cut in the large iron barriers and the southern boundary of the lot will be marked by a heavy wire fence. The coliseum site is a beautiful tract in its present natural state. Officials plan to add to its charm by clearing out a part of the underbrush and laying winding walks beneath the many trees.

TWELVE PER DAY.

Is Average Number of City Court Victims.

There have been 352 cases tried in police court during June, the report for the month, compiled by Deputy City Clerk Leroy Swartz, shows. The average is twelve cases per day for the month. The number is about the same as that for June of 1916.

During the month $1,716 were collected in fines. The amount is much below that of the sixth month a year ago.

Goes on Vacation.

Deputy City Clerk Leroy Swartz is the first city employee to take his vacation this year. He will leave the city hall on Saturday for a week's outing. Mr. Swartz and his family, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Mickle and S. Loraine Boeger and family will spend next week at Rom City.

July 19 is the date set for receiving bids for the paving work on the eleven streets allowed by the board of works, Thursday evening. The combined contracts will include several miles of streets.

To Mr. and Mrs. Herman Van Horn, R. R. No. 8—a boy.

Contagion Report.

A case of diphtheria is reported to the health department from the home of Charles Klein, 1237 Green street.

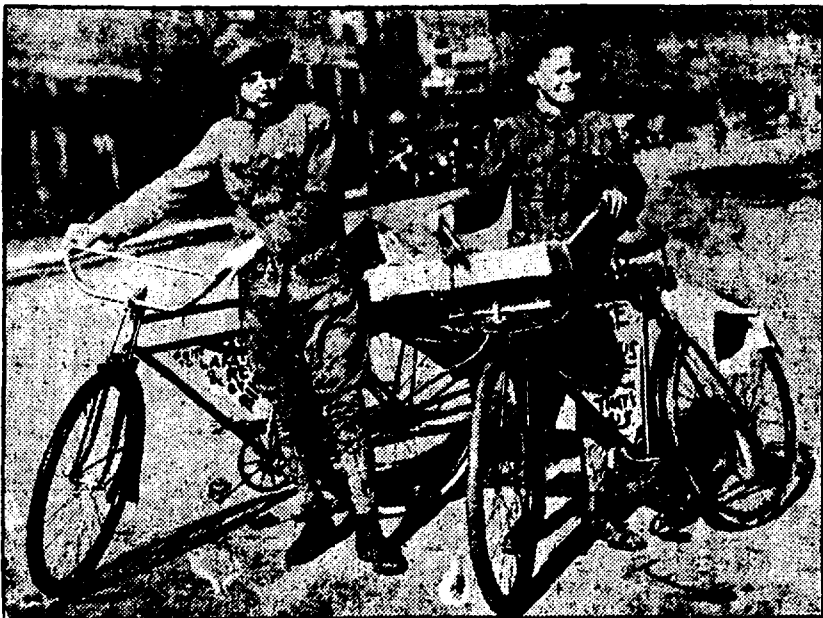

Want More Lights.

Colonel D. N. Foster, head of the park commission, and Charles J. Steiss, secretary to the park board, called upon members of the board of works, Friday morning, in an effort to secure more electric lights for Lake-side park. Representatives of the park board wish several more lights strung through the large park area. The request cannot be granted at this time because of lack of funds for the purpose, board of works members say.

FORMAL CONFERENCES END.

Washington, D. C., June 29.—The Italian commission completed its formal conferences with American officials, with a call on American Red Cross leaders to discuss co-operation with the Italian Red Cross. The mission will remain in this country several weeks to allow members to make personal trips.

RED CROSS SOCIAL

FRIDAY EVENING

Benefits and Donations for Local Chapter Greatly Aid in Work.

The Red Cross benefit lawn festival and social which was to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ross, Thursday night, was postponed to Friday night, owing to the inclement weather. Over a thousand tickets have already been sold for the affair, which promises to be a great success. Provision has been made for a large crowd. Booths have been set up, and candy, pop and peanuts will be on sale. The high school orchestra has been secured for the occasion, and entertainment is assured for all who attend. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross is located at the corner of Fairfield and Wildwood avenues, and is ideally located for a lawn social.

Work at the Red Cross headquarters on East Berry street is progressing nicely. Large classes have been held during the past few days, and donations have been coming in from many sources. Church and auxiliaries are combining to aid the local chapter.

GREECE WILL ENTER WAR

Government Breaks Diplomatic Relations With Central Powers.

CONSIDERS STATE OF WAR TO EXIST

Meaning of Overturning of Affairs Begins to Get a Translation.

Athens, June 29.—The Greek government has broken diplomatic relations with Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey.

Though war has not been declared, the Greek government considers that a state of war exists since its advent to power yesterday.

Greece's new course with regard to the war began to be shaped on June 12 with the abdication of King Constantine and the accession of Alexander, his second son, as king. The abdication was in effect a dethronement of King Constantine, whose pro-German attitude had given the entente endless trouble. Decisive action by the entente was long in coming but was drastic when finally taken. E. P. Venizelos, Greece's leading statesman and steadfast friend of the entente, soon appeared as the man to take the leadership in guiding Greece back to her traditional place by the side of England, France and Serbia, the last a close ally whom she had abandoned under Constantine's coercion in Serbia's hour of greatest need. Summoned back to the premiership by King Constantine, Venizelos quickly formed a cabinet. The reactionary elements have been ousted or quieted, the re-establishment of Greek constitutional government virtually abolished by Constantine, began. The parliament of May, 1915, which had been dissolved by Constantine would again be summoned to meet, was later indicated, a legislative backing to the new executive. Signs that Greece would not much longer maintain even a nominally or benevolently neutral condition toward the entente were in evidence several days ago and recent dispatches indicated that a formal breach between Greece and the central powers was imminent.

COW EATS NIGHTSHADE HER MILK KILLS MAN

Frankfort, Ind., June 29.—The death of Bert Gregg, a farmer living near here, which occurred yesterday, was caused by poisoned milk and butter made from cream taken from the milk of a cow which had eaten what is known as nightshade weed. It was said today, after an investigation, Mrs. Gregg and a farm hand are ill from the same source of poisoning. Gregg was ill several days. His case was a puzzle to the attending physician until a cow became ill. A search of the pasture disclosed the nightshade.

Decoration of any American official without sanction of congress is prohibited by law.

FINAL NOON MEETS HELD

Addresses Are Made to Employees of Bass's and the Wayne Oil.

LAST BAND CONCERT SATURDAY EVENING

Week's Campaign for Regular Army Recruits 'is Drawing to a Close.

HONOR ROLL.

ARMY.
James P. (Arday) Redkey; Wilbur E. Miller, Lawville; John Duffala, Whiting; Achim Erimua, New Castle; George Covrig, Indiana Harbor; Arthur L. Coes, Logansport; Byron C. Berkshire, Indianapolis; Edward T. Ballinger, Rossmore; Joseph B. McAdams, Muncie; Howard M. Youngs, Fort Wayne; Carl C. Hilker, Fort Wayne; Raymond L. Hepker, Montpelier; Steve Kubak, Hammond; Eli Chepil, Indiana Harbor; Henry Cepil, Hammond; Frank C. Hammond; Martin C. Snyder, New Decatur.

NAVY.
Harry E. Straw, Huntington.

NATIONAL GUARD.
Battery B.—Harry E. Burkett, New Haven; Henry C. Kolk, Clarence Bierbaum, Joseph D. Haas, Millard Mahan and Louis Island, all of Fort Wayne.

Final noon meetings in the great drive for recruits in the regular army were held Friday noon at the Bass foundry and at the plant of the Wayne Oil Tank and Pump company. A large percentage of the employees of both companies heard the speeches in the interest of recruiting and many of the young men promised to think more seriously of their duty to the country. It is expected that many of them will be ready to offer their services by Saturday night, thus becoming volunteers rather than conscripted men. By so doing they will be permitted to choose their own branch of the service and will have much better opportunities for advancement.

Advancement in the army during this time is bound to be rapid, too, and men who volunteer and show that they have ability will not be kept in the ranks long. The idea that enlisted men have no chances in the army is greatly mistaken, and the fact that he has never taken military tactics seriously before will not prevent the volunteer from promotion.

Thursday night an open air meeting was opened at the corner of Berry and Court streets, but because of the rain the speakers and audience adjourned to the court house, where addresses were again taken up. Music was furnished by the Elks' band and by the Red Cross double quartet. Gov. Colerick, Rev. C. C. Travis, Charles R. Lane and Captain Thomas Ryan were the speakers.

The final and largest open air meeting will be held at the same place Saturday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Speakers have not yet been announced. Friday evening Captain Ryan and Rev. A. J. Polson will address a patriotic meeting at Decatur, while another part of the recruiting force will go to Huntington, accompanied by the Jefferson drum corps.

Aiding Recruiting.
H. H. Smith, machinist's mate, first class, of Indianapolis, has been detailed to the Fort Wayne station to aid in naval recruiting work. He will be in Fort Wayne but a few days.

THE DEATHS.

Louise Catherine Tancey, aged 25 years, wife of William E. Tancey, died at the family home, 425 Nuttman avenue, Friday morning at 10 o'clock, after an illness of eighteen months. ## REFUSE TO TALK ANYMORE

"Sammy" Koehler's Relatives Refer All Inquirers to His Attorney.

SISTER HINTS THAT HE MAY SUICIDE

Believe That He Will Be on Deck Saturday to Hear His Sentence.

Receivers were banged in the ears of several reporters Friday when they endeavored to talk to relatives of "Sammy" Koehler, to inquire of his whereabouts and the possibility that he would skip his bail and not appear before Judge Elchhorn in the circuit court Saturday afternoon to receive his sentence.

Koehler's aunt was asked whether the story that "Sammy" was thinking about taking his life carried any weight with it among his relatives. Other questions were directed to her, but all were answered in the same manner, "Go talk to Judge Hench."

It is stated that Mrs. Hattie Giant, another one of "Sammy's" sisters, hinted that Koehler might end all his troubles by committing suicide. She did not say it in so many words, but intimated that this course might be taken.

The general belief now prevails that Koehler will be in the court room Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and that his intentions are not to run away and forfeit the $3,000 bail put up by his aunt and brother.

BEWARE BROWN SPOTS ON POTATO VINES

Are First Marks of Attack of Dreaded Tuber Blight.

The potato blight is making its first drive upon city food gardens. Only a few cases of the blight have appeared as yet. The Bordeaux mixture, France's most effective war contribution to the hosts of productions, is again the relief force.

Only the first stage of the blight is in evidence in the city garden patches as yet. The continued damp weather is an aid to the destructive force. The blight may become general in a few weeks. F. W. Gray, food expert, fears unless precautions are taken. The attacking germ should be killed when it first appears. Spraying with the arsenate of lead mixture is the most effective remedy, according to Mr. Gray.

Brown spots appearing on the leaves of the potato vines are the first symptoms of the blight. Later the entire plant loses its rich green color. The vine becomes sickly and decays. Unless the potatoes are well developed the entire crop in the patch attacked may be lost.

Food Expert Gray spent much of Friday in the east end, where he sprayed the trees and plants attacked by the "rose chafers," a black-garbed bug, which has devoured the leaves from vegetables along Foley avenue. He used six gallons of the Bordeaux mixture in coating the leaves attacked by the insects. He believes the advance of the bugs in that region is now checked. He will not know the exact effectiveness of the effort to kill the spots until Saturday.

Mr. Gray points out that the powder for the Bordeaux mixture can be purchased at drug stores. He will gladly give demonstrations in the spraying process when called upon. He expects citizens to purchase their own spraying apparatus and carry on the main part of the spraying work themselves, however.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CHAIRMEN GATHER

They Meet in the Office of District Chairman M. Luecke.

The county chairman of the six counties in the Twelfth congressional district of Indiana met in the office of Attorney Martin H. Luecke, on Court street, Friday afternoon, in response to his call as district democratic chairman.

The meeting was called to order at 1:30 o'clock with every one of the chairmen present. Those who met were Calvin Brown, of Allen county; Ralph Thomas, of DeKalb county; Dr. C. W. Dancer, of Lagrange; John C. Cleland, of Noble; C. A. Yetter, of Steuben, and Col. Joseph R. Harrison of Whitley.

The purpose of the meeting was simply for organization and to discuss plans for the coming election. Mr. Luecke was to leave early Friday evening for Indianapolis.

TO GIVE THIRD DEGREE.
The Summit City lodge No. 170, F. and A. M., will hold initiatory services at their hall Friday evening. The third degree will be administered to four candidates. Services will start at 5 o'clock and at the conclusion of the work a luncheon will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

GARDENS MAKE GARBAGE WOES

Onion Tops and Rhubarb Leaves Do Not Burn Well.

LITTLE GREASE IS WASTED NOWADAYS

Grass and Bricks Form Part of Indestructible City Garbage.

City gardens produce other things beside food supplies. They cause garbage problems which are growing more burdensome as the days go by.

Onion tops, rhubarb leaves, radish tops, discarded lettuce leaves and cast off parts of other plants being harvested from back lot patches are making up 20 per cent of the burden collected by those who gather city garbage. The percentage of green stuffs being stuffed into the garbage packages is increasing.

Onion tops do not burn well. Neither do radish leaves. The ancient theory, that water is in the most abundant element in forming plant life is all too true, city officials say.

Firemen at the crematory have stoked in vain in their effort to force the city plant to consume its usual amount of garbage waste of late. The task of burning the garbage is becoming more irksome each day and the supply of greens is growing. To Mayor W. J. Hosey, who has been told of the new garbage troubles, it seems that the plant will eventually be swamped beneath a heap of pea pods, strawberries, stems and vegetable tops.

Mayor Hosey is planning to make a public appeal for citizens to desist from putting radish leaves and other green stuffs in the garbage pails. He believes such vegetable products could be hauled away with other back yard rubbish.

If the green tops continue to be classed as garbage the city may be called upon to take up a method of separating the different kinds of waste. The vegetable stuff may be heaped on the refuse pile, back of the crematory and burned later in the year, when the tops have thoroughly rotted.

Why It Would Not Pay.
"The present garbage situation, due to food conservation, is what makes me think that a reduction plant would not pay here," said Mayor Hosey Friday. "Grease is the most desirable product gathered from reduction of garbage. There is little waste of grease nowadays. All the meat is eaten and butter is saved in the home."

"We are having trouble because the greasy elements are highly inflammable and aided in the consuming process at the crematory. There is a great falling off in garbage grease."

"There is a reduction plant in Detroit and I am told that of late the per cent of grease extracted from garbage has fallen from 5 to 2 per cent of the garbage collected."

Carelessness of citizens in consigning every form of waste material to the garbage cans is a factor which officials say is growing upon Fort Wayne folks. In the garbage containers are found pieces of stove pipe, brick bats and heaps of new mown grass. These products are not readily decomposed by heat. Several dollars worth of coal may be consumed in a vain effort to break up the elements of a brick, Mayor Hosey points out.

Grass is one of the most common forms of city nuisance, officials say. Many citizens do not heap their fresh cut grass upon a pile or in a box, but burning later or hauling away. They toss the grass in the streets or chuck it in the garbage can, the mayor says he is told. Street cleaners have no end of trouble in caring for the heaps of grass placed along the pavements.

Sewers are choked by the bundles of grass blades after each heavy rain fall. Much of the load of each trip of the garbage collectors of late has been made up of articles which will not burn and which should be cared for by citizens in some other way than classing the products as garbage.

"Conservation of the city coal at the crematory would be a worthy movement," said Mayor Hosey, Friday morning.

The mayor calls attention of farmers to the excellent fertilizing material now stored back of the crematory. The product is free to gardeners who will haul the waste away.

TYPHOID FEVER CAUSES YOUNG MAN'S DEATH

Ambrose Conners, 32, Passes Away After Illness of Three Weeks.

Ambrose Conners, aged 32 years, died at the St. Joseph hospital Friday morning at 6:30 o'clock, after an illness of three weeks of typhoid fever. The deceased was a life long resident of Fort Wayne. He was employed as a yard conductor by the Pennsylvania road. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and belonged to the Precious Blood church. Surviving are three brothers and three sisters. Mr. Conners was familiarly known to his fellow workmen as "Pat."

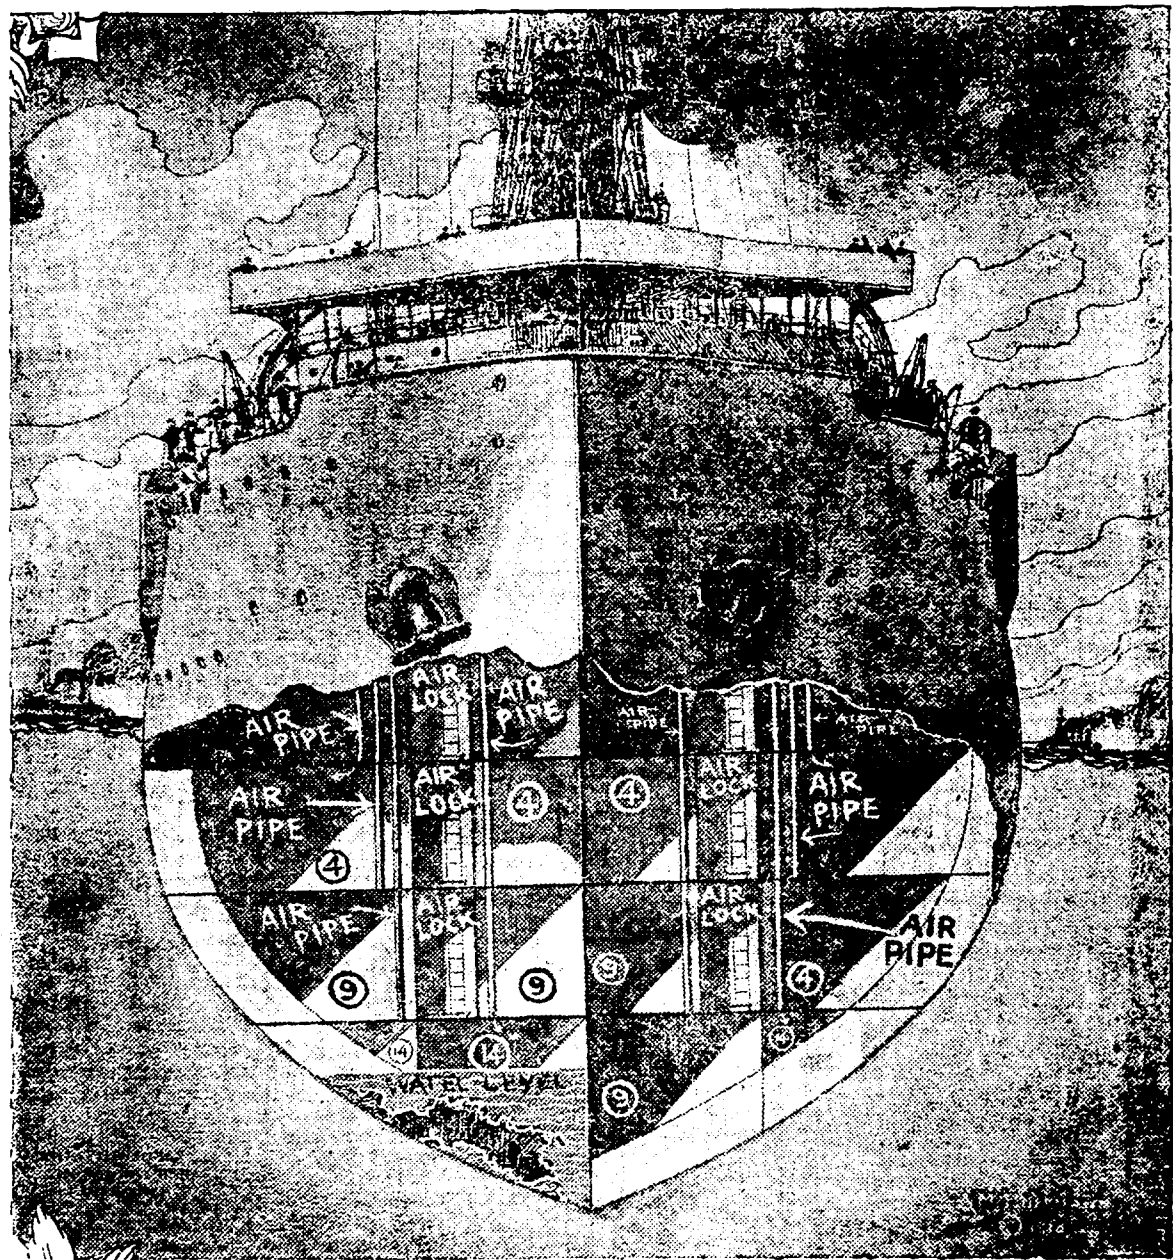

Funeral services Monday morning at 8:30 at the residence of the sister, Mrs. J. E. Beerman, 1651 Richardson street, and at 9 o'clock at the Precious Blood church. Auto funeral, with interment at Arcola.

UNITED STATES SHIP NORTH CAROLINA, THE FIRST SHIP TO BE EQUIPPED WITH THE NEW SELF-SALVING SYSTEM

The inventor of this system has subdivided his ship into a series of zones of compressed air, the pressure diminishing as the zone extends further away from the damaged area, and he creates these supporting zones as emergency arises and just where they are needed to meet the particular requirements of the occasion. The difference of the pressure in adjoining zones is only a few pounds and the in terposed decks and bulkheads are quite capable of withstanding it.

The numerals within circles indicate the compartments charged with air and the pressure in pounds per square inch. The heaviest pressure is in contact with the water in the damaged compartments and is progressively reduced toward the remoter subdivisions.

WELL KNOWN OSSIAN WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. W. H. Rupright Dies After an Illness of Forty-Eight Hours.

[Special to The Sentinel.]
Ossian, Ind., June 29.—After an illness extending for forty-eight hours, Mrs. William Henry Rupright died at her home here this morning at 2:35 o'clock of appendicitis and complications. Mrs. Rupright was taken suddenly ill forty-eight hours before her death and yesterday afternoon was operated upon by Dr. H. A. Duemling, of Fort Wayne.
The deceased was the wife of William Henry Rupright, a prominent democrat of Wells county and at the present time a jury commissioner. She was well known and highly respected.
Mrs. Rupright was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Archbold. She was born in Wells county, February 4, 1849. She was married to William Henry Rupright in 1870, and went to housekeeping in Adams county. Mr. and Mrs. Rupright lived there for a year when they moved to a farm three and one-half miles southeast of Ossian. They moved to Ossian fifteen or twenty years ago and have been residents of this place since.

Five children were born, three of whom are now living. E. W. Rupright lives on a farm three miles south of Ossian; a daughter, Nellie, is at home; Charles H. died at the age of 4; a daughter, Lola, wife of Harry W. Beatty, lives in Ossian, and another child died in infancy. Two brothers survive, Robert Archbold, living four miles east of Ossian, and Emmet Archbold, five miles east of here.

The deceased joined the Presbyterian church when a child and had been a life-long member. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home, Rev. Frank K. Baker, pastor of the Ossian Presbyterian church, officiating.

JEWELERS HAVE BEEN ASLEEP AT THE SWITCH

Arno Dorst Says Dealers in Gems Must Advertise—R. Koerber President

Asserting that the jewelers throughout the country had been asleep at the switch entirely too long and that it was about time that they awakened, Arno A. Dorst, president of the Wholesale Jewelers and Manufacturers association, delivered a stirring address to the members of the jewelers' association Thursday afternoon at the closing session.

Jewelers should also be awake to the fact that newspapers are the best salesmen in the country, stated the speaker. He also stated that advertising would have to be done in order to put the jewelry business on a par with other businesses of the day which resort to newspaper advertising.

People have the idea that only the rich wear jewelry and the jewelers themselves have never done anything to dispense with this idea, said the president of the Wholesale Jewelers and Manufacturers association. He also said that the value of the American newspapers as salesmen could well be evidenced in the glorious outcome of the Liberty loan bond campaign.

Robert Koerber, of this city, head of the Trenkle & Koerber firm, president of the Fort Wayne Rotary club and president of the Fort Wayne Merchants' association, was named president of the State Jewelers' association by unanimous vote.

Other officers elected were: Frank S. Crebs, of Frankfort, first vice president; Philip Horv, Aurora, second vice president; E. O. Little, of Auburn, secretary (re-elected); George F. Beach, of Valparaiso, treasurer, and W. L. Otto, retiring president, was made a member of the executive committee.

Terre Haute was named as the convention city for 1918 without a dissenting vote.

The official banquet held Thursday evening at the Anthony hotel marked the close of the annual convention. The session in this city was regarded as one of the best and largest in the annals of the organization.

Rev. A. J. Folsom and Colonel Shepherd, of New York, were the principal speakers. Between courses Miss Wilhelmina Haager sang for the jewelers. Edward Cranston, another favorite singer in the city, sang several selections.

A successful scheme for eliminating danger and increasing speed of traffic has been the plan of throwing a flood of light upon traffic policemen, so that their motions can be easily distinguished. ## SEEKS THE HELP OF COMMERCIAL BODIES

State Utilities Board is Trying to Solve Transportation Problem.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 28.—The state utilities board, which was recently reorganized, is inviting the co-operation of all commercial bodies in the state in its effort to find a solution of the worst problems presented by the transportation situation. To this end the following letter has been sent out under date of June 28:

The Public Service Commission of Indiana is exerting extreme efforts to improve the railroads' freight service in this state. It is co-operating in this with the National and State Councils of Defense. The railroads, in full sympathy, are exerting every effort to meet the unusual conditions. We desire to call on the shippers of Indiana to co-operate in like spirit to get the maximum of service.

We are certain that your people appreciate the seriousness of the transportation problem. It is possible, however, that none has led in locally organizing a movement for conservation of transportation facilities.

ties. We feel sure that you will join in a state-wide movement. Your organization should call its shippers together and organize.

We are enclosing a circular which a sub-committee representing the carriers, the Indianapolis chamber of commerce and Indianapolis board of trade, which are thus co-operating with the Public Service Commission in expediting freight through this terminal, are sending shippers in the Indianapolis district. We desire you to read it carefully.

We believe that you should organize for effective work along these lines. Such results can be reached only by a concerted effort on the part of all shippers. We now see what can be done by the railroads in the improvement of coal movements, the supply of cars to the Indiana mines in the last month having been increased from 50 to 90 per cent, with expectation of 100 per cent efficiency. We want to emphasize ten points:

1. Load cars to maximum capacity—and 10 per cent over.
2. Load promptly and furnish shipping instructions without delay.
3. Unload promptly—take no advantage of free time allowance.
4. Give orders in advance, or promptly, for switching or setting cars.
5. Provide track facilities for loading and unloading without delay.
6. Stop absolutely delaying cars by reconsignment.
7. Get heavier and more systematic loading of so-called trap cars.
8. Endeavor to get customers to increase orders to carlot shipments. 9. Assemble less than carload shipments for one large shipment.

10. Hold orders for equipment down to actual needs and prompt loading.

If these ten instructions can be put into effect, everyone will get cars and prompt service. Elimination of unnecessary switching and delays will result in better service. Buyers who can afford to raise orders to carlot shipments by anticipating the future, will probably escape congestion when the government begins to move troops and supplies. This point might well be emphasized. If shippers call only for cars they can load promptly, all will be served.

Very truly yours,
CARL H. MOTE,
Secretary.

The public service commission believes that it will have the ready and effective support and co-operation of the chambers of commerce, boards of trade, commercial clubs and other commercial organizations in this effort to improve transportation.

FIGURES BEWILDER ORDINARY LAYMAN

In Case Against Earl Nussbaum, Charged With Passing Bad Check

Laymen failed to follow the processes involved in deducting that Earl Nussbaum is not technically guilty of issuing a fraudulent check. Both the prosecution and the defense submitted a maze of figures which bewildered even the blue-coated police officers who attended the police court session Friday morning.

Nussbaum owed a bill at the Kaough Vulcanizing works on West Main street. He gave a check for a part of the amount. His account had been drawn from the bank. He promises to make the check good. Detective Sergeant William Pappert has been connected with the case and will see that transactions are properly made. The case was dismissed.

In Same Boat.
John Quandt, 45, 2124 Gay street, who has been married ten years, and Mont Mason, who has been a husband less than half that time, both faced non-support charges. They are both to be in circuit court to answer divorce complaints on Saturday morning. Their cases in police court are continued until after their higher court hearing.

when the subject of proper support will probably be determined.

Not Her Boy.

Ernest Heinze and Charles Solis, two young men, were charged with loitering. They were arrested at the corner of Fourth and Wells streets Thursday evening. Complaint had been made about a rody bunch of lads hanging out at that corner. Window lights near the corner have been broken. Police have had complaints from women who passed the corner.

Heinze and Solis were released after a severe lecture. The mother of one of the lads lingered to tell Judge Kerr that the officers had made a mistake in arresting her boy. Her son was only passing the corner, she said. Others are to blame for the rowdism, she explained. Judge Kerr was not attentive.

Does Not Like Court.

F. C. Crawford parked his automobile too near a fire hydrant on West Wayne street Thursday afternoon. He was arrested by Patrolman Paul. He pleaded guilty to the traffic violation charge. He was fined $1 and costs. "I don't mind the fine, but I hate to be in police court," said Crawford.

Other Police Court Cases.
Ben Dawson, 15, charged with having stolen a bicycle, was released to juvenile court.

Edward Lauer was fined $5 and costs on a drunk charge. So was John Nolan. Herman Bishop will be tried on Tuesday on a like charge. Clinton Montgomery will have a hearing on next Thursday.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Officers for the ensuing six months were elected Thursday evening by Fort Wayne lodge No. 116, Knights of Pythias. Those selected were the following: Chancellor, Charles Thompson; vice-chancellor, Paul Zingraff; prelate, James Mitchell; master of work, Gail A. Baughman; master at arms, Walter N. Howe; inner guard, P. C. Ellsworth; outer guard, Edward Dalman; representative to grand lodge, William C. Puckett; auditing committee, Charles Thompson, Paul Zingraff and Walron Brunner.

How's This? Corns Lift Out With Fingers—No Pain!

Thanks to a new discovery made from a Japanese product your foot troubles can be quickly ended.

Ice-Mint, as this new preparation is called, is said to shrivel up hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes so that they can be lifted out easily with the fingers. It's wonderful. Think of it; only a touch or two of Ice-Mint and real foot-joy is yours.

There is not one bit of pain or soreness when applying it or afterwards and it doesn't even irritate the skin. If your feet are inclined to swell or puff or if you have cracked or bleeding toes, it will draw the inflammation right out and quickly heal the sore and tender places. It is the real Japanese secret of fine, healthy, little feet and is greatly appreciated by women who wear high heel shoes and by men who have to stand on their feet all day. Try it. Just ask in any drug store for a small jar of Ice-Mint and learn for yourself what solid foot comfort really is. There is nothing like it.—Advertisement.

Chicago, June 29.—Potatoes at the good old-fashioned price of a dollar were predicted for the near future in South Water street today. Wholesale prices were off 40 cents a bushel today and receipts are constantly increasing, it was said.

Onions, which sold at 15 and even 20 cents a pound last winter, were quoted at 2 1/2 cents wholesale today. Cabbages were correspondingly lower. Fruits are still high.

COAL RELIEF IS TO COME TO THE LAND NEXT WEEK

Washington, D. C., June 29.—Both American consumers and the government are to get relief from the high cost of coal. Beginning July 1, the price of soft coal at all mines east of the Mississippi is to be reduced one to five dollars a ton to the consumer with a still further cut of fifty cents to the government. An agreement to the effect has been reached between representatives of the coal interests and the government officials following several days of conference here. It was also agreed to defer the question of lower prices on hard coal until after July. Anthracite operators indicated a willingness, however, to meet the government in the same spirit shown by soft coal men. As a result of the agreement officials estimate that the government and the public will be saved more than $180,000,000 annually. "Magnificent," is the way Secretary Lane, who took a prominent part in the conference, characterized the way operators met the government's call upon them.

WOULD NOT ENDORSE COUNCIL OF DEFENSE

Indiana Democratic Editorial Association Cries Politics.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 29.—The Indiana Democratic Editorial association in session here today refused to give its endorsement to the state council of defense when a resolution asking such endorsement was presented by Walter S. Chambers, of Newcastle. Prominent among those opposing the resolution was Low Ellingham, of Fort Wayne.

The refusal was not based on opposition to the objects of the state council and the theory of its work, the editors explained, but was to the personnel of the council. Speakers at the meeting charged that by the appointment of Will Hays, the republican state chairman, as chairman of the state council the council had become a publicity department of the republican party.

REPUBLIC FOR RUSSIA GIVEN AS A FORECAST

Washington, June 29.—A Russian republic was forecast today by members of the Russian mission in the clearest exposition yet received here of the enormous problems of reconstruction facing that country. Any other form of government, it was stated, was practically impossible and would be in direct contradiction to the spirit and principles of the whole Russian upheaval. The constituent assembly, which is expected to open on September 30 will have in its hands the building of the whole new political structure of Russia. The provisional government which has ordered its call has not only given it absolute powers as to Russia's future government but has also entrusted it with all its own executive powers.

BERLIN'S OFFICIAL REPORT OF BATTLE

Berlin, June 29.—(Via London).—German forces yesterday captured French positions on both sides of the Malancourt-Esnes road, on the west bank of the Meuse in the Verdun sector, over a width of 2,000 yards and a depth of 500 yards, says the official statement issued today by the German general staff. Today the Germans stormed a 300-yard wide French position in Avocourt wood. More than 550 prisoners were taken at both points.

MEXICO ENGAGED IN A HUNT FOR PIRATES

Mexico City, June 29.—(By Mail).—Both land and sea forces are engaged in an effort to capture a pirate schooner called the Mariscal, which it is said has been preying on the small towns and on fishing boats along the coasts of Vera Cruz and Tabasco. The Mariscal, which belongs to the Compania Exploradora de Dorantes, operating in Tabasco, was seized by a band of rebels some time ago and, cruising close along the coast, has terrorized the fishing fleets of that section.

It is said the men of the schooner have headquarters somewhere near the Gulf of Mexico, but make frequent incursions into the rivers emptying into the gulf ravaging such towns as are too weak to resist them. The gunboats sent to capture the Mariscal have been evaded by the schooner because the latter is of such light draft she is able to take refuge in rivers and shoal water where the gunboats cannot penetrate and the land forces have been ordered to co-operate from the shore.

FOR GRADUATED TAXES.

Washington, June 29.—Graduated instead of flat taxes upon excess profits in the war revenue bill were discussed and generally approved today by the senate finance committee. The graduated rates proposed were from 12 to 35 per cent, with the higher rates upon "swollen" profits. Formal action was deferred until later, with prospect that the graduated tax plan would be adopted as a substitute for the flat rate of 14 per cent. The committee expects to report the bill to the senate Monday.

London, June 29.—Special dispatches from Athens say Prince Christopher, brother of former King Constantine of Greece, is coming to London to marry a rich American woman. ## GARRETT TOURNAMENT ATTRACTS GREAT CROWD

Volunteer Firemen Have Best Meet in History of the Association.

[Special to The Sentinel.]
Garrett, Ind., June 29.—The North-eastern Indiana Firemen's tournament came to a close in this city last evening and proved a great success, notwithstanding the bad weather. Twenty-seven out of the thirty-three fire departments of the association were present and sixteen of them were accompanied by their own bands.

The program for the day began at 10 o'clock and from that time until 11 o'clock last night there was something doing every minute. Mayor Clevenger welcomed the members of the association and President E. M. Wells responded. A stirring patriotic address was given by Captain Ryan of the Fort Wayne recruiting office.

At the business session which followed, the organization adopted resolutions requesting that hereafter the delegates will be asked to gather at the scene of the convention the evening before the convention, thinking it would give them much better opportunity to carry out a good day's program. They also discussed legislation for a firemen's relief fund and appointed a committee to investigate. Kendallville asked for and landed the next convention. The morning session then adjourned for dinner.

The election of officers, which was hotly contested, resulted as follows: President, Samuel Nussbaum, of Berne; vice president, William P. Seifert, of Garrett; secretary, G. F. Rogge, General Electric, of Fort Wayne; assistant secretary, George Kihm; treasurer, Roth Keller, of the Wayne Knitters, of Fort Wayne; executive board, F. C. Duryee of the General Electric of Fort Wayne, chairman; L. C. Helm of Decatur, and A. Dillary of Hartford City.

The contests and prizes.
Best uniformed company, Wayne Knitting Mills, first; New Haven, second. The knitters were attired in white, with blue ties and stockings, and the New Haven wore white trousers, shoes and hats, with pink shirts. Largest number of uniformed men, General Electric works.

Largest delegation, New Haven, with 195 men.
Hose laying contest, Wayne Knitters, first, 31½ seconds; General Electric, second, 33 seconds.
One hundred yard dash, Wayne Knitting Mills, first; General Electric works, second.

Two hundred yard dash, Wayne Knitting Mills.
Rope ladder climbing, L. B. Dunifon, of General Electric works.

Water battle, General Electric works.
Gave Aid to Red Cross.
In the parade the Garrett Campfire Girls, thirty-six in number, were attired in Red Cross uniforms and carried a large Red Cross flag. They sold Red Cross tags and cleared $150 for the Red Cross fund.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Y. Gross who have charge of the Wayne Knitting Mills club house at Fort Wayne, chaperoned a crowd of eighteen young ladies who are known as the "Wayne Knits." These young ladies were all dressed in white and carried a large American flag. Many people threw contributions into the flag and they received $32. Immediately after the parade they marched to the Red Cross headquarters established by the Campfire Girls and after giving several good yell and singing "Indiana," they filed into the tent and Mr. Gross in behalf of the Wayne Knits presented $10 of their money to the Campfire Girls Red Cross fund. Dr. Walter Broughton, Guardian Mrs. J. D. Jack and Mrs. F. M. McDonald extended their heartfelt thanks for their generous offering and stated that nothing that has occurred during the Red Cross campaign had touched them quite as much as this unexpected as most liberal gift.

Bands Give Parade.
One of the most inspiring things during the day's program was when all of the bands present formed in line at Randolph and Quincy streets and marched down Randolph street playing a medley of patriotic airs. It made the city ring and wild cheers and hurrahs were heard on every side.

The visiting delegations were well pleased with the treatment they received here and think the Garrett bunch of volunteer firemen and their fellow citizens a progressive people. Much of the success of the convention was due to the untiring efforts of Chief A. W. Boehler of this city.

SHIFT IN ENGINEERS.

Wabash Makes Many Changes in Personnel of Crews.
Following the new time card on the Wabash has come a number of resignments of engineers, some affecting Fort Wayne. James B. Wells, one of the old engineers, has bid in the Fort Wayne-Toledo passenger run, with Sunday lay over in Toledo, his home. Chris Hoffman will have the opposite run to Mr. Wells, with Sunday lay over in Fort Wayne. Charles Christie has also bid in a run between this city and Toledo, via Defiance. Mr. Wells is an old time friend of Charles H. Doebler, former resident of this city and known to everybody here. Nearly a quarter of a century ago Mr. Doebler came here to take the office of master mechanic of the Wabash, a position he previously held on the Big Four, and he brought Mr. Wells with him.

SIMPSON FAMILY ARRIVES.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Simpson and their four children have located in pleasant quarters on Willowood avenue, near South Wayne avenue. They formerly resided in Schenectady, N. Y., but when Mr. Simpson was transferred to the Fort Wayne branch of the General Electric works in the capacity of assistant factory superintendent, it became necessary for the family to come also. He went to Schenectady several days ago, to assist in packing the household goods for shipment to Fort Wayne, returning with the members of his family early in the present week.

WILLIAM SAMS PROMOTED.

William Sams, the machinist's helper and erstwhile watchman at the Clinton street gates of the Pennsylvania shops, has been promoted. This morning he assumed charge of a drill press recently installed in the toolroom and is feeling pretty jubilant over the promotion. Mr. Sams has worked in various capacities at the shops for a number of years and through courtesy and accommodating ways has become quite popular with the employees of the machine shop and the toolroom.

OPENS COTTAGE TOMORROW.

Machinist Willard Smith and his son, Brook Smith, and nephew, Preston Martin, will go to Clear Lake tomorrow to open the Smith cottage and get the boats and fishing tackle in shape for the summer campaign. Mr. Smith will take his family to the cottage Saturday, July 7, to spend two weeks, the allotted period of his annual vacation. His cottage is one of the best on the northwest shore of the lake, being directly opposite the island.

MADE ADDITION TO FORCE.

General Foreman W. B. Madara, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, who has been short on skilled labor for some time, is in better shape today though still looking for more good mechanics. ## TRANS-ATLANTIC LINE OF AIRPLANES PROMISE

G. Holt Thomas Predicts a Service Carrying Folks at Dollar a Mile.

London, June 29.—A trans-Atlantic line of airplanes carrying passengers between New York and London in two days, at a total cost of about $1 a mile was predicted by G. Holt Thomas in an address which he delivered before the Aeronautical society of Great Britain. To complete the rosy forecast, prophetic films were displayed showing the departure and voyage of a trans-Atlantic airplane and also the dropping of mail pouches at postal air stations between London and the north of England. Mr. Thomas, who has had large experience in flying and building aircraft, said that airplane mail services could be established commercially. "A special aeroplane will enable the business man to leave London in the morning, transact his business in Paris, and be home to dinner again," he said. "It will take him to Bagdad in a day and a half or New York in two days." The cost from London to Paris, he added, would be just over a dollar per mile running one machine each way and with four machines it would work out at 75 cents. A profitable charge

Building Activities on the South Side

New Homes in Weisser Park Addition

MODERN HOMES ARE BEING BUILT IN WEISSER PARK ADDITION.

Attention seems to be directed very strongly to Weisser Park addition as an ideal place to live on the south side. Streets are being paved and modern improvements provided for buyers of lots—and the prices, even for lots on Smith street, where the above homes are located, are as low as $575. The L. F. Curdes Realty Company now has a large corps of men on the spot, laying re-enforced concrete pavements, laying water mains and sewers, installing ornamental boulevard lighting and otherwise developing the place into a good place to live.

THE MARKETS

MILLERS CONTINUE TO DECREASE QUOTATIONS

Flour Expected to Fall Forty Cents a Barrel at Close of Week.

The two millers who on Thursday lowered their wheat prices 5c, repeated the action Friday, bringing their quotations to $2.20 per bushel. Another local mill, however, has been sitting tight and still quotes the same grain at $2.22. This goes further to prove that the price is making little difference with wheat receipts these days, since there is scarcely any wheat to sell. The two millers who have reduced their quotations expect to lower flour 50c a barrel Saturday.

Receipts continued out of form Friday, the street market being almost deserted, and dealers reporting that they have purchased practically nothing. Fifteen loads were all that were weighed at the city scales. Eight loads were hay, which continued to sell at $12.00@13.00 per ton. Two loads of corn brought $1.58@1.60 per bushel, while five loads of oats were taken at from 65c to 67c a bushel.

FURTHER DECLINES IN WHEAT PRICES

Market Halts, Pending the Action of Congress on Food Control.

Chicago, June 29.—Downturn in wheat prices continued today with trading restricted pending congressional action on the food conservation bill. Leading elevator interests in Chicago were preparing to notify the administration at Washington that they proposed to act in future strictly as warehouses. Opening prices, which ranged from 1 1/2c decline to a like advance, were followed soon by a moderate setback all around.

Favorable weather reports had bearish effect on deferred deliveries of corn. After opening 3/4c off to 3c up, the market tightened a little more for July and relaxed further for the distant months. Oats were easy as a result of generally good crop reports. Provisions sagged because of lack of any aggressive support.

DECLINES FOLLOW SELLING MOVEMENT

Heaviness Displayed by the Active List in the Stock Market.

New York, June 29.—Selling of the active list was resumed at the beginning of today's trading, speculative issues showing increased heaviness. Declines of one to three points were registered by Industrial Alcohol, Baldwin Locomotive, International Paper, Pittsburgh Coal, Studebaker, Chandler and General Motors. The steel shares yielded only fractions with coppers, oils and rails. United States Steel almost immediately made up its slight setback and other industrials, including equipments, were inclined to greater firmness. In the main dealings were light and limited to the usual leaders.

Further liquidation occurred in the listless trading of the afternoon. The motors, Alcohol, and Ohio Gas continued to sag from sheer apathy. General Motors dropped 3 1/2, Alcohol yielded 3 1/2, Pullman 2, Baldwin Locomotive 1 1/2 and Beet Sugar and Wilson company 1 1/2. U. S. Steel made a gross decline of 1 1/2 to 128, and Bethlehem Steel lost 1 1/2. The metal group was extremely quiet and shipments and rails played little part in the more irregular operations.

The bond market was nominal, the only feature being sale of an odd lot of the liberty issues at 100 6-50, the highest premium yet recorded.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

A depression overlies the St. Lawrence valley, and another depression which is centered over Alberta reaches southward over the Rocky mountain region to Arizona. The pressure is relatively high in the central sections of the country and off the north Pacific coast. During the last 24 hours showers occurred in the far northwestern districts and quite generally in the sections to the eastward of the Mississippi river. Moderately cool weather prevails in the central plateau region but in the other sections of the country nearly normal temperatures obtain. While the temperature changes of the last weather is generally warmer in the plains states and in the northern Rocky mountain region.

"NOW YOU GET THE KAISER," SAYS GEORGE OR WORDS TO THAT EFFECT

King George addressing one of his famous air men. We can easily imagine him saying, "Now you get the Kaiser"—emphasizing his command with a shake of his finger. This is probably the most unusual photograph ever taken of the British king and is one of the best to arrive in this country in years. The aviator in the picture is Captain Hicks, one of England's premier airmen. The king was greatly interested in the performance of Captain Hicks and other aviators while visiting an aeroplane field near London. He was especially inquisitive about safeguards for protecting their lives. As commander-in-chief of Great Britain's forces, land, sea and air, he naturally displays the greatest interest in all that concerns these branches of the service. Recently he spent a day at an aeroplane construction shop inspecting the plant. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

ANOTHER CAMPAIGN TO END OLD ABUSE

"Leave to Print" Nonsense May Be Abolished by Congress.

Washington, D. C., June 29.—The old fight has been renewed to stop the practice of members of the house extending their remarks in the Congressional Record containing extraneous matter, such as poetry of the home-made variety, speeches by outsiders, telegrams and resolutions, which annually swell the government's printing bill to thousands of dollars. Representative Walsh, of Massachusetts, who is behind the movement, said today that since the opening of congress 29 poems, 70 articles, 54 editorials, 26 speeches of outsiders, 165 letters and 723 telegrams have been inserted in the Record by members. One member was responsible for 534 telegrams occupying nineteen pages of the Record, in one day, he said. Believing that the Record never was intended for such purposes, Mr. Walsh declared henceforth he will object to the inclusion of everything not directly connected with debate.

The word "gentleman" has always been a difficulty, and great writers, particularly Newman, in a famous passage, have been at pains to define it. Probably the higher you ascend the social scale the more seldom you hear the word. But a new measure of gentility came my way recently, writes a correspondent. The landlord had sent his men to mend a gap in the fence, and the maid, observing them through the kitchen window, remarked: "There are two men in the garden, and one of them's a gentleman—he's wearing a mackintosh!" A gig, according to Carlyle, used to be the standard of respectability—a standard more difficult to attain than this

WILL PURCHASE TWENTY GONDOLA FREIGHT CARS

Cincinnati, Findlay and Fort Wayne Railroad to Be Improved.

Cincinnati, O., June 29.—United States District Judge Howard E. Hollister today authorized John B. Carothers, as receiver of the Cincinnati, Findlay & Fort Wayne Railway company, formerly a branch of the C. H. & D. railway system, to purchase twenty gondola freight cars at $400 each for immediate use on the line of railway operated by the receiver. Carothers is authorized to borrow the money for the purchase of the cars, and court directs this indebtedness be made a first lien upon the equipment so purchased in the event of the sale of the road before the delivery of the equipment the purchaser shall assume the receiver's obligation. In his application for this authority Receiver Carothers said the railroad owns but six freight cars, while there is a present demand for twenty gondolas a day to handle crushed stone originating on the line, and in September there will be a further demand for fifty gondolas a day to handle beet shipments to a beet sugar plant at Findlay, O.

Improvements of a decidedly valuable character are expected to be at once made in the road's rolling stock owing to the exceptional upward tendency of the traffic in the territory covered and the road's outlook declared very bright by authorities here.

BRITISH ARMY SERGEANT HELPING UNCLE SAM GET RECRUITS.

The jury was established by the Frankish kings, being introduced into England by the Normans at the time of the conquest in 1066. At first it was merely a royal prerogative, men being brought in to give what they understood to be the truth regarding a certain matter which was being considered by the king. Under King Henry II, it became a regular privilege which was given to the people to use in the settling of their disputes

By the end of the twelfth century it was established, and it represented the collective knowledge of the community. By the end of the fifteenth century, it was already similar to our jury of modern times, having become an important liberty of Englishmen.

THE WOODMAN AND HIS AX ARE TO COME BACK

National Forests Are to Supply Wood for Fuel Next Winter.

Washington, June 29.—To meet any possible coal shortage in the west next winter, more extensive use of fuel wood from the national forests is urged by the government's foresters, who are advising both ranchers and town dwellers to be forehanded in making arrangements for the supply of their fuel needs.

The supervisors of the 153 national forests will be instructed to afford all possible facilities to local residents wishing to obtain cordwood, which settlers may obtain free for their home use and which is sold at low rates to persons cutting and hauling in order to sell to others. Since the material thus utilized is mainly dead timber, its removal, it is explained, helps clear up the forest and thus lessens the fire menace. Timber which is insect-infested, or old and deteriorating, or otherwise damaged or undesirable from the forester's standpoint, is also disposed of for fuel purposes. The demand in the next twelve months is expected to break all records.

There is a possibility of a coal shortage because of the increased demand for coal by industrial plants and the lack of sufficient means of transportation. It is believed that it will be quite feasible and economical for many western communities to utilize an increased quantity of national forest wood for fuel next winter. When dead and down timber or other timber which is deteriorating is not available for cordwood, the cutting of mature living trees will be permitted to the extent necessary to meet demands. While wood as a fuel is less economical to handle and use than coal, it is in many parts of the west cheaper, even at normal price levels. Stoves and furnaces, however, equipped to burn coal usually require different grates to permit of the substitution of wood, and this is pointed out as one reason why the householder will do well to look ahead and decide beforehand how he will keep warm and what he will feed the kitchen stove next winter.

Where sawmills are operating in the woods at points within hauling distance of towns, there is a chance to obtain slabs and other material that ordinarily goes to waste. Since green or wet wood is both poorer fuel and heavier to transport and handle than dry, mill waste as it comes from the saw is relatively undesirable for immediate use. For this reason, as well as in order to be sure of a supply, the government foresters suggest that a good-sized woodpile in the backyard or under cover before winter sets in may be found a thrifty provision.

During the last fiscal year over 30,000 permits for the free use of national forest timber in the form of fuel wood were taken out by local residents. The amount of timber involved approximated 250,000 cords. Additional supplies of cordwood were obtained from the forests at a nominal price by others who were not entitled under the law to the free use of timber.

Most Common of Bodily Ills.
By far the most common of bodily ills is constipation. The usual cause is the indifference of many people to Nature's call. The inclination is not heeded, or it is put off until a more convenient time. When this is done repeatedly, constipation is almost sure to follow. It is the utmost importance that everyone establish a certain time for the bowels to move each day and let nothing interfere with it. When that is done and proper food and exercise are taken and an abundance of drinking water, the bowels are not likely to give much trouble. When a laxative is required take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are mild and gentle, easy to take and agreeable in effect.—Advertisement.

WOULD MAKE A TRAIN MORE THAN MILE LONG

That's Too Much So Ringling Brothers Solve the Problem.
One hundred and seventy-eight ordinary size cars would be required to transport the people, animals and equipment of the big new circus which the Ringling Brothers are to bring to this city Thursday, July 12. The amount of motive power that would be necessary to haul such a quota makes the use of the average length carrier wholly impracticable. To solve the problem the famous showmen have special "double length" cars built for their use and so manage to load their mammoth organization on eighty-nine cars.
The show trains are this year divided into four, five or at times even six sections depending upon the topography of the country where the circus is to exhibit. A quartet of trains is the rule. The first section is known in spangland as the "flying squadron." It is the first to reach and the first to leave every exhibition point. On it travel the chief of the commissary department, his staff of assistants, the 90 cooks and waiters who attend to the inner wants of the circus hosts and all the animals excepting the elephants, camels and zebras. The second and third sections carry the splendid baggage, horses, the tableau, band and equipment wagons, the great quantity of scenery, mechanical and electrical paraphernalia used in this season's spectacle. "Underella," the immense vans fitted with cedar chests in which are carried the thousands of costumes used in the fairyland spectacle; parade barges and allegorical floats and all the canvas, poles, chairs, roped and myriad of other physical assets of the gigantic undertaking. Lastly comes the fourth section, made up of 22 solid vestibuled Pullman sleepers, in which travel the hosts of Ringlingville. These traveling "homes" are resplendent with red and gold. At the forward end of this train are the massive yellow "Pullmans" in which ride the herd of 41 elephants; the camels, zebras and all the beautiful equines that are used in the ring performances. And this year there are also many Shetland ponies, for Ringling Brothers have lately introduced a new trained animal department on their main tent program, dedicated especially to the children.

Were all the cars lettered "Ringling Bros." coupled together they would form a gigantic train more than a mile in length or a third as long as the street parade. A splendid way to appreciate the extent of the Ringling railway equipment is to go to a second or third-story window overlooking the railroad yards on circus day. For in this manner only can one realize the vastness of that traveling, wheeled caravan, which for seven months each year, is "home" for the hosts of "the world's greatest shows."

MARKLE WOMAN IS BURNED TO CRISP

Mrs. Aaron Stickler is Fatally Hurt in Gasoline Stove Explosion.

Two Men in Fight.
Trouble of several days' standing led to a fight between Dan North, well known local contractor and David Dedrick, one of his laborers. North has the contract for paving several streets and has had some trouble with the men on account of wages. Dedrick, it is said, agitated the other men, and last evening he followed North from his home, abusing him and calling him names. When the pair reached the Elks' club North ran inside and returned with a billiard cue and hit Dedrick about the head and arms with it. A deep gash was cut in his head and his arms and shoulders severely bruised. The men were parted by F. J. Tangeman, local banker, who was passing. Dedrick was taken to a physician who took several stitches in closing the wound on his head. No charges have been filed as yet.

Bluffton Short Items.
F. P. Adams, of this city, suffered a fracture of the leg when he fell in the Baites hotel in Fort Wayne yesterday.
Alleging drunkenness and inhuman treatment, Mrs. Jennie Burns, of Nottingham township, filed suit for divorce from William F. Burns.
As the result of a stroke of paralysis which she suffered earlier in the evening, Mrs. Isaac Clowser, residing northeast of the city, died at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning.

SEES JAPAN AS FIRST CLASS POWER IN WORLD

Tokio, June 29.—Viscount Ichiro Motono, the foreign minister, in a speech before the Japan Emigration association, said the government is always paying keen and close attention to the emigration of Japanese people to foreign countries.
"Viewed from the progress of politics, national economy, scientific advancement and in other directions, Japan, in her absolute position in the world, cannot be called a first class power yet," he added, "but there is not the least doubt as to the future progress and development of the Japanese nation. The character of the emigrants has an important bearing upon the nation and state they belong to. Hence it is a matter of great importance to promote the education of emigrants and to take measures to elevate their character and make them awake to the conception that they are the subjects of Japan and in a way represent the Japanese nation."

MUST WEAR FINE CLOTHES.

Rome, June 29.—Regarding editorial criticisms of women who continue to wear fine clothes, despite the war, Miss Elvira Spina has protested to the editor of the Giornale d'Italia in a letter as follows: "The simple and sad truth is that it does not pay to be a modestly dressed woman. Let me make a confession. The woman who forces herself to live quietly, to dress unattractively, goes unobserved. The other woman who makes an elaborate toilette, who wears flashy clothes, is admired, courted, loved, married. These days husbands are scarce. So what are we to do, how can we resist temptation? Peace time, war time, men are the same. Change the men and then we too will change."

Lemon Juice is Skin Beautifier, Also a Whitener

Many women use just the juice of lemons to bleach or whiten the skin, but pure lemon juice is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white.
At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier.
Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to bring back to any skin the whiteness, the sweet freshness and flexibility of which it has been robbed by carelessness or trying atmospheric conditions.

BRITISH MONITORS IN ADVANCE ON TRIESTE

Grado, Gulf of Trieste, June 29.—(Correspondence.)—British monitors played an important part in the Italian advance upon Trieste. They took up positions midway up the gulf where their guns could bear upon the aeroplane hangars and the multifarious military establishments which surround Presecco and Contovello, twin villages upon the main road and railway to Trieste, both constituting important depots for the Austrian air service and general supplies.
When the first gun spoke a great shell went hurtling into the distance and an Italian scouting hydroplane duly marked it down upon the railway line south of Presecco. The second shot landed a little north of the first, hitting the railway again at a point where a Trieste-bound train was passing. The train vanished in ruin.
Then other monitors arrived at their stations, and the bombardment continued in a tremendous, measured rhythm. Each monitor fired two hours. They smashed the hangars, flattened the railway station of Presecco, destroyed the railway and viaduct, and produced a great fire near Contovello, whose peak of bright flame was visible into the gulf.

BRITONS KEEP THEIR SERVANTS

London, June 29.—Thousands of families throughout the country are, in spite of the shortage of labor, keeping their usual pre-war quota of servants. There are instances of households consisting of a mother and two daughters employing a staff of nine servants. In fact, in many homes there are so many servants that they spend most of their time waiting on each other.

aid in the work of the health inspectors. The health department has established two additional free public baths and compulsory bathing is being enforced as strictly as possible.

LISTEN TO THIS! SAYS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OUT NOW

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.

It is a sticky ether compound which dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.—Advertisement.

FAMOUS GERMAN YACHT SOLD.

London, June 29.—The Germania, a famous racing yacht formerly owned by Lieutenant Krupp von Bohlen and Halbach of Germany, which was seized by the British government at Cowes at the beginning of the war, has been sold for $50,000 to Captain Hannevig, of Norway. The Germania twice won Emperor William's cup at Cowes. She cost $225,000. Captain Hannevig also purchased the racing cutter Paula III for $8,000. The Paula II sold for $19,100. Both these yachts formerly were owned by Germans, but were seized at Cowes when the war began.

POLICE GETS REWARD FOR WHITE'S ARREST

The police pension fund is $50 richer as the result of the arrest of Thomas White, alias Ross, two weeks ago. White was taken into custody by Detective Sergeant Walter Immel when it was suspected that he was instigating a plot, along with Dick Diamond, to rob the Randall hotel safe. White was wanted at Mount Clements, Mich., on a charge of stealing an automobile. He had saved his way from the Mount Clements jail last February, along with four other men. The $50 had been offered as a reward for his capture. White has been returned and the money paid into the local department.

Little Evas Prove Too Much for Fierce Warriors in Opener

HAUGER'S HOMER IS A DECIDING FACTOR

Lack of Timely Hits Causes Downfall of Chiefs in Interesting Go.

The Chiefs passed up another excellent opportunity to win a ball game yesterday, but for some reason or other the atmosphere around the cellar has been the spirits of the once fierce warrior band and the Evas took the opening game of the series by a score of 4 to 3. On several occasions Fort Wayne had runners on the paths, with every chance in the world to score, but lack of a timely hit always put the damper on any menacing rally.

The Chiefs started out in the first inning with a burst of speed, scoring one whole run, their first in nineteen innings. After that, however, they remained somnolent until the seventh, when they got two more runners across the plate. In the meantime Center Fielder Hauger, who is drawing his salary because he can bust the old pill a mile, had lifted one into Clinton street, giving the Evas a lead which the Chiefs could not overcome.

Winchell started the pitching for the Evas, and was never in any real danger until the seventh, when big Bill Shoup was hustled in to finish the game. The Chiefs got one run in the first on Breux's single, Greife's miff of a throw on an attempted sacrifice by Vandy, and Siegfried's sacrifice fly. The Chiefs couldn't stand prosperity very long, however, and in the third, with two gone and Winchell on base through a walk, Mr. Hauger caught hold of one of Robert's shoots for a circuit drive which landed somewhere in the region of the city scales. The Evas continued to make life miserable for the warriors in the seventh. Knoll singled, went to second on an out, and registered when Altermatt doubled. Winchell's hit scored the second run of the inning.

The Chiefs grew restless in the seventh, and for a time it looked as if they might turn the tables on the Pioneers. Smith got an infield hit and Gleich doubled, Kelly hit one to Greife and beat it out, Smith scoring. Gleich came on across when Brown forced Kelly at second. Brown was snuffed out at second when he attempted to steal.

Bobby Roberts pitched pretty ball and deserved a win, but the brand of hurling handed the Chiefs by the Evas flingers was too much. Vandy shifted the lineup in hopes of adding some hitting strength. Brown going to left and Petey Powers holding down a seat on the bench. Corridon feated the game with a one-handed stab of Boelze's fly back of short, and Mike Kelly also pulled a feature catch of a wild wave by the shortstop.

WELL, THEY SCORED.

GREAT ROSEBERY STABLE MAY BE AUCTIONED IN THIS COUNTRY

It is rumored in New York that the wonderful racing stable of Lord Rosebery, former premier of England, is to be shipped to America, probably to be sold at auction.

The stable consists of sixty-eight horses including some of the greatest thoroughbred strains known to the British turf.

In England Lord Rosebery's name has long been synonymous with what is best in the racing game, and his colors on several occasions preceded those of Edward VII, himself a great breeder of thoroughbreds, to the wire.

Lord Rosebery has won three derbies with his horses, Ladas winning in 1904 and St. Visco the following year. In 1905 Cicera carried Lord Rosebery's colors to

 New York, June 29.—Will Benny Leonard "blow his roll" and wind up in the discard when his champ days are over? Not by a million miles—if past performances count.

Benny is one of the most saving kids that ever slammed over a knockout. Benny has had some months of prosperity, but you'd never have known by the looks of things that he carries a bank roll that would stagger half the men in Wall street. He just kept eating away the gate receipts, wearing a path to the bank.

After every fight Benny would hike for a telephone, call for his mother and tell her what happened—usually a victory—and more cash in the Leonard till.

It wasn't until about three months ago that Benny even began to talk about an automobile. When necessary he'd use a taxi, but serious thought of owning a machine of his own was "something else again."

Benny isn't what could be called a miser, or anything like that. He's just naturally careful with his money. His advice is:

"Be careful what you do with your money. Form careful habits and live a clean life. Old age won't worry you then."

Benny lives his preaching. There'll be no wild orgies for him. Harlem is naturally a frugal place, and Benny has the habit.

BIG LIST OF ENTRIES FOR LIMA MOTOR RACES

Speedway Classic of July 4 Enlists Northern Indiana Racers.

Lima, O., June 29.—More than eighteen entries are expected to be in the hands of the Lima Speedway company before the entries for the Fourth of July auto races to be held at the Lima Driving park close on Saturday. More than a dozen have already been received and a number are yet expected.

Two Ford cars are entered in the races. These are not stock cars but are equipped with sixteen-valve motors and are capable of doing better than eighty miles an hour. B. F. Davis from Paris, Ill., in the car he will drive here, won the Illinois state championship on the Chicago speedway last August, and he is believed to have the fastest Ford car ever constructed. He is backed by the Ford factory in Detroit.

The $1,500 in purses and the big silver loving cup presented to the driver making the fastest time are expected to draw hundreds of spectators from the entries. The cup trophy given by the Lima chamber of commerce is on display at the Central drug store, where the reserved seats are on sale, and is attracting much interest and comment.

Herb Rudy, Lima holder of the Ohio state championship for the half mile dirt tracks, will have the hardest struggle in his career this time to maintain his title. Several of the drivers already entered are willing to wager that Rudy will not be champion after the coming races. Rudy is optimistic, however, and says he expects to experience no trouble. There will be considerable money change hands on Rudy.

Notable entries to date include J. C. Portz, Cleveland, Buick Special; Charles Mowery, Pittsburg, Stutz Special; Billy Knipper, Toledo, Knipper Special; Glen Richardson, Warren, Ind., Baby Buick; Halie Dawson, Napoleon, Flying Maxwell; R. C. ELKS TO BOOST.
 A large delegation of Elks of this city will form a "boosters" club and attend the game between Fort Wayne and Evansville at League park tomorrow afternoon in a body. Charles Biederwolf is chairman of the committee in charge.

Eddie Plank, the 42-year-old left-handed pitching marvel, may never enter the box again. He has suffered a nervous breakdown and has pitched only two games this year.

WILL OESCHGER BE ANOTHER ALEXANDER?

There's a little college out in California, St. Mary's they call it, where they grow baseball players like weeds and pretty nearly every season finds one or two of them up in the majors.

Duffy Lewis, Harry Mooper, Dutch Leonard, Hal Chase, Eddie Burns, Louis Gusto, Art Shafer and Fred Snodgrass are some of the big league stars who first learned how to hit and run bases at the little college, and Pat Moran believes he has another from the same "baseball incubator" in Joe Oeschger, his big right-hander, who is about ready to take his place regularly in the box.

Moran has been nursing the youngster along since 1914 and believes he is about ready.

Moran and the other Phillies believe Oeschger should prove to be another Alexander. They declare he has more speed than the great Alex, a better fast ball and a faster breaking curve.

He has lacked confidence and control but is said to be developing these rapidly.

SPORTS CHATTER

Minor leagues are sure to quit, says a headline. Having heard that for the last four years we expect that some of these days they will get mad and make good.

Since smashing umpires is getting to be the favorite outdoor sport of ballplayers it might be a good idea to hire Jess Willard, Carl Morris, et al., to umpire a few games.

Washington is after Larry Lajole. That's quite a boost for Connie Mack, who sent Larry back to the bushes. Jack Johnson is Barcelona's champion bull fighter. He used to be the world's best bull thrower.

EVERY AMERICAN SHOULD EXERCISE DAILY—WELL DEVELOPED BODY IS DUTY TO NATION

(By J. M. Rice, bowling coach of Columbia University, and physical adviser to The Daily Sentinel readers.)

Jim Rice's health articles are endorsed by Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, U. S. A., who says: "One of the most important duties that a citizen can now perform is that of keeping himself or herself physically fit. It means everything to the nation."

To have a well proportioned body, kept in tip-top condition, is a duty that every man, woman and child owes to the nation in this crisis.

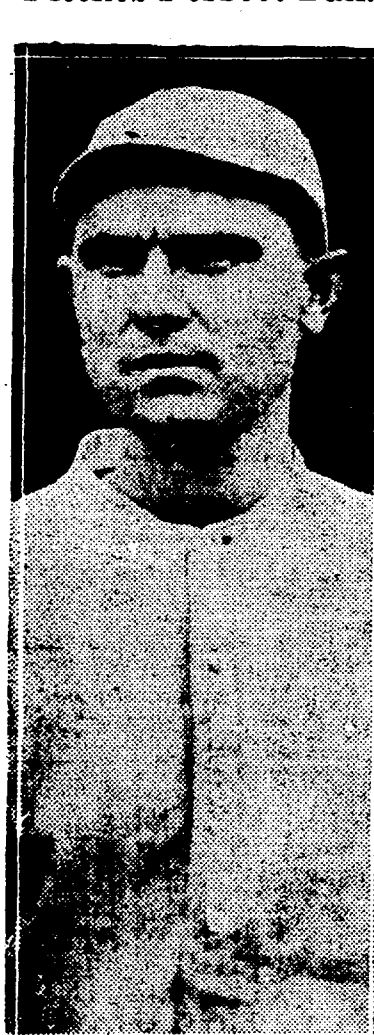

Through ignorance, parts of our bodies are always getting out of repair. Something goes wrong. It may be the stomach, the lungs or the kidneys.

Only one man in five can be accepted in normal times by the army and navy, because of physical deficiencies, most of which could be corrected by a little exercise.

Very often an ailment can be removed with the simplest kind of exercise. Take, for instance, a nervous headache. This can often be cured by a brisk walk.

A short, vigorous use of the legs will cause a stimulation of those parts, which means nothing more than a flushing of the

CHICAGO CLUB MEMBER OF SEMI-PRO CIRCUIT

The crack Chicago Keystones who will play the Lincoln Life club at League park Sunday, are members of the Inter-City Baseball association, one of the highest class semi-pro circuits in the mid-west. Incidentally it is one of the fastest and best uniformed outfits traveling out of Chicago, and interest among fans is running high over the game Sunday.

The lineup of the club is made up of such stars as McWeeney, up until a short time ago with the Dubuque Central association club, who will pitch; McGuire, catcher; Egan, Kenney, McNamara and Swanson. In order to win from such a club the insurance men will have to exert every bit of baseball knowledge and "inside stuff" to which they have access. Oestmeyer will pitch for the locals, with Devilbiss catching. The game will start at 3 o'clock, with Boyce umpiring.

GERMAN DESERTERS FLOCKING TO HOLLAND

Stream of Refugees Getting to Be a Serious Embarrassment.

The Hague, Netherlands, June 29.—Thousands of deserters, mostly from the German army, now are swelling the stream of refugees pouring into Holland from adjoining countries. Holland has become a great place of refuge for fugitives fleeing from the horrors of the German front, food hardships or the German military regime.

So numerous have these war refugees become that a weekly periodical, called "The Combat," has been established at Amsterdam to carry on a revolutionary socialist propaganda among them. A society of deserters has been formed in Holland, apparently by German agents in order to discover the names of deserters and exert pressure on their families to induce them to return to Germany. Returning deserters no longer are shot, but are sent to the front.

The country is overrun by a small army of spies, persons of both sexes whose work is to spy into Dutch affairs, to spy upon the belligerents and sometimes to spy upon one another.

These refugees, deserters and government agents, added to escaping prisoners of war of virtually every entente nationality, fugitive Poles and other peoples of eastern Europe, fleeing from forced labor and other evils have swelled the immigration flood until the problem of what disposition to make of these foreigners has become acute in Holland.

There are many decent men among the deserters who, made desperate by the sufferings and slaughter at the front, or rebelling against their government's system, or policy, have shaken the dust of their fatherland from their feet. Quite a number are convalescent men who were ordered back to the front. A great number are undesirable to whom many crimes are attributed. Some become smugglers, but wholesale banishment from the frontier regions now virtually has closed this profession to them. Police control of them is very inadequate.

Proud of its traditional hospitality, Holland opened its frontiers freely to all comers but public opinion and the government has discovered that there are formidable dangers inherent in this aggregation of immigrants.

What might not happen, Hollanders often ask themselves. If Holland suddenly became involved in the war, with all these vast numbers of foreigners spread all over the country, many of them of the worst or at least of the most doubtful character?

Infectious disease repeatedly has been introduced. The great exodus of Belgians brought typhus and dysentery; Austro-Hungarian emigrants from Galicia on their way to join relatives in America, and suspected smugglers from that province, brought smallpox; escaped prisoners of war from infected German camps and others occasionally introduced diseases like spotted fever and meningitis. In each case the disease was quickly checked.

Now, however, smallpox has a real hold in parts of Germany as well as in countries farther east, and it is pointed out how easily this and other scourges may be brought across the frontier.

The prime minister, Cort van der Linden, announced a few days ago that the increased influx, and the bodily condition of persons entering the country, had necessitated more drastic sanitary measures. Barracks are to be erected at five different points of the frontier, where all Germans entering the country, of whom the great majority are deserters, will be disinfected, while a camp is to be erected for the accommodation of dangerous or undesirable elements among deserters. As regards the national danger, the minister for war, Major General N. Bosboom, endeavored to reassure public opinion in parliament a few days ago by declaring that if Holland became involved in the war it would be made evident that the government was far more conversant with the position as regards foreigners, and had taken far more adequate precautionary measures, than most people thought.

GERMAN U-BOATS ARE FIXED TO CUT NETTING

Base of the American Flotilla in British Waters, June 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—The captain of a torpedoed merchantman has turned over to the naval authorities here a sketch of a new type of German submarine equipped with a wire-cutting device designed to release it from nets. The sketch shows several strands of stout steel hawsers stretched from the bow through the coning tower to the stern. Attached to this is a series of heavy circular knives, a foot in diameter and placed about a yard apart. The captain made the drawing while in a small boat after his ship had been torpedoed. He had been torpedoed on two other ships but on neither of those occasions had he noticed anything new in the type of the German diving boats. While he was not close enough to the last submarine to examine minutely the addition to its upper works he was able to see plainly enough to make a good sketch.

The theory of the captain is that a boat so equipped would have hope of being able to cut its way through any steel nets in which it might become enmeshed.

FOREST FIRES IN JAPAN.

Hakodate, Japan, June 29.—A disastrous forest fire which swept northern Hokkaido recently cost the lives of at least twenty-three persons and utterly wiped out several hamlets. So rapid was the onrush of the flames that many inhabitants were either burned to death or forced to jump into the streams where some were drowned or suffocated. Lack of rain is causing numerous fires throughout the empire.

The Soldiers' Aid society of Columbus, Ga., promoted the plan for Memorial day. The attention of General John A. Logan was called to the movement and as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic he endorsed it.

BURGLAR KEPT GENERAL PERSHING FROM SCHOOL

"Black Jack's" Brother Jim, Chicago Salesman, Tells About Incident.

Staff Special.

Chicago, Ill., July 6.—General Pershing owes his position to a burglar!

James J. Pershing, "Jack's" brother, "Jim," says the man who broke into his mother's store in the little town of Laclede, Mo., in the summer of 1882, started the military career of America's most popular major general. Otherwise John Pershing would have been a school teacher.

JAMES PERSHING

Jim is clothing salesman for Milton Ochs & Co., of Cincinnati, and lives here in Chicago.

"We ate, slept, fought and grew up together," says Jim. "Boys were few and things were quiet in our little home town, so Johnny and Jimmie Pershing played their way to manhood together as brothers seldom do."

"When he was 19, John attended the Normal school at Kirksville, Mo., and had decided on a career as school teacher to the delight of his mother. I left Laclede for a railroad job out west and had been gone a week when father turned the little country store that supported the family over to mother and left for St. Louis on a business trip."

"The night he left, a burglar broke into the store and dynamited the safe, nearly frightening mother to death. She telegraphed John to hurry back."

"He was home again but a day, when he happened to pick up a local newspaper and read that there would be a competitive examination at Trenton, Mo., for entrance to West Point. Immediately he made up his mind to take the examination, and stuck to his determination in spite of the pleadings of mother."

"It was a happy day when the postman brought him a big, important-looking letter from the government, announcing he had passed the test and was eligible for Uncle Sam's military academy."

There has been considerable talk of Jim's joining his famous brother, in France.

"It's really too early to say anything about my going to France," he answered.

"There is one thing I am glad to talk about, though. It has been said this war might make a president, and that man may be my brother John."

"Let me say John is in France to give his all to the cause of the stars and stripes. He cares for nothing greater than the opportunity to do his best for his country as head of the French expedition. He is ambitious only as a soldier."

MUST ATTAIN AIMS BEFORE MAKING PEACE

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE SPEAKS OF ENDING WAR

Will Be Mankind's Greatest Disaster if Peace Is Made a Moment Before the Time Is Ripe.

EASIER WITHOUT THE HOHENZOLLERNS

Glasgow, June 29.—Premier Lloyd George speaking at Glasgow, today on the question of peace, said that in his judgment the war would come to an end when the entire armies had reached the aims which they had set out to attain when they accepted Germany's challenge.

If the war ended a single minute before, he said, it would be the greatest disaster in the history of mankind.

The premier said textually: "In my judgment the war will come to an end when the allies' armies have reached the aims which they set out to attain when they accepted the challenge thrown down by Germany."

"As soon as these objectives have been reached and guaranteed the war will come to an end, but if the war comes to an end a single minute before it would be the greatest disaster that has ever befallen mankind."

"No doubt we can have peace now at a price. Germany wants peace— even Prussia ardently desires it. They should give us some indemnity for the wrongs we have been done; just a little here and there and just a few privi-

NORWAY SMARTING OVER GERMAN PLOT

Parliament Hears Account of Program of Germans to Destroy Ships.

London, June 29.—An account of the German plot to blow up Norwegian steamships was given in the Storting yesterday by Foreign Minister Ihlen, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen. M. Ehlin declared the bombs were sent to Norway by the German foreign office by means of a messenger dispatched to the German legation in Christiania.

The Norwegian legation in Berlin had been ordered to inform the German government what had happened and to make a sharp protest against this violation of Norwegian territory. Norway, the foreign minister said, was now awaiting Germany's reply.

After the examination of the messenger had been concluded he was handed over to Germany on condition that action be taken against him there and that he should not be used again as a messenger to Norway.

Washington, June 29.—Rapid progress is being made in the construction of the hundreds of submarine chasers recently ordered by the navy department.

ROOT VISITS NEAR FRONT

American Envoy to Russia is a Guest at Staff Headquarters.

IMPERIAL TRAIN AT HIS DISPOSAL

Gen. Brussiloff Pledges Russia's Whole Power to Win the War.

Petrograd, June 29.—Elthu Root, head of the American commission and Foreign Minister Tseretzkis returned to Petrograd yesterday after a brief visit to staff headquarters where they were welcomed by General Brussiloff in the name of the Russian army, which, declared the commander-in-chief, would continue with all the powers at its disposal not only to fight for its own cause—that of fortifying liberty, recently acquired—but at the same time, hand in hand with America, to fight for the right of all nations to shape their destinies in accordance with their own desires.

There was little in the small country town of Mohilev to correspond with a conventional view of a general staff headquarters.

Old Atmosphere Gone. The atmosphere of formality, secrecy and dignity which distinguished it when it was the home of former Emperor Nicholas had departed since the revolution. There is nothing left to arrest the attention of the observer except the emperor's old residence which is now used by General Brussiloff and the military hotel where members of the staff are quartered. Otherwise it is a peaceful village nestled on the bank of the Dniester, two hundred miles from the firing line. Only small groups of soldiers were present to watch the imperial train carrying the commission into the station. Despite the fact that the train which was such a common sight in imperial days had not been seen in Mohilev since the abdication of the emperor, it evoked little curiosity. A few soldiers, thinking they might find accommodations therein, crowded on board, but when they were told that it was being used by the American mission they immediately dispersed.

Will Go to Rumania. Wednesday noon the mission lunched with General Brussiloff and soon thereafter Major General Scott and aides, military members of the commission, escorted by Russian general staff officers, departed for Kiev.

After a short tour of the southwestern front Major General Scott will go to Rumania.

ALSATIANS TO GEN. PERSHING

Men of Land from Which American's Ancestry Came See Him.

CALL TOUCHES THE WARRIOR CHIEFTAIN

Has a Warm Place in His Heart for the Land of His Fathers.

Paris, June 29.—Maj. Gen. Pershing yesterday received a delegation from the Alsace Lorraine republican committee. Referring to the American commander's Alsatian ancestry the vice president, M. Staehling, told the general how proud they were that a descendant of their little country had come to fight for the triumph of their inalienable rights and the restoration to France of the lost provinces.

General Pershing was visibly moved. He said he was most happy to greet representatives of the valiant people who had suffered so deeply because of fidelity to their country, and that he had a warm place in his heart for Alsace, the land of his fathers.

A SURRENDER OF JEWELRY ASKED

Efforts of Bank Have Been Sharp to Prevent Complete Pause.

Copenhagen, June 29.—For the first time during the war the weekly report of the Imperial Bank of Germany shows a decrease in its gold reserve, which this week is 76,000,000 marks below the preceding week.

Increments for a long time have been steadily declining despite energetic propaganda appeals to surrender jewelry.

A BAS THE EGG SHAMPOO; IT IS NOT PATRIOTIC

Chicago, Ill., June 29.—Barbers should stop giving egg shampoos to customers, in order to assist in conserving the food supply of the country, James D. Kimmerer, of South Bend, believes and in support of the idea he has collected statistics which he yesterday forwarded to Herbert C. Hoover, food administrator at Washington.

Kimmerer says there are about 300,000 barbers in the United States and that they average two egg shampoos a week with two eggs for each shampoo. This, he points out, means the use of 200,000 eggs a day or 1,200,000 a week.

DUTCH ARMORED CRUISER COMES TO CONVOY SHIP

An Atlantic Port, June 29.—A Dutch armored cruiser, the first warship flying the flag of Holland to come into this port for more than ten years, arrived here today. The warship will remain for several days. Officers of the ship declined to disclose the mission of the vessel, but it was reported that she is to act as a convoy for a number of Holland passenger and freight vessels now about ready to leave American ports.

BIG GAIN IN ARRAS SECTOR

British Achieve Objective in New Drive on the German Lines.

FALL OF LENS IS BROUGHT NEARER

French Stop Furious German Attack on the Verdun Front.

London, June 29.—British troops last night in an offensive gained their whole objective, says a telegram from British headquarters in France. The British captured German forward positions on a 2,000 yard front south and west of Oppy in the Arras sector.

The official statement says the British captured prisoners and machine guns. They also continue to gain ground south of the Souchez river and have entered the town of Arion, about two miles south of Lens.

The statement follows: "Early last night we attacked and captured the enemy's forward position on a front of about 2,000 yards south and west of Oppy. The whole of our objective was gained and a number of prisoners and machine guns were taken by us."

"Our troops continue to gain ground on a wide front south of the Souchez river and have entered Arion."

RETULSE GERMAN AT VERDUN.

Paris, June 29.—Picked German troops made a heavy attack last night on the Verun front near hill 804, and Avocourt wood, after especially severe shelling. Today's official statement says the attack was disorganized by the sharp reply of the French artillery and that the Germans obtained a footing at only a few points in the first line.

This morning the Germans made

SEEK WAR BASIS FOR FOODSTUFF IN METROPOLIS

New York, July 29.—Through an organization of between 4,000 and 5,000 women known as the food aid committee, Mayor Mitchell and other city officials today began a campaign of education in an effort to place New York city's food supply on a war basis.

A drastic resolution, looking to the control of the city's food markets, has been prepared by George W. Perkins, chairman of the mayor's food supply committee, for presentation to the board of estimate at its meeting today. It is the purpose of the committee to ask authority to deal with food supply.

The committee began the distribution of a pamphlet addressed to housewives covering the entire subject of food conservation.

"Carry your own," is the slogan adopted by the committee which hopes to reduce materially the economy expenditures resulting from the modern delivery system.

ARGENTINE NOT FUSSED BY THE ALLIES' FRIENDS

Buenos Aires, June 29.—The senate met yesterday in secret session to hear explanations by Senor Pueyrredon, minister of foreign affairs, in response to an interpellation on the subject of international questions. Among other things Minister Pueyrredon was asked to define the attitude of the government in the case of numerous Spaniards favorable to the allied cause, who have organized what they term the "anti-Germanophile League." The senate declared it was well satisfied with all the explanations given.

WILSON SEEKS TO AVOID EXTREME IN WAR PROHIBITION

Would Have Food Bill Stop Manufacture of Whisky and Gin, But Would Not Prohibit Beer and Light Wines.

WANTS A LAW THE PEOPLE WILL APPROVE

Washington, D. C., June 29.—President Wilson stepped into the prohibition fight over the food bill today partly to save the measure from a row between the contending factions and partly to get a law, he believed the country will approve.

The president told senate leaders he agreed with the proposal to stop manufacture of food stuffs into whisky and gin but did not believe the brewing of beer and manufacture of light wines should be stopped now.

A provision to prohibit distilling and to empower the president to stop brewing and wine making when he considers it necessary, he told senate leaders today, he believed would satisfy prohibitionists and also the country.

An amendment to that effect will be introduced later, with prospects of adoption.

Senator Sheppard, a leading prohibitionist, and who prompted the committee's proposal to stop manufacture of both distilled spirits and beer, said that if the president desired to have authority to govern brewing and wine making, he favored it and believed congress would agree.

A Determined Effort. A determined effort to modify the food bill now before the senate so that it will be free from any prohibition provisions or at least so to grant the president authority to permit the use of foodstuffs in the manufacture of beer and light wines, was begun today by the administration when President Wilson conferred on the question with Senator Martin, the majority leader, and Senator Gerry, of Rhode Island.

President Wilson, according to Senator Sheppard, of California, with whom he also conferred regarding prohibition legislation, desires that he have authority to stop the manufacture of malt and vinous liquors in case of emergency, but does not believe immediate prohibition of their manufacture is necessary or desirable.

Other conferences probably will follow quickly. The president was understood to feel that the insistence of some senators on home dry legislation endangered the early passage of the food bill, which he is anxious to see become law as soon as possible.

Food Discontent. Administration leaders were said also to feel that such legislation would be a disturbing factor in the economic life of the country and might lead to serious discontent among the workers whose whole-hearted support is necessary to win this war. The president realizes that since prohibition has been made an issue in congress it is almost impossible to hope for the elimination of some sort of prohibitory provision from the food bill.

Although officials do not pretend to speak for him, it was understood that the president would be willing to accept

Ancient American Folly to Be Attacked in a Big Campaign.

Washington, June 29.—The popular American prejudice against "toting" bundles in public is to be attacked by the commercial economy board of the council of national defense in a nation-wide campaign through motion pictures and the press. A heavy drain on the country's economic resources is caused yearly, says the committee, by the persons who insist that his tooth brush or cake of toilet soap be rushed to his home in a truck manned by two men whose services otherwise might be utilized in a military capacity by the government.

AMERICAN HOG SWEET THING

His Porkship's Praises Sung in Touching Lay by Government.

CAMPAIGN TO MAKE HIS TRIBE INCREASE

Easiest, Best, Most Toothsome and Profitable of Domestic Animals.

Washington, June 29.—The praises of the hog as a meat producing animal are sung by the department of agriculture in an appeal today to farmers to raise hogs, more hogs and still more hogs as the quickest and surest way of increasing the nation's meat supply.

"The hog is the most important animal to raise for meat and money," the statement says. "He requires less labor, less equipment, less capital, makes greater gains per hundred pounds and reproduces himself faster and in greater numbers than any other domestic animal. As a consumer of by-products the hog has no rival. No other animal equals the lard hog in its fat-storing tendency. There is no animal which produces more meat and more profit than the hog."

"Very near 50 per cent. of the value in dollars and cents in the meat and meat products slaughtered in the

Summary of the Day's War News

(By Associated Press.) The entente powers must fight on until they have reached the end they set out to attain when they accepted Germany's challenge to civilization, declared David Lloyd George, the British premier, in a speech at Glasgow. To permit the war to come to an end and a single hour sooner would be "the greatest disaster that ever befell mankind," he added. These utterances possess notable significance when there has been suggestions that the allied powers fighting Germany might agree to some revision of their previously agreed war terms and at a time when hints have been coming out of Germany that next week's session of the German reichstag might witness some new statement on the subject of peace by Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg. Possible point to the suggested German peace movement is given by reports of mysterious political happenings within the German empire. The impression has been given that the expected developments would be of a dramatic nature and the press was said to have been muzzled completely so far as discussion of political topics is concerned.

"No doubt Germany wants peace," declared the British premier in his speech, "but it is a peace which would give her economic and other control

LESSON FOR JULY 1

ISAIAH'S CALL TO HEROIC SERVICE.

LESSON TEXT—Isaiah 6.
GOLDEN TEXT—Also I heard the voice of the Lord saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.—Isa. 6:8.

The lesson committee now turn for a third quarter's lesson to a series of studies in the Old Testament as found in II Kings, Ezra and Nehemiah. As an introduction, they have chosen this chapter in the book of Isaiah.

Isaiah prophesied in the latter half of Uzziah's reign, B. C. 760 and down to the early years of the reign of Manasseh about B. C. 694 (ch. 1:1). This event took place probably B. C. 755. The place was Jerusalem; the kingdom of Israel was still in existence (for 33 years longer) being utterly destroyed in B. C. 721. The name Isaiah means "the salvation of Jehovah;" his wife is called "the prophetess;" two of his sons are named and his social position was high, as shown by his intimacy with kings. Isaiah lived in troublous times. He was a reformer seeking to rescue his nation from the sins growing out of their disobedience to God. He was the leading statesman of his time, the greatest of the prophets, an author, a heroic, single-minded, patriotic, fearless, undaunted man of great personal power and influence. He was a prophet of hope; he wrote out of his long life of faithfulness and fellowship with God. The book of Isaiah falls into two great divisions; chapters 1-39 being chiefly historical, interspersed with songs and poems; chapters 40-66 are a collection of prophecies that have to do chiefly with the return from the Babylonian exile and the days of future glory for the kingdom of God.

I. Visions (vv. 1-4). As we have said, Isaiah prophesied in a time of great need. The prophet was very much discouraged. In this passage he locates his vision at a special time and place (ch. 1:1). Every man's great need today is a real vision of God. We are not so much in need of theories about God, as a vision of God himself. Uzziah's long reign of 52 years, in which the kingdom prospered and the king's name was spread abroad, stopped suddenly as an earthquake, and his glory was eclipsed (see II Chron. 26:16-18). The place in which Isaiah saw his vision was the house of God. Perhaps not in the temple, but seeing the vision from the temple the prophet looks to a house not built with hands, Jehovah's own heavenly palace. Therein he saw "the Lord sitting on a throne . . . and his train filled the temple." Above it, or around it, were arranged hovering courtiers and the seraphic choir. The majesty of this vision is indicated in verse two, its glory in verse three, and its power is indicated in verse four. The whole earth was filled with God's wondrous wisdom, love and power. Literally "the whole earth is full of his glory." The Hebrew word for holiness comes from a word meaning "to set apart—set a distance from." The holy Lord is not only sinless but he is sublime and absolute also. It may seem difficult to harmonize Isaiah's vision with John 1:18, yet these manifestations were one and the same, for all that saw Jesus saw God (John 14:9). King Uzziah was dead but the real king was living still, high and lifted up. The attempt to reason about him, what he must be and what he must not be, as if he were one of ourselves (Eph. 1:20, 21) is absurd.

II. Divisions (vv. 5-13). (1) The vision of the prophet (vv. 5-7). This vision brought conviction because it showed how far separated from God the prophet was. It also brought conversion in that he acknowledged himself to be unclean, himself and his surroundings to be vile. It also led to cleansing, for the king heard the voice of the prophet, removed his guilt and purged his sin. (2) The voice and proclamation from the king (vv. 8-13). The king called for a messenger (v. 8) and at once the prophet is found. Someone has said that "a task without a vision is a dream; while a task linked to a vision will move the world." Not only did the king ask for a messenger, but he gave the message which the messenger was to utter (vv. 9-12). The message was to be to his own people; it was not to be a pleasant one. Verse 13 shows us this message in prophecy. Isaiah ought to fully proclaim the truth, but the people would not understand it, and the whole effect of his proclamation would be to harden them.

The Application.
What is your application of this vision for Isaiah? We are a Christian nation, but there are many degrees and kinds of Christians; those who sincerely try to follow Jesus; those who live under a Christian government, and are unaffected by Christian influences. There is only one way to save this nation from going the way of Nineveh and Tyre; that is, that justice and righteousness shall govern, and that justice and righteousness shall be the fruit of regenerated lives. The cry is for a better social environment and a more just social position.

The Test of Time.
Say what you will, time tries all things, only the best survive. Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy has been in use for more than forty years. Many millions of bottles have been sold and used during this time. It has stood the test of time because it can always be depended upon.—Advertisement.

SOME RIGHT PRICE-FIXING.

The coal operators of the country have furnished about the first instance of benevolent combination to establish prices that has been presented to the people. There had appeared to be among the coal operators a considerable fear of mixed with an unwanted respect for the Sherman anti-trust law and it required rather categorical assurances from sources of authority that they would not be prejudiced to their harm in federal eyes before they were brought to consider an agreement for the reduction of prices. Just why the operators should apprehend an insurance of greater risk with the law by agreeing to reduce prices than they ever have feared from agreement to advance prices would be an interesting matter to go into, but may now very well be set aside for an appreciative consideration of the good thing they really have done.

Bituminous coal is to come down. There will be a reduction of from $1 to $5 a ton, according to circumstances and conditions ruling in certain cases, and the government is to fare even better. Details remain to be worked out and still greater advantages to the public may yet issue from the associated effort of the mine operators. That is the indicated purpose and partly the promise. Prices are to be fixed upon such levels as shall insure to the operators a fair degree of profit and income to consumers a steadfast supply at reasonable rates. The cost of mining and delivering coal for shipment will be the principle that rules in determining prices. With this no one can have any quarrel. There has been great public distress throughout the country not only in the matter of meeting prices, but in respect of getting coal at all, and whatever arrangements may be established for hostage that extortions are to cease and that supplies are to be steadfast and ample will constitute almost an altruistic status of the coal business.

It is further of interest to know that soon similar undertakings will proceed with the anthracite operators and the expectation is that consumers of hard coal will gain in some proportion as has just been vouchsafed users of soft coal. The anthracite situation has been an inextricable puzzle for many months—and more than a puzzle this spring, for consumers have not been able to get any light on either prices, deliveries or anything else relating to hard coal. Prices have shown wide discrepancies as comparing one section of the country with another and shipments have disclosed similar vagaries. New York city, with but a short haul from the mines, has paid much more for hard coal than the prices that have ruled in this city. Some dealers have appeared to be able to keep their wants supplied, while others have not. If the forthcoming conference of anthracite operators shall result in stabilizing prices and making supply a surety there will be a great rejoicing.

If the coal interests carry out what they have planned the public will be quite disposed to let bygones be bygones. If they are recreant in any degree flagrant and general to their promises, there will be much outcry and the demand for remedies that will be effectual. The government cannot leave itself unfenced in time of war to the perils of a situation such as has existed. It cannot leave the people, upon whom it has enjoined all necessary sacrifice to the national defense, under rapacious compulsions to undergo sacrifices that are wholly needless and in their consequences harmful to the national defense. Secretary of the Interior Lane has made a strong and, as it appears, effectual appeal to the soft coal interests of the country and the result guarantees fuel to industry, the saving of hundreds of millions to the whole body of consumers and security to the government in a matter that is paramount.

It will be the complement of this good work to take similar hostage for the efficient transportation of coal. The government should be able to make the same satisfactory headway with the railroads that it has made with the mine operators. That will fully settle the fuel problem and permit the whole country to turn its attention and apply its energies to the winning of the war.

A PUZZLING RESULT.

There is no ready explanation for the failure of the call for volunteers to elicit a prompt response. Last week the president issued a proclamation asking for the enlistment of seventy thousand volunteers to bring the regular army to full war strength. It was expected that by a hearty drive over the country the levies would be completed this week. About one-third of the men wanted have been enlisted.

What makes this situation the more puzzling is that next week or soon thereafter the work of applying the selective draft to the ten millions of young men lately registered will be inaugurated. While it is purely a fanciful distinction, a great many men have the notion that there is something ignominious in the draft. That view was preached with some intensiveness of oratory while the conscription bill was pending in congress. Allowing that such an opinion has considerable sway over the country, it is strange that just upon the eve of the draft men holding to that view do not hasten to volunteer for the regulars.

Volunteers will gain some advantages. One of them is that they will be made soldiers fit and ready for service much more quickly than the men who go to the big cantonments for their military training. Another is that they will also much more quickly see actual service, which is the chief impatience of every trained soldier. The regulars already are in France. In a short time they will be on the battle fronts and into the fighting. The other regular regiments will be sent abroad as soon as they can be. Volunteers who get into them now will go along with them to France. The conscript army will hardly get out of the country before next spring. The regulars and next the guards will do America's honors on the firing line during the fall and winter.

The war department will not be handicapped by a lack of volunteers. The conscription law makes certain all the men that may be needed to fill the regular regiments. But that conscription should so early be proved an inescapable necessity is hard to understand—and the more so, since the opportunities for all the highest attractions of service are offered to volunteers who get in now. The volunteer system has always heretofore broken down, but this giving way at a stage so early in the war is surprising, unless it be that the fighting men of the nation conceive that, the system having been displaced as the chief reliance, it will be just as well to have no dependence upon it at all.

Nevertheless, the opportunity still stands wide and inviting to men who want to see early service. By volunteering now for the regulars they will get into France by autumn.

The government has contrived to make deep and gainful impressions on the bituminous coal men. It now is in order to call in some of the fellows who are cornering the eggs, the poultry, the butter and later on will be grabbing the potatoes, turnips and parsnips and hoarding the whole kit and bin of it for super-war prices next winter. Food control that is defined by law and administered by authority is the thing and it looks better now for the coming out of congress of statutes to that purpose and end; but if congress should fail or should—God fend 'em—talk itself to death, then the government will have to do the best it may with the law it has and the authority at hand. One thing is certain, there is no need to ask the people to work at their back-yard gardens to put more stuff in the hands of the price-fixers and corner-mongers.

Many things have been suggested, proposed and urged for the proper treatment and disposition of one Big Bill, chief magistrate of the city of Chicago, but up to the hour in which this is written it does not appear that anybody has thought of a lunacy commission as having appropriate authority for dealing with this sad case of diluted Americanism. It may be that not even that is just what is needed, but it might lead to various diagnoses that would bring out what's the matter, its causes and mayhaps its cure. Whatever it is that's ailing Big Bill is a chawin' up what's most vital to any man.

Next week the draft machinery may be set in motion and the opening for volunteers will be just as wide, but hardly as attractive as it is this week. Moreover, some of those drafted are likely to be sent over the same road to the regulars that will be pursued by those who go in now because they want to.

If the kaiser's grandsire "Old Fritz" is paying any attention whatever to what is said and done in these rollicking times, he may have some views of his own as to the courses and conduct of one William II. The Great Frederick could see some distance ahead.

South Bend still has her Red Cross campaign open in an endeavor to raise the amount apportioned to that city. The discredit will not be in the time it may take to do it, but in failure to do it at all. South Bend is going to save herself in the record.

A NEW CONSTITUTION

By John A. Lapp, Bureau of Legislative Information

The Income Tax, Recognizing the Principle of Ability to Pay, Grows Rapidly in Favor

Whatever theory of taxation we adopt, whether it be the benefit theory or the ability to pay theory we must have a means to measure the benefits or the ability to pay. It will not do to have a haphazard measure. Kings used to extort money on the ability to pay theory but the application was individual. When they found a man who had the money or the goods they trumped up a reason for taking it. We cannot do that in a democracy for democracy is based upon equality and this means both equality of right and equality of burden.

For a long time the amount of property which a man possessed was the measure of his ability to pay. That is the theory underlying the general property tax. Today, however, we are coming to recognize that income is the true measure of ability to pay and the income tax is rapidly replacing all other forms of taxation as the most just and equitable.

The idea of an income tax is an old one but for a great many years it was believed that it would not work however equitable it might seem to be. Sixteen states had tried it prior to 1911 and all had failed signally because of a poor system of administration.

Since 1911 the states of Wisconsin, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Oklahoma and the United States government have established an income tax and their success makes certain that other states will soon resort to this form of taxation. A legislative commission in New York has recently advocated it for that state.

The Wisconsin act being the first to point the way needs special consideration. The tax is low on small incomes and increases on the larger incomes. It is reasonable on all incomes and people have no occasion to evade it. The tax is levied upon the incomes of persons and corporations and all intangible property, farm machinery and household goods are exempted from the general property tax. By a system of reports by business concerns of money paid for salaries, dividends, etc., the individuals are checked up in their personal report of income and thus evasion is prevented.

The success of the Wisconsin tax depends upon the very efficient administration which has been built up under the state tax commission. Income tax depends upon a strong and efficient central administration for its success. The sixteen states which failed with their income tax failed because they depended upon the old antiquated system of local assessment. No system of taxation can succeed under local administration.

The income tax as a basis for measuring ability to pay is suited to modern conditions. The large personal incomes received as salaries by thousands of our people are subject to the tax whereas under the property tax such incomes escaped. A man may have an income of $25,000 a year and use the money in extravagant living without contributing a penny to the public treasury. His ability to pay and his obligation to pay is considerable and yet he escapes. Under the income tax he would pay his share.

But the question arises. Should all incomes be taxed? Should a man receiving $500 a year be taxed? The answer is "no" because to tax him on an income of that size would be to tax his very existence—his bare living. Where, then, shall the limit be placed? As a general proposition it may be stated that an amount sufficient to pay the living expenses of the man and those dependent upon him should be exempt. The necessities of life come first. The single man with no dependents might well be taxed on his income over $1,000. The first thousand dollars spent on his living. His ability to pay taxes begins at that point. The married man with a family must, of course, have a larger exemption and the amount of the exemption is dependent upon the size of the family. An exemption of from $1,800 to $2,500 is, in most cases, reasonable.

Another question which arises is: Shall all incomes subject to taxation be taxed at the same rate? If an income is the measure of ability to pay, then the larger incomes are able to pay a larger tax. We have already seen that a portion of the income must be exempt because a man has no tax paying ability until he has paid for his living and the living of his dependents. Each thousand dollars added to his income gives him a larger and larger surplus with which to secure the comforts and luxuries of life and with each additional thousand dollars he is better able to pay an increased tax.

The income tax ought therefore to be progressive beginning at a small rate of perhaps 1 per cent on the small incomes and increasing by 1 per cent on each additional $5,000 of income until on the very large incomes the rates will be high. Such is the practice in the states and also under the United States income tax. All foreign countries levy an income tax and the rate progresses to a point where on large incomes it becomes confiscatory.

The income tax does not take the place of all other taxes. The property tax is still retained by the states having the income tax but the tax on intangible property is abolished.

In the long run we shall probably see the property tax abandoned entirely by the states and the state revenue derived from the income tax. The cities and counties will then tax property as they see fit for their own purposes. This separation of sources of revenue for the state and local governments is a desirable thing and should be encouraged. Sometimes the whole country will have to consider the question of dividing the whole field of taxation, leaving certain sources to the nation, certain sources to the states and others to local governments.

Questions for Investigation.

1. Which is better, the income tax or the classified property tax?
2. Why should taxes be progressive?
3. What income should be exempt from the income tax?
4. What is the danger of both the state and federal governments taxing incomes?
5. Why is the separation of sources of revenue so that each government gets its taxes from a certain source desirable?

WITHOUT EMBARGO ON EXPORTS OUR TRADE HELPS OUR ENEMIES

BY HARRY B. HUNT.

Why is an embargo necessary? Why cannot the United States government adopt a "business as usual" policy with regard to her foreign trade? Why can we not, even though at war, keep our markets open to the world and reap some of the high prices for our products the world is now willing to pay? These questions are being raised against the laying of an embargo by the president on all shipments of food, fuel, steel and similar necessities.

The answer is simple. Because all the food we can grow, all the fuel we can mine, all the steel we can produce are needed today in the one vital business of making war on Germany. None of these may be permitted to go to any nation not at war with Germany without directly weakening our fighting strength.

Every pound of food we can grow or save will be needed to supply our own people and those of our allies—and even then the ration will be short. The demands of munition and other factories engaged in direct war work, of our navy and merchant ships engaged in war service, will strain our facilities for food production to the utmost. And the need of steel for munitions, guns, ships, railroad equipment necessary for war purposes both here and in France will work our steel plants day and night.

Business done with neutral nations in these essential war products then, conflicts directly with our prime business of making war, and every dollar of profit that could be made by individuals through such transactions would, in reality, be paid by this nation in the cost of prolonged war.

There is another reason, however, as imperative as this, for an embargo on shipments to neutral nations of Europe adjacent to Germany. Shipments to them may not merely weaken our strength against Germany. They may actually strengthen Germany against us. We know imports into Norway, Sweden, Denmark and the Netherlands have doubled and quadrupled since the outbreak of the war. We know that these countries have sold heavily of their own products—and probably also of their imports—to Germany. And without an embargo by which we can regulate or prevent shipments to these nations, we may, by attempting to keep foreign "business as usual," actually be feeding and supplying the Kaiser's armies.

Take, for instance, imports of wheat into the neutral countries of Europe before and since the outbreak of the war.

Holland, in 1911, imported 4,035,000 bushels of wheat from the United States. In 1912 she imported from us 5,661,000 bushels.

In 1914—the first year of the war—her imports of this one grain jumped to 24,452,000. In 1915 it climbed to 33,863,000 bushels and in 1916 it was 32,102,000 bushels.

Norway, which in 1911 imported from us 794,000 bushels of wheat, and in 1912 only 829,000, in 1915 imported 7,058,000 and, in 1916, 6,128,000 bushels.

Sweden, with imports of 117,000 bushels in 1911 and 77,000 bushels in 1912, last year bought from us 5,233,000 bushels, and in 1915, 4,633,000.

As against total imports of wheat from the United States of 7,191,000 bushels in 1911, and 9,957,000 in 1912, the six neutral countries of Holland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Spain and Switzerland imported from us in 1915 a total of 64,135,000 bushels of wheat and 43,880,000 bushels in 1916.

Certainly a strange increase, if considered from the point of their own requirements. And similar increases are shown in imports of corn, oats, barley, rye and other foodstuffs.

Under an embargo, the president will be able to determine just what the requirements of neutrals are, for themselves, and if there is any surplus that can be spared for their relief, to apportion it to them on a basis that will effectively prevent any of it reaching Germany.

NEW YORK LOOKS TO MEALS BOTTLED HOT TO CUT LIVING COST

BY F. M. KERBY.

Family meals, piping hot, delivered at your door by motor delivery in thermos-bottle containers from central kitchens, at a price that will make old High Cost of Living look sick, will be available to the housewives of New York some time this summer or early fall.

The servant and high food cost problems are to be solved by this method, worked out by the "Cooked Food Delivery Committee," headed by Miss Jessie Bancroft, assistant director of physical training in the New York public schools.

Serving on this committee are representatives of the department of health, and the life extension institute, scientists and food specialists.

"Food can be cooked for and distributed to 1,000 persons at the cost of maintaining 20 modest home kitchens," said Miss Bancroft to me. "Allowing four members to a family, or 250 kitchens, this means that the cost of running 200 kitchens has been saved. The plan is in successful operation in London."

"The mechanical part of the problem is worked out," said Miss Bancroft. "The container has been standardized; roughly it is about the size of an ordinary milk can, lined with asbestos, and containing a chamber into which fits a wire basket with the pans containing soup, meat, vegetables, and so on. Foods can be kept steaming hot, or ice cold, for a period of three or four hours.

"The plan is not an experiment; it was successfully worked out in 1905 in Mansfield, O., by Mrs. Grimes, on a small scale. Mrs. Grimes is now a member of our committee. Fifteen years ago a Bridgeport man constructed a container similar to the one we are to use.

"We shall plan to have a strictly home type of cooking. The utensils will be cleaned; the seasoning will be of the home type. We find we can get the best cooks for their relief, to apportion it to them on a basis that will effectively prevent any of it reaching Germany.

"A most compelling reason for the community kitchen is the health aspect. There will be a great amount of underfeeding from high prices, and even intelligent women with training find it difficult to so plan and standardize meals that the balanced ration is given children. We will have an expert dietitian and our menus will be approved—these general principles of the plan by some authoritative body.

"There are thousands of people who realize that they want to change their diet. A man in middle age no longer needs the kind of food he needed in younger years. But when the family meal is cooked at home, it must be in many respects the same meal for everyone. Under our plan, four members of a family can have four different dinners, if they like.

"By keeping to a distinctly home type of cooking, one can change his sauces, the seasoning or dressing. We can meet radical demands for particular kinds of food as we have in the schools, where Jewish children, for instance, have Kosher food. An Italian family can have its own kind of cooking. The scale of prices will vary. Meals can be served on the basis of the balanced ration which was worked out for the rookie policemen here in New York, at 25 cents a day; or a more expensive service can be obtained. In either case, the nutritive value of the food will be guaranteed.

"This is only the first step in organizing the work on a national scale. We will have to do that before the war is ended."

CHAIN LETTER GRAFT.

(Logansport Pharos-Reporter.)
Any person who is deceived by a "chain letter" of any kind needs his case tried by a lunacy commission.

The newspapers have warned the people against this cheapest kind of graft for years, and yet there are people who, with the vision of getting something for nothing, or who will allow their reason to be upset by some specious "relief" scheme or religious scheme or a scheme where "brother" so and so of our lodge needs help, the road of which is along the line of the villainous chain letter, continue to be grafted and cause the krafter to wax rich and the government to be compelled to use all its power to crush the insidious scheme.

Grafters are out now with chain letters for "Belgian relief" and other schemes. The writer is asked to write five letters to friends that are copies of the one received, enclose a coin in the original and send it to the person specified, thus making the individual responsible for the graft.

Whenever you or any person receives one of the grafting chain letters on whatever subject, it matters not what, write no letters at all, but take the original and turn it over to the postmaster who will know what to do with it. Any person who allows himself to be deceived by a "chain letter" brands himself a fool.

FROM THE SENTINEL PAGES 25 YEARS AGO

Dr. J. H. Adams and family have moved into their elegant new residence in Lakeside.

A handsome new front is being placed in Ed McCannley's place of business on Calhoun street.

Mayor Zollinger said to a Sentinel reporter this morning that the arrangements are about completed for the meeting to ratify the nomination of Cleveland and Stephen.

Late yesterday afternoon the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bawson, of 11 Wall street, fell into a cistern and before assistance could arrive he was drowned. The child had gone into the yard to play, and being alone, the accident was not discovered until too late. The boy's mother resides with her mother, Mrs. Eliza Conklin, at the above number. Her husband, who is at Garrett, was telegraphed the sad news last evening.

A number of young ladies met Monday evening at the residence of Miss Maud Graham on South Hanna street for the purpose of organizing a ladies' cycling club. Miss Maud Vreeland was elected president and Miss Maud Graham, secretary and treasurer. On the road they will wheel to the command of the following road officers: Captain, Miss Maud Vreeland; first lieutenant, and color bearer, Miss Bertha Gruber; second lieutenant, Miss Florence Fulton.

George F. Feltz, superintendent of the Allen county schools, will resign his office in September, after having served in that capacity for seven years. Mr. Feltz will take a course at Ann Arbor merican Troops Quartered in London Tower Gain the Beef Eaters.

IRE GUESTS OF YEOMEN

GUARDS OF HOARY STRONGHOLD KINDLY

mericans Are Well Fed and See No Sign of Starving of Britain.

London, June 15.—(By Mail.)—The women of the guard, or "beef eaters," they are more familiarly known, stand guard in their costumes of black and red, over the Tower of London, are still talking about their guests, the American soldiers who came over for a Major General Pershing. They are the first American troops ever quartered in the famous stronghold during the five days' stay in London's advance guard of the American army, and made friends in a place which Americans first think as a place where spies are shot.

Here in the walls of the place which has played such an important part in England's history, were gathered khaki-clad men from all parts of the United States, destined to be the at of the American army to participate in the European war. When these listed men returning tired and hungry after a hard days investigation of a beauties of Westminster and St. Paul's passed over the bridge of the de mout of the tower the members of the honorable artillery company stood at attention and saluted. Even a sergeant major congressed in drill, saw recruits in the dry moat underneath found time to call his "rookies" salute the Americans.

On one occasion when the Americans were tramping in singing the "Star Spangled Banner," every British soldier within hearing stood and saluted. One of the latter took up the strains "God Save the King" and the Americans saluted in turn. The American troops occupied two large rooms in the barracks under the shadow of the white tower which was the scene of so much suffering in the tragic days of England's early history when it was a pomy dungeon and later a state prison. Now the royal jewels are housed there.

The men slept on cots made of iron plates mattresses; they ate from tin tables in a huge mess hall.

"This don't look as if England is serving as the Germans are trying to take out," said an American sergeant, he put away a second helping of meat beef. The Americans were as well fed as the British troops who have earned the reputation in this war of being the best fed army that ever went to battle.

ry. The bank heretofore, however, has been able, though often by the slightest of margins, to avoid the humiliating acknowledgment that the growth paused entirely. This week's increase is attributed semi-officially to heavy purchases abroad.

The increase of gold reserve has long ceased to keep pace with the increase in note circulation. The bank several months ago was compelled to abandon the old legal basis of gold and silver covering for paper circulation and supplement metal covering by reckoning commercial paper to make up the prescribed one-third cover.

With the gold supply falling despite almost efforts, financial authorities have devoted their chief energies to a campaign to restrain an increase in note circulation by promoting the use of checks and bank transfers instead of cash.

DRAFT BOTHERS NEGRO WHO "JES" GROWED UP

Like Topsy, Colored Youth Has No Idea About His Age.

Topsy, the live wire character in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was not a mythical creation after all. The bounding black maiden was a type of which Journal Person, aged 7, is a living personification. Person, kinky-haired and broadhipped, has no idea how old he is. "I jes' grewed up," he told Judge Kerr, in police court, Friday morning, in all seriousness.

Person had signed his age when he went to work at the Pennsylvania freight house as eighteen years. His parents died "way down in Kentucky." He has a brother wandering some place over the earth who might know his age, Person said.

"I jes' guess that eighteen years was about right," said the colored youth. Person is to be held in jail over July 4, while investigation is made as to whether or not he is a slacker from draft. Nobody knows how the investigation will be conducted unless a search is made for the long lost brother. An effort will be made to find if Person is "fibbing," while he is in the county bastille.

another violent effort east of hill 304. It failed completely. The Germans were active on the Alsne front also. All their attacks were repulsed.

The statement follows:

"The enemy showed very great activity on the Alsne front during the night. Violent bombardments were followed by severe attacks in the regions of Cerny, southeast of Corbeny and northwest of Rheims. All his efforts were broken up by our fire or nullified by counter attacks and our positions were maintained.

"The fighting was particularly heavy in the region of Cerny, where the enemy made several attacks at two points on our front. Northeast of the village of Cerny enemy detachments succeeded in gaining a footing in our front line. They were driven out by an energetic counter attack by our troops, leaving numerous bodies on the ground. We took prisoners.

"On the left bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) the artillery fighting after noon yesterday became extremely intense in the region of Avocourt wood and hill 304. A violent bombardment with guns of large calibre was directed against our positions and was followed at 6:30 o'clock in the evening by a powerful attack delivered by special German assaulting troops on a front of two kilometers west of hill 304. Our effectively directed fire disorganized the attack which enabled the Germans to gain a footing at some points in our first line. A new attack at 3:45 o'clock this morning on our positions west of hill 304 was repulsed completely."

London, June 28.—The military correspondent of the Times gives a long detailed account of the present conditions of the British forces in Mesopotamia, showing a complete contrast with the revelations in the report on the Mesopotamian expedition made

A great change has occurred in India, which still is the base of the expedition although control has been transferred to the war office at London.

Bombay is the base depot and is most efficiently administered. Shipping and cargoes are well and quickly handled and hospital arrangements are very good. India, the correspondent says, is now doing more than she received credit for.

leges in other directions and we will clear out.

"We are told that if we are prepared to make peace now Germany will restore the independence of Belgium. But who has said so?

"No German statesman has ever said he would restore the independence of Belgium. The German chancellor came very near to it, but all the junkers fell on him and he received a sound box from the mailed fist."

"The only terms on which Germany has suggested restoring Belgium are not those of independence but of vassalage. Then came the doctrine of the status quo and no annexation and no indemnities. No German statesman has accepted even that.

"No one wishes to dictate to the German people the form of government under which they should choose to live. But it is right we should say that we will enter into negotiations with a free government of Germany with a different attitude of mind and a different temper and different spirit and with less suspicion and more confidence than we should with a government whom we feel today to be dominated by the aggressive and arrogant spirit of Prussian militarism.

"All the allied governments will, in my judgment, be acting wisely if they draw that distinction in the general attitude toward the discussion of peace terms."

SUMMARY OF THE DAY'S WAR NEWS

over the countries which she has invaded."

In the field of military operations the important development at present is the cumulative pressure which Gen. Sir Douglas Haig is applying to the German line along the coal city and mine fields of Lens. The operation now seems to have taken on a somewhat broader scope, suggesting that the British commander in chief is aiming at the far flank of the Lens position in a wide encircling movement while keeping up the push here and there on the immediate environments of the city.

Some six miles to the south, in the neighborhood of Oppy, the British last night captured a German position on a front of more than a mile. Closer to Lens, on a wide front south of the Souchez river, the British continue to gain ground. They have entered Avion, within two miles of Lens, thus drawing considerably tighter the lines immediately behind the coal town. To the north of Lens, near Loos, the British raiders are active, indicating that a further forward movement may be expected on this flank.

On the French front, the Verdun district has again sprung into prominence. The Germans have been manifesting renewed activity there and last night they delivered a powerful attack after a heavy bombardment on a front of a little more than a mile near the famous hill 304, northwest of Verdun. They gained a footing at some points in the French first line, but were completely repulsed when they renewed their attack early this morning. The crown prince also attacked in the Alsne district, notably in the Cerny region, where his troops obtained a foothold in French trenches, but were driven out by an energetic counter-attack. The French positions, however, as elsewhere on this front, were maintained.

READY FOR REST AND SECLUSION.

Boudoir attire has become a permanent part of the modern woman's wardrobe. Materials are often quite as choice as those used to build a ball gown. Chiffon and fur and brocade are none too elegant for one splendid loose robe of gorgeous American beauty color. The average woman finds crepe de chine in some becoming trim the most practical fabric for comfortable and durable negligees.

wedding veil was made into a frill that was held by orange blossoms in tiny clusters above each ear. Bride robes formed the bride's bouquet, with the addition of a shower of ribbon and swansons. The matron of honor wore a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine with chiffon overskirt and jacket and white rosebud garter and her flowers were pink La-France roses. The honor maid wore a pink silk net hung over satin and trimmed prettily with silver lace and her flowers were pale pink roses. The three bridesmaids were gowned in pink evening gowns and they carried bouquets of pink snapdragons. Miss Magdalen, the flower girl, also a sister to the bride, wore a pretty frock of pink net over satin, with pink bows on her curls and in her hands a dainty basket of pink sweetpeas. After the beautiful and solemn marriage ceremony, the wedding party left the church for the joyous strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march and went directly to the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. August Lange, at 1315 Anthony boulevard, where friends extended their congratulations to the bride and groom. At a later hour the wedding dinner was served to the bride party and relatives. The house was decorated throughout with flowers and smilax, and the bride's arrangements of pink and white roses and smilax, with the large bride's cake in the center. Although garden flowers were used in the house, the prevailing color was the same as in the church and of the bride's attendants, pink. When at a late hour the bride and groom left for their wedding trip, the bride wore a tan jersey suit with tan velvet hat and other accessories to correspond in quiet taste. A trip to Chicago, where a boat will be taken for the Georgian Bay route, with visits at a number of important lake points in the north, will take several weeks. The bride and groom will visit in Fort Wayne, however, before they go to Cleveland, where the groom is organist at St. John's Lutheran church and also has a musical apt. since the death of his father. The bride is also a pianist and plays both violin and piano, which she has studied with much diligence and recently has had voice work to her studies. Guests from away included the groom's parents and sisters, Misses Dorothy and Martha Jungkuntz, of Columbia City; a brother, Rev. Henry Jungkuntz, Jr., of Auburn; Miss Helen Wefel, of Cleveland, and Mr. Paul Jungkuntz, of New York.

Jansen—Young.

A number of Fort Wayne friends are interested in the wedding of Miss Anna Young, daughter of Mr. Albert Young, of Crown Point, to Mr. Henry Raym Jansen, which took place on Wednesday of this week in St. Mary's church of the city. The groom made his home with Father Jansen, of Holy Parish, Gary, Ind., since the death of his parents. Rev. Father Jansen officiated at the nuptial high mass and read the marriage ceremony. Father Ryder, chaplain of Mercy hospital, was sub-deacon; Father Gribbal, deacon; Father Guethof was an honor guest in the sanctuary, and Father Toth was master of ceremonies. The Groomed mass was sung. Misses Carrie and Clara Young were the bridesmaids and William Wigmore, a protégé of Father Jansen, and Patrick Judge were groomsmen. A cousin of the bride, Mr. Hecker, was an usher at the church. The bride wore a handsome gown of white silk voile, a veil made with train, and carried bride roses. The bridesmaids were dressed in costumes of pale green crepe with picture hats to correspond and their flowers were baskets of pink sweetpeas. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Kaiser, of Crown Point. The guests numbered about thirty and included Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Spanley and children, of this city; Miss Elizabeth Jansen, of Gary; Mrs. Lee, of Lowell; Mrs. Mary, of Miss Margaret Scanlon and the visiting clergy, Mrs. Spanley and Miss Jansen are sisters to Father Jansen. The bride and groom received many beautiful gifts which will aid in the furnishing of their future home at 7255 Calumet avenue, Park Manor. The bride and groom are making a trip to New York and other eastern points and on their return home will stop in Fort Wayne to visit Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Spanley.

Barnes—Nicoloy.

The Bowser Free Methodist church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 8 o'clock on Thursday night, when Miss Zephia Nicoloy was united in marriage to Mr. Clarence Barnes. The church was filled with friends and relatives and was beautifully decorated. An arch was constructed at the altar, entwined with a abundance of white daisies with green trimming. Back of this was a bank of beautiful ferns. White ribbon was festooned on both sides of the central aisle, a bunch of daisies being fastened with the ribbon to the top of each pew. The ceremony was preceded by a program consisting of several songs and a reading by Mrs. B. L. Olmstead. Promptly at 8 o'clock the bride procession entered. Rev. B. L. Olmstead, the officiating minister, and the groom at the same time entering a side door and awaiting the bride at the altar. The bridesmaids were Miss Hazel Moore and Miss Madlyn Lighthill. The groomsmen were Mr. Wesley Russell and Mr. Cleo Swager. The bridesmaids carried beautiful bouquets of red roses. They were followed in the procession by little Miss Jane Wass and Master Jackie Lighthill, dressed in white, who scattered white daisies in the aisle in the path of the bride. Finally, escorted by Mr. S. L. Wass, sr., came the bride, attired in white and bearing beautiful roses. After the ceremony the bride party left immediately and went to the parsonage next door, where a reception was given to a company of about seventy. The large enclosed rear porch was decorated with green boughs and Japanese lanterns, and here at tables, iced cream and cake were served to all. Musical selections were rendered and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. The bride has been employed by the Dudio company, and the groom by S. F. Bowser & Co. They leave for their wedding trip on Saturday.

Nettous—Connors.

Miss Melena Connors, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Connors, was united in marriage to Mr. Oscar Nettous, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gaskill, at the Cathedral at 8 o'clock on Tuesday morning. Rev. Father Peters officiated at the ceremony and mass. The bride was becomingly dressed in a gown of pink georgette crepe with which she wore a picture hat with rosebud trimming. The bride carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Margaret Connors, a sister to the bride, was bridesmaid and she wore a gown of blue taffeta and georgette crepe, with white picture hat. Her flowers were white roses. Mr. Thomas Connors, brother to the bride, was groomsmen. The wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home to immediate relatives.

Price—Yoss.

The marriage of Mr. Glen Price, of 820 Lavina street, and Miss Margaret Yoss, of 1411 Boone street, took place on Thursday in Kalamazoo, Mich., by Rev. Eldersveld. There was no objection to the marriage by relatives, who were aware of the intention of the bride and groom to wed. Mr. and Mrs. Price have returned home and will soon go to housekeeping.

Piano Pupils' Recital.

On Wednesday evening pupils of Miss Anita Walbaum and Miss Grace Philley gave a well rendered program in Packard hall. There was much that was to be commended in the recital and the work of the children spoke well for correct instruction. On Thursday evening Miss Edith Foster presented a number of her pupils and the entire program testified to that teacher's characteristics in work. A certainty of tone and fingering, a positive touch that never leaves any blur of sound and a perfection of rhythm and time were always noticeable. Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Foster's most advanced pupil, played a Moszkowski waltz for the closing number. On Thursday evening Miss Emma Sander presented her advanced pupils in a recital in Elks' hall. The pupils gave a good account of themselves and in many cases much talent was noticeable. Effie Lucas, Mildred Koehling, Mrs. Reuland Long, Fern Smith and Iola Billman had the most difficult numbers to play. Equally commendable work was done by Miss Clara Schaffer, Robert Koerber, Helen Wooding and several others, whose pieces were less difficult in the way of execution. The entire program was interesting. Miss Sander presents another class this evening.

Jungkuntz—Lange.

Concordia church was never the scene of a prettier wedding nor no sweeter bride ever walked to its altar than Miss Clara Margaret Lange, whose marriage to Mr. Otto W. Jungkuntz, of Cleveland, took place in that edifice on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The bride entered the church with her father, Rev. August Lange, who performed the marriage ceremony. The wedding music from "Lohengrin" announced the arrival of the bride party and followed a program of music given by the organist, Mr. Paul Drono, and Miss Helen Wefel, a contralto singer, of Cleveland. Messrs. Theodore Dorn, Herbert Trier and Albert Schreifer seated the guests and then the bride appeared, preceded by her attendants, Mrs. F. H. ## VERA ROEHM'S HEALTH TIP TO KEEP FIGURE, EXERCISE the form. Some wish to reduce; others to gain. The same exercises are suggested, which causes comment. The same exercises, but not taken in the same manner. For instance, a person wishing to reduce when taking the daily exercise must dress in heavy woolen apparel to cause a free perspiration, while on the other hand, those wishing to gain weight should don something less heavy, which will also allow free movement of the different muscles.

All exercising must be done regularly and evenly. For reducing to gain results, work as fast as possible, not stopping during the entire routine. To gain weight and develop graceful and pretty lines, tense the body while going through the various movements slowly and with exuberance.

Two exercises which have given wonderful results toward gaining many a woman a pretty neck are the stretching and bridge exercises.

Stretch the neck forward, touching the chest, then back. From side to side in the same manner. Next turn the head, keeping the body still from shoulders down, as far to the right as possible, trying to see something over the right shoulder. Turn the head and do the same over the left. This is very simple, and even a child can be taught to do this daily.

The bridge is far more difficult, and requires practice, but is the more valuable. First position, lie flat upon the floor; second, draw the feet up under the body, crossing the arms on the chest at the same time; then rear, head back, raising the body from the floor; leave only the top of the head and soles of the feet upon the floor. Sway gently forward and backward, letting only the shoulders touch, for ten counts. The neck muscles will be very sore for three or four days, and the harder the exercise is tried after the first day the sooner will the soreness disappear. A little alcohol rub will help.

Two exercises Miss Roehm recommends whereby a woman may acquire a pretty neck. At the top is the bridge exercise; below, the stretching exercise.

Only by exercising can a woman retain her figure. The sensible woman combines beauty exercises with training in wrestling and self defense.

A daily session with the boxing gloves will give you clear skin, rosy cheeks, bright eyes. Women often ask advice regarding

CONTRACT NOT FILLED.

J. C. Curtis, Railroad Receiver, Tells of Coal Trouble.

Huntington, Ind., June 29.—J. C. Curtis, receiver of the Cincinnati, Bluffton and Chicago railroad, has added an interesting chapter to the story of soaring prices for bituminous coal.

Mr. Curtis, in the interest of the C. & B. & C. system, visited a Kentucky coal field and found a small mine that was not working to capacity. The owner said it cost him $1.19 a ton to put the coal on cars, and he accepted a contract for coal at $2.50 a ton. Mr. Curtis came back to Huntington and waited for coal, but it did not come.

He went back and was told by the operator that he could not fill the contract for less than $3 a ton. The operator intimated that he had heard from highups regarding the contract price. Mr. Curtis promptly contracted with another small mine owner for coal, and the same thing happened.

On a second visit to the coal field Mr. Curtis was approached and called by name by strangers on two different occasions. In each instance the men knew his business in Kentucky and politely ordered him out of the state by telling him that he "might as well go back to Indiana, as he could not buy coal." Mr. Curtis was not able to obtain the name or business of either man who approached him, but he was unable to buy any coal.

Mr. Wood now has two of the largest and busiest shoe stores in Toledo. He has made them the busiest by always giving the public the best merchandise at the lowest prices possible.

WALTER C. WOOD.

His policy is quick sales and small profits and being fair to his customers by giving them the benefit of his buying.

When shoes began to go up, Mr. Wood began looking forward to the future and made his purchases accordingly. He bought all the shoes his two stores and warehouses would hold, thus giving him the opportunity to sell shoes at the old prices for a long time to come.

You will find in his store Saturday a complete line of shoes and oxfords for men at prices that will astonish you and make you wonder how it can be done.

You are invited to call and look over his shoes and are just as welcome whether you buy or not.

Mr. Wood wants it known that he carries narrow widths in all of his shoes as well as wide ones, and can fit all the feet all the time.

Patterson-Fletcher Co. are selling more overalls than any store in Indiana and are selling them at 25c to 50c less a pair than you can buy them for elsewhere.

Insulting the Housewife's Intelligence

Most Eminent Scientists

Just stop and think how ridiculous it is for anyone to make a statement or claim that the so-called Alum Baking Powders are in any way injurious to health. The highest authorities and most eminent scientists in the world have after careful experiments of all kinds decided that the so-called alum baking powders are just as wholesome as any other baking powders.

The Department of Agriculture

The Department of Agriculture, which is the Pure Food Department of the United States, have made careful investigations and experiments, and find no reason to even question their sale. They, too, came to the conclusion that such powders are just as wholesome as other baking powders.

Sold In Every State

So-called alum baking powders are sold in every State in the Union. If they were not pure and wholesome, certainly the food commissioners would not permit their sale. The Food Commissioner of each State is not permitting to be sold anything that is unwholesome. So-called alum baking powders have been brought to their attention for years, with the same results—they are pure and wholesome.

Important Everyone Should Know

There are some so-called alum powders in which the acid phosphate is replaced by enough soda alum—not the drug store alum—to insure perfect keeping qualities and to properly regulate the speed action. If there is any doubt in your mind as to the wholesomeness of baking powder containing alum, ask your doctor. He will tell you that the latest, most complete investigations have proven that no baking powder is more wholesome than so-called alum baking powders.

Divert the Public Mind from the Fact

The only ones who have attempted to discredit the so-called alum baking powders, or to claim that they are unwholesome, are those baking powder companies who do not use alum. No food official—no doctor—no housewife has ever objected to its use. Only those companies who wish to get an exorbitant price for their goods or who wish to conceal the fact that their goods are unsatisfactory because of poor keeping qualities are striving to intimidate the public with a ridiculous no-alum outcry.

Don't Be Misled

FOUR REMONSTRANCES SUSTAINED BY BOARD

Objections to Paving Petitions Were on Ground of High Prices.

Four companies of remonstrators went "over the top" to victory Thursday night. Protected by a barrage fire of well framed complaints and carried on by force of numbers the community bodies succeeded in crushing the action for paving four city streets.

The board of works meeting, at which fifteen street paving resolutions were acted upon Thursday night was the occasion for the charges and counter attacks. Remonstrances against four of the paving plans were squelched with the same vigor that four more were sustained. Less than one-third of the paving actions were uncontested. Forty men and women crowded their way into the board meeting in order to have a word to say. Most of the number gratified their desires for speaking before they left.

Objections to paving petitions in most cases were on grounds of the present high cost of materials. Some of the citizens complained about being burdened with assessments for other recent improvements. Successful remonstrances affected the following proposed paving jobs: South Wayne avenue, from Organ avenue to Rudisill boulevard; Indiana avenue, from Home avenue to Packard avenue; Marion street, from High to Third, and Riverside avenue, from Spy Run avenue to the St. Joe river. The following eleven street paving resolutions were confirmed: Coombs street, from Wayne to the alley south of Erie street; Garden, from Taylor to Eagle; Grace avenue, from Fox avenue to Broadway; Kinnaird avenue, from Webster to Hoagland; Lake avenue, from Anthony boulevard to the city limits; Lasselle street, from Lafayette to Hanna; Liberty street, from Harmar to Canal; Osage street, from Main to alley north of Boone; Wall, from Broadway to the west line of lot 324 Swinney's addition; Webster, from Wildwood avenue to Kinnaird avenue, and Wildwood avenue, from Calhoun street to Plaquemine.

O. J. Schoonenberg was granted permission to install an underground gasoline tank at 1308 Maumee avenue. A petition by the S. F. Bowser company for placing an underground tank at 2221 Bowser avenue was taken under advisement.

A petition for installing an arc light at Watkins and Illinois streets was placed on file. A resolution for paving several streets in Brook View addition was confirmed. Other final assessment rolls which were confirmed by the board were for: Paving of the alley between Washington and Jefferson streets, from Monroe to Francis and from College to Nelson; for the construction of cement sidewalks on the north side of Greenlawn avenue, from Koch to Hench, and on the east side of South Wayne avenue, from Organ avenue to Branning avenue.

The Grace Construction company started grading work on Delaware avenue Friday morning. The job is expected to require nearly two weeks. A steam shovel will be used.

TRIES FIVE HOURS TO CLIMB THE POLE

Success greeted twelve-year-old Gordon Shearer, Thursday afternoon, after he had worked diligently for five hours to climb the greased pole. At 5 o'clock he reached the top where five dollars awaited him as a compensation for his labor. This was one of the many pleasing and entertaining events of Boys' Day at Robison park Thursday. There was a lively scramble when several thousand pennies were scattered among the children. On account of the wet weather the various prizes which were to have been given to winners in the athletic events were thrown from the roof and the boys scrambled for them.

SEEN IN GERMANY.

Stockholm, Sweden, June 29.—Long lines of persons waiting for articles of food, common sights in the streets of the cities of Germany, now are seen in Sweden. The Gothenburg police estimate that more than 10,000 persons, mainly women and children, formed a line to get their share of some potatoes bought by the city and sold in small quantities to residents of Gothenburg.

TO STUDY FOREIGN TONGUES.

LORD NORTHCLEIFF ON THE CENSORSHIP

British Publisher Hopes America Will Escape English Blunders.

New York, June 28.—Lord Northcliffe, British high commissioner to the United States, in an address to magazine editors and writers at a luncheon here, expressed the hope that the United States would not muddle the censorship as England did the first three years of the war.

"America can and will do a tremendous part in this war, first because she is fresh and second, because she undoubtedly will profit by the mistakes of the nations who have been fighting since August, 1914," said Lord Northcliffe. "What the war needs more than anything else is brains and speed."

"I trust that the United States will not make the censorship blunder that England made and which is just becoming an evil of the past. England was kept in the dark for nearly three years. The people were blinded by the fatuous optimism of soldiers and politicians who, while efficient in peace, were incompetent in war. The people were not permitted to know the truth and when the truth finally emerged out of costly blunders and sacrifices they were loath to accept it."

Urges frankness.

"I hope that America may permit her newspapers and magazine writers to be absolutely frank about what is going on. It is as important for the nation to know the worst as it is for the nation to know the best. For one thing—and we have found it out from actual experience—it is a great stimulus for the men fighting in the field to know that they are being written about at home and that the country they are fighting for knows precisely what they are doing.

"Every man with a pen in hand and a printing press nearby can do a patriotic service to his country by awakening his people to the fact that this war is just beginning, and that every ounce of energy, that every revolution of America's vast industrial machine, and what is equally important, every gallon of gasoline, will be needed to bring the war to a successful end."

"It is only by an absolute mobilization of man power and machine power that this war can be won. Industries that at this moment seem remote from mobilization for the war will sooner or later be called upon to do their part."

Chaffeurs Will Be Needed.

"When America has got her full stride in the war, so surely she will get it, it will be found that there will be a tremendous demand for chaffeurs. England today has nearly a hundred thousand motor trucks in France and is constantly sending more. Every one of these trucks must be manned by a trained driver. If skillful chaffeurs can be sent to operate your trucks it will be possible to release an equal number of men for the fighting lines."

"It will mean the end of German joy riding. England stopped this favorite outdoor sport a good while ago and I am sure when America wakes up to the tremendous realization of what this war means, she will do likewise."

The luncheon was given by Isaac F. Marousin, who has just returned from the war.

To Educate War Orphans Here

MRS. W. A. CHANLER.

A plan to bring to America the sons of French soldiers killed in action for education and support was explained by Mrs. William Astor Chanler, president of the American Fund for the Heroes of France and Her Allies, who has just returned after five months in extensive relief work in France. Mrs. Chanler, through the co-operation here of John Moffat, chairman of the executive committee of the fund, has just accomplished the purchase of the birthplace of the Marquis of Lafayette, a chateau in southern France, to be used as a museum and a shrine for Americans, much as Mount Vernon is now used. The chateau, which is in the mountainous region of Auvergne, is surrounded by an estate of more than fifty acres. The building dates back to the fourteenth century. This chateau will harbor the 100 boys chosen by Mrs. Chanler while a school building, to be completed in October, is under construction on the estate.

Going away for "The Fourth?" You'll need a new suit or some furnishings. Better come in tomorrow.

BATTERY WILL LEAVE SUNDAY

Adjutant General Awaits Report That Everything is in Readiness.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE MADE WITH RAILWAY

Battery B Will Follow D in a Week is General Belief.

Battery D will embark for Fort Benjamin Harrison Sunday morning over the Lake Erie and Western and Big Four railroads. The adjutant general at Indianapolis is awaiting the report from Major Wilson, who is in Fort Wayne, that the battery is ready to start.

As soon as this message is conveyed to him he will immediately order the battery to proceed to the state's mobilization grounds. Major Wilson stated Friday morning that there was no doubt but that the battery would be all ready to start by Saturday evening.

Only a few of the members of the organization have not as yet reported. It was stated Friday afternoon that only ten men were absent and that they would be on hand for roll call Saturday morning.

Unofficial word has been received that recruiting for Battery B should be hurried along as quickly as possible, as it would be no surprise if the second artillery organization would be summoned within a week after D's departure.

Every member of Battery B has been notified to be present at the United States inspection to be held Friday night at 8 o'clock at the court house. The inspection will be conducted by Lieutenant Tallero, U. S. A. No excuse for non-attendance will be accepted. Company E's pay roll is ready to be signed and it is highly important that this matter be attended to by Friday evening.

RUSSIAN RED CROSS NEEDS ASSISTANCE

Slavs Rejoice in Promise of American Red Cross Mission to Them.

Petrograd, June 29.—The news of the intention of the United States to send a Red Cross mission to Russia figures prominently in the morning papers. It evoked hearty appreciation in army and medical circles, especially at the headquarters of the Russian Red Cross. A statement given to the Associated Press by Boris Ordin, president of the committee on supplies of the Red Cross, who reorganized this department after the Manchurian war, says:

"We express our gratitude at this new evidence of the resolution to help from the United States where we are weak. America's aid and medical work not only have been charitable but also of immediate immense military significance. By experience in two campaigns shows that if there are any deficiencies in medical supplies or insufficient medical personnel the conduct of the war is injuriously affected."

"Before last Christmas we sent America, through Vice President Hough, of the Russo-American committee, a complete list of the articles which were needed most. The list comprises about thirty chief drugs. In addition the Russian Red Cross needs preserved goods, leather, milk, blankets, shoes and light and heavy automobiles. We hope American aid will come speedily and our organization promises to do everything possible to help the mission in the work."

COLISEUM SITE TO BE USED FOR PARK

Wooded Tract Will Be Fitted Up With Benches and Lights.

Immediate public use is to be made of the site purchased for the erection of the city coliseum, officials plan. The wooded plot of ground, forming the north side of the Hamilton estate, corner of Clinton and Lewis streets, is to be converted into a small city park, and will be made of the ground for building purposes.

Members of the board of works have agreed upon the benefits to be derived from making the neglected ground into a city beauty spot. Park board members are enthusiastic about the plan. It will give the public an open resting place near the heart of the city.

The present plan is for placing rustic benches on the property owned by the city. Electric lights will be strung through the small park. Gateways will be cut in the large iron barriers and the southern boundary of the lot will be marked by a heavy wire fence. The coliseum site is a beautiful tract in its present natural state. Officials plan to add to its charm by clearing out a part of the underbrush and laying winding walks beneath the many trees.

Representatives of the park board wish several more lights strung through the large park area. The request cannot be granted at this time because of lack of funds for the purpose, board of works members say.

WATCHMAN WANTS $4,000.

John Harlow Sues Jitney Bus Driver for Personal Injuries.

John Harlow has sued Leroy Staples for $4,000, alleging that it was due to the defendant's carelessness as a jitney bus driver that he ran into him and injured him at the intersection of Runyon avenue and the Nickel Plate tracks on August 6, 1916. The complaint sets forth that the plaintiff as a watchman was in the center of the street performing his duties of stoppage to commit suicide on several occasions, that Staples disregarded his signals and bumped into him.

GREECE WILL ENTER WAR

Government Breaks Diplomatic Relations With Central Powers.

Meaning of Overturning of Affairs Begins to Get a Translation.

Athens, June 29.—The Greek government has broken diplomatic relations with Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey.

Though war has not been declared, the Greek government considers that a state of war exists since its advent to power yesterday.

Greece's new course with regard to the war began to be shaped on June 12 with the abdication of King Constantine and the accession of Alexander, his second son, as king. The abdication was in effect a de facto renunciation of King Constantine, whose pro-German attitude had given the entente endless trouble. Decisive action by the entente was long in coming but was drastic when finally taken. Ellipharios Venizelos, Greece's leading statesman and steadfast friend of the entente, soon appeared as the man to take the leadership in guiding Greece back to her traditional place by the side of England, France and Serbia, the last a close ally whom she had abandoned under Constantine's coercion in Serbia's hour of greatest need. Summoned back to the premiership by King Constantine, Venizelos quickly formed a cabinet. Reactionary elements have been ousted or quieted, the re-establishment of Greek constitutional government virtually abolished by Constantine, began. That the parliament of May, 1915, which had been dissolved by Constantine would again be summoned to meet, was later indicated, a legislative backing to the new executive. Signs that Greece would not much longer maintain even a nominally or benevolently neutral condition toward the entente were in evidence several days ago and recent dispatches indicated that a formal breach between Greece and the central powers was imminent.

COW EATS NIGHTSHADE HER MILK KILLS MAN

Frankfort, Ind., June 29.—The death of Bert Gregg, a farmer living near here, which occurred yesterday, was caused by poisoned milk and butter made from cream taken from the milk of a cow which had eaten what is known as nightshade weed. It was said today, after an investigation, Mrs. Gregg and a farm hand are ill from the same source of poisoning. Gregg was ill several days. His case was a puzzle to the attending physician until a cow became ill. A search of the pasture disclosed the nightshade.

FINAL NOON MEETS HELD

Addresses Are Made to Employees of Bass's and the Wayne Oil.

Week's Campaign for Regular Army Recruits is Drawing to a Close.

HONOR ROLL.

ARMY. James P. Grady, Redkey; Wilbur E. Miller, Larwill; John Duffell, Whiting; Achim Erimia, New Castle; George Covrig, Indiana Harbor; Arthur L. Coss, Logansport; Byron C. Berkshire, Indianapolis; Edward T. Ballinger, Rossmore; Joseph B. McAdams, Muncie; Howard M. Youngs, Fort Wayne; Carl C. Hiker, Fort Wayne; Raymond L. Hopper, Montpelier; Steve Kubak, Hammond; Eli Chepil, Indiana Harbor; Henry Copil, Hammond; Frank Gyr, Hammond; Martin C. Snyder, New Decatur. NAVY. Harry E. Straw, Huntington. NATIONAL GUARD. Battery B.—Harry E. Burkett, New Haven; Henry C. Kolk, Clarence Bierbaum, Joseph D. Haas, Millard Mahan and Louis Island, all of Fort Wayne.

Final noon meetings in the great drive for recruits in the regular army were held Friday noon at the Bass foundry and at the plant of the Wayne Oil Tank and Pump company. A large percentage of the employees of both companies heard the speeches in the interest of recruiting and many of the young men promised to think more seriously of their duty to the country. It is expected that many of them will be ready to offer their services by Saturday night, thus becoming volunteers rather than conscripted men. By so doing they will be permitted to choose their own branch of the service and will have much better opportunities for advancement. Advancement in the army during this time is bound to be rapid, too, and men who volunteer and show that they have ability will not be kept in the ranks long. The idea that enlisted men have no chances in the army is greatly mistaken, and the fact that he has never taken military tactics seriously before will not prevent the volunteer from promotion. Friday night an open air meeting was opened at the corner of Berry and Court streets, but because of the rain the speakers and audience adjourned to the court house, where addresses were again taken up. Music was furnished by the Elks' band and by the Red Cross duodecim quartet. Guy Colerick, Rev. C. C. Travis, Charles R. Lane and Captain Thomas Ryan were the speakers. The final and largest open air meeting will be held at the same place Saturday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Speakers have not yet been announced. Friday evening Captain Ryan and Rev. A. J. Folsom will address a patriotic meeting at Decatur, while another part of the recruiting force will go to Huntington, accompanied by the Jefferson drum corps.

RAISING RECRUITING.

H. H. Smith, machinist's mate, first class, of Indianapolis, has been detailed to the Fort Wayne station to aid in naval recruiting work. He will be in Fort Wayne but a few days.

REFUSE TO TALK ANYMORE

"Sammy" Koehler's Relatives Refer All Inquirers to His Attorney.

SISTER HINTS THAT HE MAY SUICIDE

Believe That He Will Be on Deck Saturday to Hear His Sentence.

Receivers were banged in the ears of several reporters Friday when they endeavored to talk to relatives of "Sammy" Koehler, to inquire of his whereabouts and the possibility that he would skip his bail and not appear before Judge Eichhorn in the circuit court Saturday afternoon to receive his sentence.

Koehler's aunt was asked whether the story that "Sammy" was thinking about taking his life carried any weight with it among his relatives. Other questions were directed to her, but all were answered in the same manner, "Go talk to Judge Hench." Judge Hench is Koehler's attorney.

It is stated that Mrs. Hattie Giant, another one of "Sammy's" sisters, hinted that Koehler might end all his troubles by committing suicide. She did not say it in so many words, but intimated that this course might be taken.

The general belief now prevails that Koehler will be in the court room Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and that his intentions are not to run away and forfeit the $5,000 bail put up by his aunt and brother.

BEWARE BROWN SPOTS ON POTATO VINES

Are First Marks of Attack of Dreaded Tuber Blight.

The potato blight is making its first drive upon city food gardens. Only a few cases of the blight have appeared as yet. The Bordeaux mixture, France's most effective war contribution to the hosts of productions, is again the relief force.

Only the first stage of the blight is in evidence in the city garden patches as yet. The continued damp weather is an aid to the destructive force. The blight may become general in a few weeks. F. W. Gray, food expert, fears unless precautions are taken. The attacking germ should be killed when it first appears. Spraying with the arsenate of lead mixture is the most effective remedy, according to Mr. Gray.

Brown spots appearing on the leaves of the potato vines are the first symptoms of the blight. Later the entire plant loses its rich green color. The vine becomes sickly and decays. Unless the potatoes are well developed the entire crop in the patch attacked may be lost.

Food expert Gray spent much of Friday in the east end, where he sprayed the trees and plants attacked by the "rose chaffer," a klunk-garbed bug, which has devoured the leaves from vegetables along Footeys avenue. He used six gallons of the Bordeaux mixture in coating the leaves attacked by the insects. He believes the advance of the bugs in that region is now checked. He will not know the exact effectiveness of the effort to kill the spots until Saturday.

Mr. Gray points out that the powder for the Bordeaux mixture can be purchased at drug stores. He will gladly give demonstrations in the spraying process when called upon. He expects citizens to purchase their own spraying apparatus and carry on the main part of the spraying work themselves, however.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CHAIRMEN GATHER

They Meet in the Office of District Chairman M. Luecke.

The county chairmen of the six counties in the Twelfth congressional district of Indiana met in the office of Attorney Martin H. Luecke, on Court street, Friday afternoon, in response to his call as district democratic chairman.

The meeting was called to order at 1:30 o'clock with every one of the chairmen present. Those who met were Calvin Brown, of Allen county; Ralph Thomas, of DeKalb county; Dr. C. W. Dancer, of Lagrange; John C. Cleland, of Noble; C. A. Yetter, of Steuben, and Col. Joseph R. Harrison of Whitley.

The purpose of the meeting was simply for organization and to discuss plans for the coming election. Mr. Luecke was to leave early Friday evening for Indianapolis.

TO GIVE THIRD DEGREE.

The Summit City lodge No. 170, F. and A. M., will hold initiatory services at their hall Friday evening. The third degree will be administered to four candidates. Services will start at 5 o'clock and at the conclusion of the work a luncheon will be served at 8:30 o'clock.

GARDENS MAKE GARBAGE WOES

Onion Tops and Rhubarb Leaves Do Not Burn Well.

LITTLE GREASE IS WASTED NOWADAYS

Grass and Bricks Form Part of Indestructible City Garbage.

City gardens produce other things beside food supplies. They cause garbage problems which are growing more burdensome as the days go by. Onion tops, rhubarb leaves, radish tops, discarded lettuce leaves and cast off parts of other plants being harvested from back lot plants are making up 20 per cent of the burden collected by those who gather city garbage. The percentage of green stuffs being stuffed into the garbage packages is increasing.

Onion tops do not burn well. Neither do radish leaves. The ancient theory that water is the most abundant element in forming plant life is all too true, city officials say.

Firemen at the crematory have stoked in vain in their effort to force the city plant to consume its usual amount of garbage waste of late. The task of burning the garbage is becoming more and more each day and the supply of greens is growing. To Mayor W. J. Hosey, who has been told of the new garbage troubles, it seems that the plant will eventually be swamped beneath a heap of pea pods, strawberry stems and vegetable tops.

Mayor Hosey is planning to make a public appeal for citizens to desist from putting radish leaves and other green stuffs in the garbage pails. He believes such vegetable products could be hauled away with other back yard rubbish.

If the green tops continue to be classed as garbage, the city may be called upon to take up a method of separating the different kinds of waste. The vegetable stuff may be heaped on the refuse pile, back of the crematory and burned later in the year, when the tops have thoroughly dried.

Why It Would Not Pay. "The present garbage situation, due to food conservation, is what makes me think that a reduction plant would not pay here," said Mayor Hosey Friday. "Grease is the most desirable product gathered from reduction of garbage. There is little waste of grease nowadays. All the meat is eaten and butter is saved in the home."

"We are having trouble because the greasy elements were highly inflammable and aided in the consuming process at the crematory. There is a great falling off in garbage grease."

"There is a reduction plant in Detroit and I am told that of late the per cent of grease extracted from garbage has fallen from 5 to 2 per cent of the garbage collected."

Carelessness of citizens in consigning every form of waste material to the garbage can is a fault which officials say is growing upon Fort Wayne folks. In the garbage containers are found pieces of stove pipe, brick bats and heaps of new mown grass. These products are not readily decomposed by heat. Several dollars worth of coal may be consumed in a vain effort to break up the elements of a brick, Mayor Hosey points out.

Grass is one of the most common forms of city nuisance, officials say. Many citizens do not heap their fresh cut grass upon a pile or in a box, but burning later or hauling away. They toss the grass in the streets or chuck it in the garbage can, the mayor says he is told. Street cleaners have no end of trouble in caring for the heaps of grass placed along the pavements. Sewers are choked by the bundles of grass blades after each heavy rain fall.

Much of the load of each trip of the garbage collectors of late has been made up of articles which will not burn and which should be cared for by citizens in some other way than classing the products as garbage.

"Conservation of the city coal at the crematory would be a worthy movement," said Mayor Hosey, Friday morning.

The mayor calls attention of farmers to the excellent fertilizing material now stored back of the crematory. The product is free to gardeners who will haul the waste away.

UNITED STATES SHIP NORTH CAROLINA, THE FIRST SHIP TO BE EQUIPPED WITH THE NEW SELF-SALVING SYSTEM

The inventor of this system has subdivided his ship into a series of zones of compressed air, the pressure diminishing as the zone extends further away from the damaged area, and he creates these supporting zones as emergency arises and just where they are needed to meet the particular requirements of the occasion. The difference of the pressure in adjoining zones is only a few pounds and the in terposed decks and bulkheads are quite capable of withstanding it.

The numerals within circles indicate the compartments charged with air and the pressure in pounds per square inch. The heaviest pressure is in contact with the water in the damaged compartments and is progressively reduced toward the remotest subdivisions.

JEWELERS HAVE BEEN ASLEEP AT THE SWITCH

Arno Dorst Says Dealers in Gems Must Advertise—R. Koerber President

Asserting that the jewelers throughout the country had been asleep at the switch entirely too long and that it was about time that they awakened, Arno A. Dorst, president of the Wholesale Jewelers and Manufacturers association, delivered a stirring address to the members of the jewelers' association Thursday afternoon at the closing session.

ROBERT KOERBER.

Jewelers should also be awake to the fact that newspapers are the best salesmen in the country, stated the speaker. He also stated that advertising would have to be done in order to put the jewelry business on a par with other businesses of the day which resort to newspaper advertising. People have the idea that only the rich wear jewelry and the jewelers themselves have never done anything to dispense with this idea, said the president of the Wholesale Jewelers and Manufacturers association. He also said that the value of the American newspapers as salesmen could well be evidenced in the glorious outcome of the Liberty loan bond campaign.

Robert Koerber, of this city, head of the Trenkley & Koerber firm, president of the Fort Wayne Rotary club and president of the Fort Wayne Merchants' association, was named president of the State Jewelers' association by unanimous vote.

Other officers elected were: Frank S. Crebs, of Frankfort, first vice president; Philip Hori, Aurora, second vice president; E. O. Little, of Auburn, secretary (re-elected); George F. Beach, of Valparaiso, treasurer, and W. L. Otto, retiring president, was made a member of the executive committee.

Terre Haute was named as the convention city for 1918 without a dissenting vote.

The official banquet held Thursday evening at the Anthony hotel marked the close of the annual convention. The session in this city was regarded as one of the best and largest in the annals of the organization.

Rev. A. J. Folsom and Colonel Shepherd, of New York, were the principal speakers. Between courses Miss Wilhelmna Haager sang for the jewelers. Edward Cranston, another favorite singer in the city, sang several selections.

SEEKS THE HELP OF COMMERCIAL BODIES

State Utilities Board is Trying to Solve Transportation Problem.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 29.—The state utilities board, which was recently reorganized, is inviting the co-operation of all commercial bodies in the state in its effort to find a solution of the worst problems presented by the transportation situation. To this end the following letter has been sent out under date of June 28:

The Public Service Commission of Indiana is exerting extreme efforts to improve the railroads' freight service in this state. It is co-operating in this with the National and State Councils of Defense. The railroads, in full sympathy, are exerting every effort to meet the conditions. We desire to call on the shippers of Indiana to co-operate in like spirit to get the maximum of service.

ities. We feel sure that you will join in a state-wide movement. Your organization should call its shippers together and organize.

We are enclosing a circular which a sub-committee representing the carriers, the Indianapolis chamber of commerce and Indianapolis board of trade, which are thus co-operating with the Public Service Commission in expediting freight through this terminal, are sending shippers in the Indianapolis district. We desire you to read it carefully.

We believe that you should organize for effective work along these lines. Such results can be reached only by a concerted effort on the part of all shippers. We now see what can be done by the railroads in the improvement of coal movements, the supply of cars to the Indiana mines in the last month having been increased from 50 to 90 per cent, with expectation of 100 per cent efficiency. We want to emphasize ten points:

1. Load cars to maximum capacity—and 10 per cent over.
2. Load promptly and furnish shipping instructions without delay.
3. Unload promptly—take no advantage of free time allowance.
4. Give orders in advance, or promptly, for switching or setting cars.
5. Provide track facilities for loading and unloading without delay.
6. Stop absolutely delaying cars by reconsignment.
7. Get heavier and more systematic loading of so-called trap cars.
8. Endeavor to get customers to increase orders to carlot shipments. 9. Assemble less than carload shipments for one large shipment.

10. Hold orders for equipment down to actual needs and prompt loading. If these ten instructions can be put into effect, everyone will get cars and prompt service. Elimination of unnecessary switching and delays will result in better service. Buyers who can afford to raise orders to carlot shipments by anticipating the future, will probably escape congestion when the government begins to move troops and supplies. This point might well be emphasized. If shippers call only for cars they can load promptly, all will be served.

Very truly yours,

CARL H. MOTE, Secretary.

The public service commission believes that it will have the ready and effective support and co-operation of the chambers of commerce, boards of trade, commercial clubs and other commercial organizations in this effort to improve transportation.

FIGURES BEWILDER

ORDINARY LAYMAN

In Case Against Earl Nussbaum, Charged With Passing Bad Check

Laymen failed to follow the processes involved in deducting that Earl Nussbaum is not technically guilty of issuing a fraudulent check. Both the prosecution and the defense submitted a maize of figures which bewildered even the blue-coated police officers who attended the police court session Friday morning.

Nussbaum owed a bill at the Kaough Vulcanizing works on West Main street. He gave a check for a part of the amount. His account had been drawn from the bank. He promises to make the check good. Detective Sergeant William Pappert has been connected with the case and will see that transactions are properly made. The case was dismissed.

In Same Boat. John Quandt, 45, 2124 Gay street, who has been married ten years, and Mont Mason, who has been a husband less than half that time, both faced non-support charges. They are both to be in circuit court to answer divorce complaints on Saturday morning. Their cases in police court are continued until after their higher court hearing.

when the subject of proper support will probably be determined.

Not Her Boy. Ernest Heinze and Charles Solis, two young men, were charged with loitering. They were arrested at the corner of Fourth and Wells streets Thursday evening. Complaint had been made about a rowdy bunch of lads hanging out at that corner. Window lights near the corner have been broken. Police have had complaints from women who passed the corner.

Heinze and Solis were released after a severe lecture. The mother of one of the lads lingered to tell Judge Kerr that the officers had made a mistake in arresting her boy. Her son was only passing the corner, she said. Others are to blame for the rowdiness, she explained. Judge Kerr was not attentive.

Does Not Like Court. F. C. Crawford parked his automobile too near a fire hydrant on West Wayne street Thursday afternoon. He was arrested by Patrolman Paul. He pleaded guilty to the traffic violation charge. He was fined $1 and costs.

"I don't mind the fine, but I hate to be in police court," said Crawford. Other Police Court Cases.

Ben Dawson, 15, charged with having stolen a bicycle, was released to juvenile court.

Edward Lauer was fined $5 and costs on a drunk charge. So was John Nolan. Herman Bishop will be tried on Tuesday on a like charge. Clinton Montgomery will have a hearing on next Thursday.

Get ready for "The Fourth." Why wait until the last minute—furnishings for the outing and the lake? PATTERSON-FLETCHER CO.

EXPERT HAIRDRESSER.

Miss Olga Raue Accepts Position With Steele-Myers Co.

Miss Olga Raue, who has been employed in one of the large hairdressing establishments in Chicago, has accepted a position in the hair goods department of the Steele-Myers company. Miss Raue is an expert in the art of the Marcel wave as well as all fancy hair dressing. She also specializes in electrolysis.

Mrs. Elva Keating, also of Chicago, who is in charge of the beauty department of the Steele-Myers store, will give to the ladies that most delightful and restful of all beauty luxuries, the facial massage. Mrs. Keating is an expert in this work.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Officers for the ensuing six months were elected Thursday evening by Fort Wayne lodge No. 116, Knights of Pythias. Those selected were the following:

Chancellor commander, Charles Thompson; vice-chancellor, Paul Zintgraff; prelate, James Mitchell; master of work, Gail A. Baughman; master at arms, Walter N. Howe; inner guard, P. C. Ellsworth; outer guard, Edward Dalman; representative to grand lodge, William C. Puckett; auditing committee, Charles Thompson, Paul Zintgraff and Walron Brunner.

While man's complaint is severe against the sparrow, song birds are said to have a more serious one to make. The sparrows are accused of throwing the eggs of other birds out of the nests, also the young, and pre-empting the nests of other birds for themselves.

In that casting for black bees, casting as often as possible annoys the fish so much that it will finally take a whack at the bait merely because of its combative nature.

How's This?
Corns Lift Out
With Fingers—No Pain!

Thanks to a new discovery made from a Japanese product your foot troubles can be quickly ended. Ice-Mint, as this new preparation is called, is said to shrivel up hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes so that they can be lifted out easily with the fingers. It's wonderful. Think of it; only a touch or two of Ice-Mint and real foot-joy is yours.

There is not one bit of pain or soreness when applying it or afterwards and it doesn't even irritate the skin. If your feet are inclined to swell or puff or if you have cracked or bleeding toes, it will draw the inflammation right out and quickly heal the sore and tender places. It is the real Japanese secret of fine, healthy, little feet and is greatly appreciated by women who wear high heel shoes and by men who have to stand on their feet all day. Try it. Just ask in any drug store for a small jar of Ice-Mint and learn for yourself that solid foot comfort really is. There is nothing like it.—Advertisement.

POTATOES AT A DOLLAR BUSHEL IS PREDICTION

Chicago, June 29.—Potatoes at the good old-fashioned price of a dollar were predicted for the near future in South Water street today. Wholesale prices were off 40 cents a bushel today and receipts are constantly increasing. It was said.
Onions, which sold at 15 and even 20 cents a pound last winter, were quoted at 2 1/2 cents wholesale today. Cabbages were correspondingly lower. Fruits are still high.

COAL RELIEF IS TO COME TO THE LAND NEXT WEEK

Washington, D. C., June 29.—Both American consumer and the government are to get relief from the high cost of coal. Beginning July 1, the price of soft coal at all mines east of the Mississippi is to be reduced one to five dollars a ton to the consumer with a still further cut of fifty cents to the government. An agreement to the effect has been reached between representatives of the coal interests and the government officials following several days of conference here. It was also agreed to defer the question of lower prices on hard coal until after July. Anthracite operators indicated a willingness, however, to meet the government in the same spirit shown by soft coal men. As a result of the agreement officials estimate that the government and the public will be saved more than $180,000,000 annually.

"Magnificent," is the way Secretary Lane, who took a prominent part in the conference, characterized the way operators met the government's call upon them.

WOULD NOT ENDORSE COUNCIL OF DEFENSE

Indiana Democratic Editorial Association Cries 'Politics.'

Indianapolis, Ind., June 29.—The Indiana Democratic Editorial association in session here today refused to give its endorsement to the state council of defense when a resolution asking such endorsement was presented by Walter S. Chambers, of Newcastle. Prominent among those opposing the resolution was Low Ellingham, of Port Wayne.

The refusal was not based on opposition to the objects of the state council and the theory of its work, the editors explained, but was to the personnel of the council. Speakers at the meeting charged that by the appointment of Will Hays, the republican state chairman, as chairman of the state council the council had become a publicity department of the republican party.

REPUBLIC FOR RUSSIA GIVEN AS A FORECAST

Washington, June 29.—A Russian republic was forecasted today by members of the Russian mission in the clearest exposition yet received here of the enormous problems of reconstruction facing that country. Any other form of government, it was stated, was practically impossible and would be in direct contradiction to the spirit and principles of the whole Russian upheaval. The constituent assembly, which is expected to open on September 30 will have in its hands the building of the whole new political structure of Russia. The provisional government which has ordered its call has not only given it absolute powers as to Russia's future government but has entrusted it with all its own executive powers.

BERLIN'S OFFICIAL REPORT OF BATTLE

Berlin, June 29.—(Via London.)—German forces yesterday captured French positions on both sides of the Malancourt-Esnes road, on the west bank of the Meuse in the Verdun sector, over a width of 2,000 yards and a depth of 500 yards, says the official statement issued today by the German general staff. Today the Germans stormed a 300-yard wide French position in Avocourt wood. More than 500 prisoners were taken at both points.

MEXICO ENGAGED IN A HUNT FOR PIRATES

Mexico City, June 29.—(By Mail.)—Both land and sea forces are engaged in an effort to capture a pirate schooner called the Mariscal, which it is said has been preying on the small towns and on fishing boats along the coast of Vera Cruz and Tabasco. The Mariscal, which belongs to the Compania Explosidora de Dorantes, operating in Tabasco, was seized by a band of rebels some time ago and, cruising close along the coast, has terrorized the fishing fleets of that section.

It is said the men of the schooner have headquarters somewhere near the bar of Tonala but make frequent incursions into the rivers emptying into the gulf ravaging such towns as are too weak to resist them. The gunboats sent to capture the Mariscal have been evaded by the schooner because the latter is of such light draft she is able to take refuge in rivers and shoal water where the gunboats cannot penetrate and the land forces have been ordered to co-operate from the shore.

FOR GRADUATED TAXES.

Washington, June 29.—Graduated instead of flat taxes upon excess profits in the war revenue bill were discussed and generally approved today by the senate finance committee. The graduated rates proposed were from 12 to 35 per cent, with the higher rates upon "swollen" profits. Formal action was deferred until later, with prospect that the graduated tax plan would be adopted as a substitute for the house flat rate of 14 per cent. The committee expects to report the bill to the senate Monday.

GARRETT TOURNAMENT ATTRACTS GREAT CROWD

Volunteer Firemen Have Best Meet in History of the Association.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Garrett, Ind., June 23.—The North-eastern Indiana Firemen's tournament came to a close in this city last evening and proved a great success, notwithstanding the bad weather. Twenty-seven out of the thirty-three fire departments of the association were present and sixteen of them were accompanied by their own bands.

The program for the day begun at 10 o'clock and from that time until 11 o'clock last night there was something doing every minute. Mayor Clevenger welcomed the members of the association and President B. M. Wells responded. A stirring patriotic address was given by Captain Ryan of the Fort Wayne recruiting office.

At the business session which followed, the organization adopted resolutions requesting that hereafter the delegates will be asked to gather at the scene of the convention the evening before the convention, thinking it would give them much better opportunity to carry out a good day's program. They also discussed legislation for a firemen's relief fund and appointed a committee to investigate. Kendallville asked for and landed the next convention. The morning session then adjourned for dinner.

At 1 o'clock delegations met for the parade. They formed on East Houston street and marched through the principal streets of the city. It was one of the best parades seen in this city for many years.

The Election.
The election of the officers, which was hotly contested, resulted as follows: President, Samuel Nussbaum, of Berne; vice president, William P. Seifert, of Garrett; secretary, G. F. Rozko, General Electric, of Fort Wayne; assistant secretary, George Kihm; treasurer, Roth Keller, of the Wayne Knitters, of Fort Wayne; executive board, F. G. Duryee of the General Electric, of Fort Wayne; chairman, L. C. Helm of Deatur, and A. Dillary of Hartford City.

The Contests and Prizes.
Best uniformed company, Wayne Knitting Mills, first; New Haven, second. The Knitters were attired in white, with blue ties and stockings; and the New Haven were white trousers, shoes and hats, with pink shirts. Largest number of uniformed men, General Electric works.

Largest delegation, New Haven, with 195 men.

Hose laying contest, Wayne Knitters, first, 31 1/2 seconds; General Electric, second, 33 seconds.

One hundred yard dash, Wayne Knitting Mills, first; General Electric works, second.

Two hundred yard dash, Wayne Knitting Mills.

Rope ladder climbing, L. B. Dunfee, of General Electric works.

Water battle, General Electric works.

Gave Aid to Red Cross.

In the parade the Garrett Campfire Girls, thirty-six in number, were attired in Red Cross uniforms and carried a large Red Cross flag. They sold Red Cross tags and cleared $150 for the Red Cross fund.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Y. Gross who have charge of the Wayne Knitting Mills club house at Fort Wayne, chaperoned a crowd of eighteen young ladies who are known as the "Wayne Knits." These young ladies were all dressed in white and carried a large American flag. Many people threw contributions into the flag and they received $22. Immediately after the parade they marched to the Red Cross headquarters established by the Campfire Girls and after giving several good yells and singing "Indiana," they filed into the tent and Mr. Gross in behalf of the Wayne Knits presented $10 of their money to the Campfire Girls Red Cross fund. Dr. Walter Broughton, Guardian Mrs. J. D. Jack and Mrs. F. M. McDonald extended their heartfelt thanks for their generous offering and stated that nothing that has occurred during the Red Cross campaign had touched them quite as much as this unexpected as most liberal gift.

Bands Give Parade.
One of the most inspiring things during the day's program was when all of the bands present formed in line at Randolph and Quincy streets and marched down Randolph street playing a medley of patriotic airs. It made the city ring and wild cheers and hurrahs were heard on every side.

The visiting delegations were well pleased with the treatment they received here and think the Garrett bunch of volunteer firemen and their fellow citizens a progressive people. Much of the success of the convention was due to the untiring efforts of Chief A. W. Beecher of this city.

SHIFT IN ENGINEERS.

Wabash Makes Many Changes in Personnel of Crews.

Following the new time card on the Wabash has come a number of reassignments of engineers, some affecting Fort Wayne. James B. Wells, one of the old engineers, has bid in the Fort Wayne-Toledo passenger run, with Sunday lay over in Toledo, his home. Chris Hoffman will have the opposite run to Mr. Wells, with Sunday lay over in Fort Wayne. Charles Christie has also bid in a run between this city and Toledo, via Defiance. Mr. Wells is an old time friend of Charles H. Doeber, former resident of this city and known to everybody here. Nearly a quarter of a century ago Mr. Doeber came here to take the office of master mechanic of the Wabash, a position he previously held on the Big Four, and he brought Mr. Wells with him.

SIMPSON FAMILY ARRIVES.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Simpson and their four children have located in pleasant quarters on Wildwood avenue, near South Wayne avenue. They formerly resided in Schenectady, N. Y., but when Mr. Simpson was transferred to the Fort Wayne branch of the General Electric works in the capacity of assistant factory superintendent, it became necessary for the family to come also. He went to Schenectady several days ago, to assist in packing the household goods for shipment to Fort Wayne, returning with the members of his family early in the present week.

WILLIAM SAMS PROMOTED.

William Sams, the machinist's helper and erstwhile watchman at the Clinton street gates of the Pennsylvania shops, has been promoted. This morning he assumed charge of a drill press, recently installed in the toolroom and is feeling pretty jubilant over the promotion. Mr. Sams has worked in various capacities at the shops for a number of years and through courtesy and accommodating ways has become quite popular with the employees of the machine shop and the toolroom.

OPENS COTTAGE TOMORROW.

Machinist Willard Smith and his son, Brook Smith, and nephew, Preston Martin, will go to Clear Lake tomorrow to open the Smith cottage and get the boats and fishing tackle in shape for the summer campaign. Mr. Smith will take his family to the cottage Saturday, July 7, to spend two weeks, the allotted period of his annual vacation. His cottage is one of the best on the northwest shore of the lake, being directly opposite the island.

MADE ADDITION TO FORCE.

General Foreman W. B. Madara, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, who has been short on skilled labor for some time, is in better shape today though still looking for more good mechanics. Five machinists and a helper were added to the force as follows: W. Kerwin, L. Kilbourne, J. Poling, L. L. Lyberg and J. Jagerath, machinists, and R. J. Ribbel, helper. Most of the machinists will work in the night gang.

GETZ GOES TO LAKES.

Art Getz, assistant chief clerk at the office of Supt. B. H. Hudson, of the G. R. & I., has entered upon a two weeks' vacation. A portion of it will be given over to boating and fishing and accompanied by Mrs. Getz and baby son he left this morning for Lake

Nottawa, where fishing and boating facilities are excellent.

LOST PORTION OF FINGER.

V. Pruski, a tank repairman at the Pennsylvania boiler shop, lost the end of the index finger of his left hand yesterday when the digit was caught in the air-driven hammer he was operating. He was attended by Dr. Van Sweringen and will be unable to work for a few days.

RETURNED TO COST DEPARTMENT.

Machinist A. Aiken, of the Pennsylvania, is again in the cost department of the shops after serving a short time in the erecting shop as a gang foreman. He has spent a great portion of the past two years in the cost department office.

TRANS-ATLANTIC LINE OF AIRPLANES PROMISE

G. Holt Thomas Predicts a Service Carrying Folks at Dollar a Mile.

London, June 28.—A trans-Atlantic line of airplanes carrying passengers between New York and London in two days, at a total cost of about $1 a mile was predicted by G. Holt Thomas in an address which he delivered before the Aeronautical society of Great Britain. To complete the rosy forecast, prophetic films were displayed showing the departure and voyage of a trans-Atlantic airplane and also the dropping of mail pouches at postal air stations between London and the north of England. Mr. Thomas, who has had large experience in flying and building aircraft, said that airplane mail services could be established commercially. "A special airplane will enable the business man to leave London in the morning, transact his business in Paris, and be home to dinner again," he said. "It will take him to Bagdad in a day and a half or New York in two days." The cost from London to Paris, he added, would be just over a dollar per mile running one machine each way and with four machines it would work out at 75 cents. A profitable charge

DECLINES FOLLOW SELLING MOVEMENT

Heaviness Displayed by the Active List in the Stock Market.

New York, June 29.—Selling of the active list was resumed at the beginning of today's trading, speculative issues showing increased heaviness. Declines of one to three points were registered by Industrial Alcohol, Baldwin Locomotive, International Paper, Pittsburg Coal, Studebaker, Chandler and General Motors. The steel shares yielded only fractionally with copper, oils and rails. United States Steel almost immediately made up its slight setback and other industrials, including equipments, were inclined to greater firmness. In the main dealings were light and limited to the usual leaders.
Further liquidation occurred in the listless trading of the afternoon. The motors, Alcohol, and Ohio Gas continued to sag from sheer apathy. General Motors dropped 3½. Alcohol yielded ¾. Pullman 2, Baldwin Locomotive 1½ and Beet Sugar and Wilson company 1½. U. S. Steel made a gross decline of 1½ to 128, and Bethlehem Steel lost 1½. The metal group was extremely quiet and shippings and rails played little part in the more irregular operations.
The bond market was nominal, the only feature being sale of an odd lot of the liberty issues at 100 6-80, the highest premium yet recorded.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

A depression overlies the St. Lawrence valley, and another depression which is centered over Alberta reaches southward over the Rocky mountain region to Arizona. The pressure is relatively high in the central sections of the country and off the north Pacific coast. During the last 24 hours showers occurred in the far northwestern districts and quite generally in the sections to the eastward of the Mississippi river. Moderately cool weather prevails in the central plateau region but in the other sections of the country nearly seasonal temperatures obtain. While the temperature changes of the last weather is generally warmer in the plains states and in the northern Rocky mountain region.

"NOW YOU GET THE KAISER," SAYS GEORGE OR WORDS TO THAT EFFECT

King George addressing one of his famous air men. We can easily imagine him saying, "Now you get the Kaiser"—emphasizing his command with a shake of his finger. This is probably the most unusual photograph ever taken of the British king and is one of the best to arrive in this country in years. The aviator in the picture is Captain Hucks, one of England's premier aviators. The king was greatly interested in the performance of Captain Hucks and other aviators while visiting an aeroplane field near London. He was especially inquisitive about safeguards for protecting their lives. As commander-in-chief of Great Britain's forces, land, sea and air, he naturally displays the greatest interest in all that concerns these branches of the service. Recently he spent a day at an aeroplane construction shop inspecting the plant.—Copy right, Underwood & Underwood.

ANOTHER CAMPAIGN TO END OLD ABUSE

"Leave to Print" Nonsense
May Be Abolished by Congress.

Washington, D. C., June 29.—The old fight has been renewed to stop the practice of members of the house extending their remarks in the Congressional Record containing extraneous matter, such as poetry of the home-made variety, speeches by outsiders, telegrams and resolutions, which annually swells the government's printing bill to thousands of dollars. Representative Walsh, of Massachusetts, who is behind the movement, said today that since the opening of congress 29 poems, 70 articles, 54 editorials, 26 speeches of outsiders, 169 letters and 723 telegrams have been inserted in the Record by members. One member was responsible for 534 telegrams occupying nineteen pages of the Record, in one day, he said. Believing that the Record never was intended for such purposes, Mr. Walsh declared henceforth he will object to the inclusion of everything not directly connected with debate.

THE MARKETS

MILLERS CONTINUE TO DECREASE QUOTATIONS

Flour Expected to Fall Forty Cents a Barrel at Close of Week.

The two millers who on Thursday lowered their wheat prices 5c, repeated the action Friday, bringing their quotations to $2.20 per bushel. Another local mill, however, has been sitting tight and still quotes the scarce grain at $2.35. This goes further to prove that the market is making little difference with wheat receipts these days, since there is scarcely any wheat to sell. The two millers who have reduced their quotations expect to lower flour 50c a barrel Saturday.

Receipts continued out of form Friday, the street market being almost deserted, and dealers reporting that they have purchased practically nothing.

Fifteen loads were all that were weighed at the city scales. Eight loads were hay, which continued to sell at $12.00@13.00 per ton.

Two loads of corn brought $1.55@1.60 per bushel, while five loads of oats were taken at from 61c to 61c a bushel.

FURTHER DECLINES IN WHEAT PRICES

Market Halts, Pending the Action of Congress on Food Control.

Chicago, June 29.—Downturn in wheat prices continued today with trading restricted pending congressional action on the food conservation bill. Leading elevator interests in Chicago were preparing to notify the administration at Washington that they proposed to act in future strictly as warehouses. Opening prices, which ranged from 1½¢ decline to a like advance, were followed soon by a moderate setback all around.

Favorable weather reports had bearish effect on deferred deliveries of corn. After opening ¾¢ off to ¾¢ up, the market tightened a little more for July and relaxed further for the distant months.

Oats were easy as a result of generally good crop reports.

Provisions sagged because of lack of any aggressive support.

The word "gentleman" has always been a difficulty, and great writers, particularly Newman, in a famous passage, have been at pains to define
it. Probably the higher you ascend the social scale the more seldom you hear the word. But a new measure of gentility came my way recently, writes a correspondent. The landlord had sent his men to mend a gap in the fence, and the maid, observing them through the kitchen window, remarked: "There are two men in the garden, and one of them is a gentleman—he's wearing a mackintosh!" A gig, according to Carlyle, used to be the standard of respectability—a standard more difficult to attain than this

WILL PURCHASE TWENTY GONDOLA FREIGHT CARS

Cincinnati, O., June 29.--United States District Judge Howard E. Holister today authorized John B. Carothers, as receiver of the Cincinnati, Findlay & Fort Wayne Railway company, formerly a branch of the C., H. & D. railway system, to purchase twenty gondola freight cars at $400 each for immediate use on the line of railway operated by the receiver. Carothers is authorized to borrow the money for the purchase of the cars, and court directs this indebtedness be made a first lien upon the equipment so purchased in the event of the sale of the road before the delivery of the equipment the purchaser shall assume the receiver's liability. In his application for this authority Receiver Carothers said the railroad owns but six freight cars, while there is a present demand for twenty gondolas a day to handle crushed stone originating on the line, and in September there will be a further demand for fifty gondolas a day to handle beet shipments to a beet sugar plant at Findlay, O.
Improvements of a decidedly valuable character are expected to be at once made in the road's rolling stock owing to the exceptional upward tendency of the traffic in the territory covered and the road's outlook declared very bright by authorities here.

A BRITISH ARMY SERGEANT HELPING UNCLE SAM TO GET RECRUITS AN INTERESTING SCENE THAT WAS SNAPPED RECENTLY IN NEW YORK

BRITISH ARMY SERGEANT HELPING UNCLE SAM TO GET RECRUITS.

The jury was established by the Frankish kings, being introduced into England by the Normans at the time of the conquest in 1066. At first it was merely a royal prerogative, men being brought in to give what they understood to be the truth regarding a certain matter which was being considered by the king. Under King Henry II, it became a regular privilege which was given to the people to use in the settling of their disputes. By the end of the twelfth century it was established, and it represented the collective knowledge of the community. By the end of the fifteenth century, it was already similar to our jury of modern times, having become an important liberty of Englishmen. Sport shirts and white duck pants for the tennis player. ## THE WOODMAN AND HIS AX ARE TO COME BACK

National Forests Are to Supply Wood for Fuel Next Winter.

Washington, June 29.—To meet any possible coal shortage in the west next winter, more extensive use of fuel wood from the national forests is urged by the government's foresters, who are advising both ranchers and town dwellers to be forehanded in making arrangements for the supply of their fuel needs.

The supervisors of the 153 national forests will be instructed to afford all possible facilities to local residents wishing to obtain cordwood, which settlers may obtain free for their home use and which is sold at low rates to persons cutting and hauling in order to sell to others. Since the material thus utilized is mainly dead timber, its removal, it is explained, helps clear up the forest and thus lessens the fire menace. Timber which is insect-infested, or old and deteriorating, or otherwise damaged or undesirable from the forester's standpoint, is also disposed of for fuel purposes. The demand in the next twelve months is expected to break all records.

There is a possibility of a coal shortage because of the increased demand for coal by industrial plants and the lack of sufficient means of transportation. It is believed that it will be quite feasible and economical for many western communities to utilize an increased quantity of national forest wood for fuel next winter. When dead and down timber or other timber which is deteriorating is not available for cordwood, the cutting of mature living trees will be permitted to the extent necessary to meet demands.

While wood as a fuel is less economical to handle and use than coal, it is in many parts of the west cheaper, even at normal price levels. Stoves and furnaces, however, equipped to burn coal usually require different grates to permit of the substitution to advantage, and this is pointed out as one reason why the householder will do well to look ahead and decide beforehand how he will keep warm and what he will feed the kitchen stove next winter.

Where sawmills are operating in the woods at points within hauling distance of towns, there is a chance to obtain slabs and other material that ordinarily goes to waste. Since green or wet wood is both poorer fuel and heavier to transport and handle than dry, mill waste as it comes from the saw is relatively undesirable for immediate use. For this reason, as well as in order to be sure of a supply, the government foresters suggest that a good-sized woodpile in the backyard or under cover before winter sets in may be found a thrifty provision.

During the last fiscal year over 30,000 permits for the free use of national forest timber mainly in the form of fuel wood were taken out by local residents. The amount of timber involved approximated 250,000 cords. Additional supplies of cordwood were obtained from the forests at a nominal price by others who were not entitled under the law to the free use of timber.

Most Common of Bodily Ills.
By far the most common of bodily ills is constipation. The usual cause is the indifference of many people to Nature's call. The inclination is not heeded, or it is put off until a more convenient time. When this is done repeatedly, constipation is almost sure to follow. It is of the utmost importance that everyone establish a certain time for the bowels to move each day and let nothing interfere with it. When that is done and proper food and exercise are taken and an abundance of drinking water, the bowels are not likely to give much trouble. When a laxative is required take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are mild and gentle, easy to take and agreeable in effect.—Advertisement.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON SERVICE AT WINONA

Management Plans for New Feature and Outsiders Are Invited.

Winona Lake, Ind., June 29.—The management is planning a new feature for this season, in that they have arranged for Sunday afternoon services for each and every Sunday, with special invitation to those living outside the grounds.

The first speaker, Rev. "Billy" Sunday, of course, drew large crowds. It is hoped that the rest of the season will be largely attended. Special speakers already engaged are Dr. J. H. Kellogg, of Battle Creek sanitarium, July 1st; Honorable Thomas Mott Osborne, formerly warden of Sing Sing prison, Auburn, New York, and Honorable Hastings H. Hart, of the Russell Sage foundation, of New York, July 8th; Dr. J. H. Kellogg, of Battle Creek, July 15th; Dr. Pohlman, of Pittsburgh, July 22nd. Speakers of national reputation will be engaged for the other Sundays.

The public is generally invited with the distinct understanding that there is no admission fee at Winona on Sunday, but each person entering the gate is given a Sunday ticket good for exit. The expenses of the Sabbath are met by voluntary offerings.

The management is arranging for a hitching railing to accommodate those who may come in carriages, and the autos will park as usual on Park avenue, near the auditorium. All are welcome.

TOBACCO CONTROLLER NOW.

London, June 29.—To the already longish list of controllers is added the tobacco controller. This step has been taken by the government in order to regulate supplies and prices to retailers and to conserve a full supply for the army. The consumer is likely to be rationed in the near future as all stocks in the country have been taken over by the controller. There are now seven controllers: Of shipping, drink, food, coal mines, railways, potatoes and tobacco.

WOULD MAKE A TRAIN MORE THAN MILE LONG

That's Too Much So Ringling Brothers Solve the Problem.

One hundred and seventy-eight ordinary size cars would be required to transport the people, animals and equipment of the big new circus which the Ringling Brothers are to bring to this city Thursday, July 12. The amount of motive power that would be necessary to haul such a quota makes the use of the average length carrier wholly impracticable. To solve the problem the famous showmen have special "double length" cars built for their use and so manage to load their mammoth organization on eighty-nine cars.

The show trains are this year divided into four, five or at times even six sections depending upon the topography of the country where the circus is to exhibit. A quartet of trains is the rule. The first section is known in spangeland as the "flying squadron." It is the first to reach and the first to leave every exhibition point. On it travel the chief of the commissary department, his staff of assistants, the 80 cooks and waiters who attend to the inner wants of the circus hosts and all the animals excepting the elephants, camels and zebras. The second and third sections carry the splendid baggage horses, the tableaux, band and equipment wagons, the great quantity of scenery, mechanical and electrical paraphernalia used in this season's spectacle. "Cinderella," the immense vans fitted with cedar chests in which are carried the thousands of costumes used in the fairyland spectacle; parade barges and allegorical floats and all the canvas, poles, chairs, roped and myriad of other physical assets of the gigantic undertaking. Lastly comes the fourth section, made up of 22 solid vestibuled Pullman sleepers in which travel the hosts of Ringlingville. These traveling "homes" are resplendent with red and gold. At the forward end of this train are the massive yellow "Pullmans" in which ride the herd of 41 elephants; the camels, zebras and all the beautiful equines that are used in the ring performances. And this year there are also many Shetland ponies, for Ringling Brothers have lately introduced a new trained animal department on their main tent program, dedicated especially to the children.

Were all the cars lettered "Ringling Bros." coupled together they would form a gigantic train more than a mile in length, or a third as long as the street parade. A splendid way to appreciate the extent of the Ringling railway equipment is to go to a second or third-story window overlooking the railroad yards on circus day. For in this manner only can one realize the vastness of that traveling, wheeled caravan, which for seven months each year, is "home" for the hosts of "the world's greatest shows."

MARKLE WOMAN IS

BURNED TO CRISP

Mrs. Aaron Stickler is Fatally Hurt in Gasoline Stove Explosion.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Bluffton, Ind., June 29.—Mrs. Aaron Stickler, of Markle, was burned to a crisp Thursday when a gasoline stove exploded, setting fire to her clothing. The flesh fell off her body in great chunks with her clothing. She was filling the gasoline tank on the stove with one of the burners lighted when the gasoline caught fire, exploding and throwing the burning liquid over her. Her husband rushed to her and extinguished the flames with a blanket, but not until she was burned to a blackened crisp above the knees. The attending physician says there is no hope for her recovery. She has three children.

Two Men in Fight.

Trouble of several days' standing led to a fight between Dan North, well known local contractor and David Dedrick, one of his laborers. North has the contract for paving several streets and has had some trouble with the men on account of wages. Dedrick, it is said, agitated the other men, and last evening he followed North from his home, abusing him and calling him names. When the pair reached the "Elks" club North ran inside and returned with a billiard cue and hit Dedrick about the head and arms with it. A deep gash was cut in his head and his arms and shoulders severely bruised. The men were parted by F. J. Tangeman, local banker, who was passing. Dedrick was taken to a physician who took several stitches in closing the wound on his head. No charges have been filed as yet.

Bluffton Short Items.

F. P. Adams, of this city, suffered a fracture of the leg when he fell in the Baites hotel in Fort Wayne yesterday.

Alleging drunkenness and inhuman treatment, Mrs. Jennie Burns, of Nottingham township, filed suit for divorce from William F. Burns.

As the result of a stroke of paralysis which she suffered earlier in the evening, Mrs. Isaac Clowser, residing northeast of the city, died at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning.

SEES JAPAN AS FIRST CLASS POWER IN WORLD

Tokio, June 29.—Viscount Ichiro Motono, the foreign minister, in a speech before the Japan Emigration Association, said the government is always paying keen and close attention to the emigration of Japanese people to foreign countries.

"Viewed from the progress of politics, national economy, scientific advancement and in other directions, Japan, in her absolute position in the world, cannot be called a first class power yet," he added, "but there is not the least doubt as to the future progress and development of the Japanese nation. The character of the emigrants has an important bearing upon the nation and state they belong to. Hence it is a matter of great importance to promote the education of emigrants and to take measures to elevate their character and make them aware to the conception that they are the subjects of Japan and in a way represent the Japanese nation."

MUST WEAR FINE CLOTHES.

Rome, June 29.—Regarding editorial criticisms of women who continue to wear fine clothes, despite the war, Miss Elvira Spina has protested to the editor of the Giornale d'Italia in a letter as follows: "The simple and sad truth is that it does not pay to be a modestly dressed woman. Let me make a confession. The woman who forces herself to live quietly, to dress unattractively, goes unobserved. The other woman who makes an elaborate toilette, who wears flashy clothes, is admired, courted, loved, married. These days husbands are scarce. So what are we to do, how can we resist temptation? Peace time, war time, men are the same. Change the men and then we too will change."

Lemon Juice is Skin Beautifier, Also a Whitener

Many women use just the juice of lemons to bleach or whiten the skin, but pure lemon juice is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothening and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to bring back to any skin the whiteness, the sweet freshness and flexibility of which it has been robbed by carelessness or trying atmospheric conditions.

BRITISH MONITORS IN ADVANCE ON TRIESTE

Grado, Gulf of Trieste, June 29.—(Correspondence.)—British monitors played an important part in the Italian advance upon Trieste. They took up positions midway up the gulf where their guns could bear upon the aeroplane hangars and the multifarious military establishments which surround Presecco and Contovello, twin villages upon the main road and railway to Trieste, both constituting important depots for the Austrian air service and general supplies.

When the first gun spoke a great shell went hurtling into the distance and an Italian scouting hydroplane duly marked it down upon the railway line south of Presecco. The second shot landed a little north of the first, hitting the railway again at a point where a Trieste-bound train was passing. The train vanished in ruin.

Then other monitors arrived at their stations, and the bombardment continued in a tremendous, measured rhythm. Each monitor fired two hours. They smashed the hangars, flattened the railway station of Presecco, destroyed the railway and viaduct, and produced a great fire near Contovello, whose peak of bright flame was visible out into the gulf.

BRITONS KEEP THEIR SERVANTS

London, June 29.—Thousands of families throughout the country are, in spite of the shortage of labor, keeping their usual pre-war quota of servants. There are instances of households consisting of a mother and two daughters employing a staff of nine servants. In fact, in many homes there are so many servants that they spend most of their time waiting on each other.

LISTEN TO THIS! SAYS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OUT NOW

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.

It is a sticky ether compound which dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.—Advertisement.

FAMOUS GERMAN YACHT, SOLD.

London, June 29.—The Germania, a famous racing yacht formerly owned by Lieutenant Krupp von Bohlen and Halbach of Germany, which was seized by the British government at Cowes at the beginning of the war, has been sold for $50,000 to Captain Hannevig, a Norwegian. The Germania twice won Emperor William's cup at Cowes. She cost $225,000. Captain Hannevig also purchased the racing cutter Paula III or $8,000. The Lasca II sold for $11,000. Both these yachts formerly were owned by Germans, but were seized at Cowes when the war began.

Little Evas Prove Too Much for Fierce Warriors in Opener

HAUGER'S HOMER IS A DECIDING FACTOR

Lack of Timely Hits Causes Downfall of Chiefs in Interesting Go.

The Chiefs passed up another excellent opportunity to win a ball game yesterday, but for some reason or other the atmosphere around the cellar has jaded the spirits of the once fierce warrior band and the Evas took the opening game of the series by a score of 4 to 3. On several occasions Fort Wayne had runners on the bats, with every chance in the world to score, but lack of a timely hit always put the damper on any threatening rally.

The Chiefs started out in the first inning with a burst of speed, scoring one whole run, their first in nineteen innings. After that, however, they remained somnolent until the seventh, when they got two more runners across the plate. In the meantime Center Fielder Hauger, who is drawing his salary because he can bust the old pill a mile, had lifted one into Clinton street, giving the Evas a lead which the Chiefs could not overcome.

Winchell started the pitching for the Evas, and was never in any real danger until the seventh, when big Bill Shoup was hustled in to finish the game. The Chiefs got one run in the first on Evas' single, Greife's muff of a throw on an attempted sacrifice by Vandy, and Siegfried's sacrifice fly. The Chiefs couldn't stand prosperity very long, however, and in the third, with two gone and Winchell on base through a walk, Mr. Hauger caught hold of one of Robert's shoots for a circuit drive which landed somewhere in the region of the city scales. The Evas continued to make life miserable for the warriors in the seventh. Knoll singled, went to second on an out, and registered when Altermatt doubled. Winchell's hit scored the second run of the inning.

The Chiefs grew restive in the seventh, and for a time it looked as if they might turn the tables on the Pioneers. Smith got an infield hit and Gleich doubled.

Kelly hit one to Greife and beat it out. Smith scoring. Gleich came on across.

Brown was snuffed out at second when he attempted to steal.

Bobby Roberts pitched pretty ball and deserved a win, but the brand of hurling handed the Chiefs by the Evas fighters was too much. Vandy shifted the lineup in hopes of adding some hitting strength.

Brown going to left and Pety Powers holding down a seat on the bench. Corridon featured the game with a one-handed stab of Boeale's fly back of short, and Mike Kelly also pulled a feature catch of a wild heave by the shortstop.

GREAT ROSEBURY STABLE MAY BE AUCTIONED IN THIS COUNTRY

It is rumored in New York that the wonderful racing stable of Lord Rosebery, former premier of England, is to be shipped to America, probably to be sold at auction.

The stable consists of sixty-eight horses including some of the greatest thoroughbred strains known to the British turf.

In England Lord Rosebery's name has long been synonymous with what is best in the racing game, and his colors on several occasions preceded those of Edward VII, himself a great breeder of thoroughbreds, to the wire.

Lord Rosebery has won three derbies with his horses, Ladas winning in 1894 and St. Visco the following year. In 1895 Cicera carried Lord Rosebery's colors to the fore in England's greatest classic.

One of the greatest of Rosebery horses in the past was Cylene, which won $128,115 in eleven starts, and was afterward sold to an Argentine syndicate for $125,000.

Nell Gow, winner several years ago of the 2,000 guinea stakes, was another famous figure in the Rosebery stable.

Offering of several of these horses, it is said, will be in the shipment which is to come to America.

Although Lord Rosebery has not officially announced that his stable is for sale, American horsemen generally believe this is his plan, as all of the big American stakes for this year have closed and none of the horses have yet been nominated for 1918.

GERMAN DESERTERS FLOCKING TO HOLLAND

Stream of Refugees Getting to Be a Serious Embarrassment.

The Hague, Netherlands, June 29.—Thousands of deserters, mostly from the German army, now are swelling the stream of refugees pouring into Holland from adjoining countries. Holland has become a great place of refuge for fugitives fleeing from the horrors of the German front, food hardships or the German military regime.

So numerous have these war refugees become that a weekly periodical, called "The Combat," has been established at Amsterdam to carry on a revolutionary socialist propaganda among them. A society of deserters has been formed in Holland, apparently by German agents in order to discover the names of deserters and exert pressure on their families to induce them to return to Germany. Returning deserters no longer are shot, but are sent to the front.

The country is overrun by a small army of spies, persons of both sexes whose work is to spy into Dutch affairs, to spy upon the belligerents and sometimes to spy upon one another. These refugees, deserters and government agents, added to escaping prisoners of war of virtually every entente nationality, fugitive Poles and other peoples of eastern Europe, fleeing from forced labor and other evils have swelled the immigration flood until the problem of what disposition to make of these foreigners has become acute in Holland.

There are many decent men among the deserters who, made desperate by the sufferings and slaughter at the front, or rebelling against their government's system, or policy, have shaken the dust of their fatherland from their feet. Quite a number are convalescent men who were ordered back to the front. A great number are undesirable to whom many crimes are attributed. Some become smugglers, but wholesale banishment from the frontier regions now virtually has closed this profession to them. Police control of them is very inadequate.

Proud of its traditional hospitality, Holland opened its frontiers freely to all comers but public opinion and the government has discovered that there are formidable dangers inherent in this aggregation of immigrants.

What might not happen, Hollanders often ask themselves, if Holland suddenly became involved in the war, with all these vast numbers of foreigners spread all over the country, many of them of the worst or at least of the most doubtful character?

Infectious disease repeatedly has been introduced. The great exodus of Belgians brought typhus and dysentery; Austro-Hungarian emigrants from Galicia, on their way to join relatives in America, and suspected smugglers from that province, brought smallpox; escaped prisoners of war from infected German camps and others occasionally introduced diseases like spotted fever and meningitis. In each case the disease was quickly checked.

Now, however, smallpox has a real hold in parts of Germany as well as in countries farther east, and it is pointed out how easily this and other sources may be brought across the frontier.

The prime minister, Cort van der Linden, announced a few days ago that the increased influx, and the bodily condition of persons entering the country, had necessitated more drastic sanitary measures. Barracks are to be erected at five different points of the frontier, where all Germans entering the country, of whom the great majority are deserters, will be disinfected, while a camp is to be erected for the accommodation of dangerous or undesirable elements among deserters. As regards the national danger, the minister for war, Major General N. Bosboom, endeavored to reassure public opinion in parliament a few days ago by declaring that if Holland became involved in the war it would be made evident that the government was far more conversant with the position as regards foreigners, and had taken far more adequate precautionary measures, than most people thought.

GERMAN U-BOATS ARE FIXED TO CUT NETTING

Base of the American Flotilla in British Waters, June 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—The captain of a torpedoed merchantman has turned over to the naval authorities here a sketch of a new type of German submarine equipped with a wire-cutting device designed to release it from nets. The sketch shows several strands of stout steel hawsers stretched from the bow through the coning tower to the stern. Attached to this is a series of heavy circular knives, a foot in diameter and placed about a yard apart. The captain made the drawing while in a small boat after his ship had been torpedoed. He had been torpedoed on two other ships but on neither of those occasions had he noticed anything new in the type of the German diving boats. While he was not close enough to the last submarine to examine minutely the addition to its upper works he was able to see plainly enough to make a good sketch.

The theory of the captain is that a boat so equipped would have hope of being able to cut its way through any steel nets in which it might become enmeshed.
